These are members whose congressional work involves Middle East affairs, with a desire to learn more of the history, current events and U.S. interests in the area.

PJTN is a nonprofit organization educating leaders about their responsibility to stand with the Jewish people and with Israel. PJTN uses film, media and other avenues to share Israel’s history and heritage. It encourages individuals to become informed and stand strong with Israel, advocating for issues common to US-Israeli interests, educating Members of Congress firsthand, through the sights and people of Israel. This adds another dimension to the educational process, ensuring more informed, involved leaders who return enriched in their capabilities to successfully execute their congressional work on an ongoing basis.

The trip will take place in Israel to educate Members of Congress on the US-Israel relationship. Breakfast is at the hotel, meals are a time for meetings and educational briefings, discussing a variety of issues related to the guests’ congressional duties regarding the Middle East.

The Honorable Jim Jordan
U.S. House of Representatives
1524 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your and your spouse’s proposed trip to Israel,¹ scheduled for October 12 to 19, 2015, sponsored by Proclaiming Justice to the Nations.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $375 from a single source on the “Travel” schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts “of minimal value [currently $375] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy” by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ The U.S. Department of State has issued a warning concerning travel to Israel, the West Bank, and Gaza, available at http://travel.state.gov/content/passports/english/alertswarnings/israel-travel-warning.html. You may wish to contact the State Department regarding the safety of your proposed trip.
If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee’s Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Dent

CWD/LTS:kd
PJTN Educational Seminar in Israel
U.S. Members of Congress
October 12 - 19, 2015
Working Itinerary

Day 1 Monday, October 12
Members will fly from various cities to NYC, international flight to TLV

Day 2 Tuesday, October 13
Morning Arrival Ben Gurion Airport, Tel Aviv
   Transfer to Jerusalem - Check into Inbal hotel - all overnights here

11:00 am Setting the Stage - Orientation and Political Update - at the hotel

12:00 pm Depart for Gush Etzion, Jerusalem’s southern neighbor
12:30 pm Path of the Patriarchs
   Topic: From historic roots to today’s borders - a close-up view
   One of the main objectives of the seminar is to provide a deep understanding of the Israeli-Arab conflict up close. The area of Gush Etzion is located just south of Jerusalem but is separated by a checkpoint and a nearby security barrier.
   * Meet local Palestinian Mukhtar for personal view on coexistence in the region
   * Why is this area so contested? What historic claims are made by local peoples? What do the people think about options for peace in the region?
   * What are the suggested borders and how do they present a viable geographic alternative? View from the ground.

1:30 pm Lunch with Leaders of Efrat and Gush Etzion
   Topic: Jewish settlement - Municipal challenges
   * Municipalities: Are they different in these areas?
   * Town budgets: Appropriating funds and policy development
* An overview of government relations with Efrat and similar towns, geared at providing insight into how ‘normative’ needs of a community overlap with unique security needs, together with the influence of politics. Such as the question of a building freeze in order to secure diplomatic talks. Questions of how personal and national decisions being made, influence the residents.

2:30 pm Travel to Hebron
3:00 pm Tel Rumeida - overview of a divided city

Cave of the Patriarchs

Speakers: Mayor Malachi Levinger and Noam Arnon of Hebron
Topic: Creating borders and alliances - Life in a divided town: Potential paradigm?

5:00 pm Return to Jerusalem
7:00 pm Dinner at hotel

Speaker: General (ret.) Yaacov Amidror - former National Security Advisor to Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu
Topic: A strategic look at Middle East options for peace and prosperity

Day 3 Wednesday, October 14

8:00 am Breakfast briefing with Caroline Glick
Topic: Possibilities for real peace in the Middle East? Iran, Israel and the rest - from new perspectives

10:00 am Meeting with Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu (bring passports)
11:30 am Knesset meetings with Speaker of the Knesset MK Yuli Edelstein, and Members of the US-Israel forum. Includes lunch.

13:00 Depart for Dorad Power Plant in Ashkelon
Topic: Israel’s Energy Challenges - New Directions

Visit energy plant and hear from top engineer on Israel’s newest addition to the grid, along with insight into Israeli government regulations and incentives

15:30 Living with the threat of rocket fire

Strategic tour - Views to Gaza and southern borders; Terror tunnels (if permitted) - with Israel Defense Forces spokesman
Visit with residents, police chief of Sderot

* Israel’s southern front: Israeli communities bordering the Gaza strip have been living... under the threat of rocket fire. Since the Israeli withdrawal from Gaza in 2005 and the Hamas rule there in 2007, the volume, range and accuracy of the rockets has only increased. Summer of 2014 witnessed Operation Protective Edge, returning this area to international headlines. For security reasons, we do not receive the names of the IDF soldiers meeting our group.

* Hear from local residents about life under rocket threats, visit local police station’s rescue workers, view from city to Gaza border. A visit to Sderot is key to understanding threats facing Israel’s border cities, and how the years of rocket fire shape the lives of those living in the communities most affected, physically and psychologically.

19:30 Dinner with Minister Yariv Levin and Racheli Fraenkel,
US-citizen and mother of Naftali, one of three Israeli youths kidnapped and murdered before the war with Gaza broke out (Possible change in guest, if the Minister must leave; guest speaker:
Ambassador Dore Gold, Director-General, Foreign Ministry)

Day 4 Thursday, October 15

8:30 am Breakfast briefing
Speaker: Israel Science and Technology Minister Danny Danon
Topic: Natural resources - Water research, other cooperative opportunities in the Middle East
* It’s critical for trip participants to gain an understanding of the many ways Israel is developing technologies based on its natural resources, affecting the entire area and geopolitical decisions.

