Dear Congressman Gutierrez,

Since Donald Trump's inauguration, the Latino community has been closely watching developments in policy that impact their daily lives. There has been a lot of speculation about the executive orders and memorandums that delineate new priorities for