10:00 am Depart for Tel Aviv

11:00 am Israel Aircraft Industries: US-Israel military cooperation - The Arrow and beyond
* The IDF honors our request to visit military installations and development sites as part of the joint US-Israel funded defense program. We emphasize this relationship because the Members of Congress are involved in details for these projects through Foreign Affairs, Appropriations and National Defense work.

1:00 pm Depart for aerial tour of Israel’s Northern borders - Members only
* Geopolitical view of Israel’s borders and Golan Heights -
Birds’ eye view of the Middle East conflicts. See the country through the eyes of an Israeli fighter pilot, and as guests of the IDF on the ground.
Speaker: Chaim Silberstein and Mati Dan

* With Jerusalem reunified in 1967, Israel extended the city's boundaries to include strategic hills around Jerusalem. Much of the international community still questions this decision and its political ramifications.
  * Legal, demographic and security angles of a mixed city
  * Geopolitics of a city searching for unity
  * Includes visit to site of future US embassy

3 pm Free

5:30 pm Reflecting on the Sabbath: Friday night home hospitality
  Traditional Shabbat dinner hosted by local residents (casual) - discussion on life in Israel in these turbulent times. 'Lone soldiers' to be included.

Day 6 Saturday, October 17

9:30 Morning briefing
  Speaker: Ambassador Yoram Ettinger
  Topic: US Evolving Interests in the Middle East
  * What are the countries' common concerns? How are they pursued now? Can they be better addressed?
  * Foreign aid to the Middle East - good for the relationship?
  * Responsible appropriations for military and other aid
  * Discuss joint interests between the US and Israel, from demographics to Develop the idea of Israel as America's staunch ally, coordinating efforts that include scientific developments / technological advances, as well as sharing moral values and attitudes towards challenges in the Middle East.
  * Iran will be included in this discussion.

11:00 Walking tour of the Old City - Four Quarters, Myriad of possibilities
  Speaker: Veteran guide David Eisenstadt
  Topic: Historic impact and role in today's political discussions
  * The Old City of Jerusalem is home to the three monotheistic religions. During diplomatic negotiations, the status of this area is discussed and often argued. We'll raise the question of the future of religious sites for all religions as well.

7:00 pm Dinner, preparation for Town Hall meeting
8:15 pm Town Hall - public meeting
Speaker: Marc Zell
Topic: Town Hall in Israel
* Addressing concerns and issues facing US citizens living abroad
  * For example, Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act
  * Participants are residents of Jerusalem who are also citizens of the US - gathering to raise issues of common concern in a platform often used by Members of Congress in their districts. A meeting of the minds, between constituents of a sort, and their elected officials.

Day 7 Sunday, October 18

6:45 am Visit to Temple Mount, with Jerusalem Police and Rabbi Richman, Temple Institute
  * Political implications of a religious conflict - how this affects political solutions today in the city of Jerusalem.
  * This hot topic is best seen in person. Now that the Israeli Police have made it possible to visit the site, it is our privilege to provide an up-close look at what may be the most contested site that comes into play in any discussion over future settlements in this area of the world, both between Israel and the Palestinian Arabs, and Israel and her neighboring countries. As the US State Dept returns to the Middle East as a focal point of its foreign policy to promote solutions and provide options, this is a major and central issue.

8:30 am Return to hotel, breakfast and check out
10:00 am Depart Jerusalem
10:30 am Ofer military court and base: with IDF Spokesman and President of the Court
Speaker: IDF Judge, President of the Court
Topic: Adjudicating the judiciary system in a military framework
  * Justice systems - a comparison. For members of the Judiciary Committee with relevant background, this visit provides insight not normally seen, into the IDF’s challenges as military rule is the basis of law in areas beyond the ‘green line’ and not within the State of Israel’s official borders. Gets complicated.
  * International standards and human rights - are highlights of this meeting, emphasizing the relationship between Israel’s military court system and the people under that rule. Apartheid, boycott, military state - asking the tough questions.
12:30 pm City of Ariel, visit Ariel University
Speaker: University Chancellor Yigal Cohen-Orgad, Former Finance Minister
Topic: Israel Start-Up Nation - Does science have borders?
* Explore US-Israel binational research and technologies with leading scientists
* Security projects underway in cooperation with the US

2:00 pm Lunch at Psagot winery
Topic: Navigating complex political realities
* Personal story of immigration, modern technology and innovations based on the past. Award winning wines compete in a heated political environment.
* The fact that the Shomron is one of the areas coming under Israeli rule in the 1967 Six Day War has created a situation with a questionable future. Members of Congress have the chance to hear opinions on possible solutions and how they affect the people on the ground.
* Are they willing to live in a Palestinian state? Are they fearful of their personal security? Do they believe peace is viable and would they relocate if that stood in the way?
These issues arise in a political discourse between the US and Israel, within the framework of current talks, and personal reflections give the Members a sense of what the future may hold.

3:15 pm Barkan industrial zone
* Boycott or economic boost? With current calls to boycott Israel for its policies, it's important to take a closer look at what the people on the ground are saying. Often these voices are not raised in public.
* Visit joint workplace of Jewish and Arab workers, share thoughts on potential for cooperation or separation.

4:15 pm Shiloh - Site of the Tabernacle
* Archaeological methods driving scientific breakthroughs today, with Ariel University
* At a crossroads - examining the modern map from atop the ancient Tel
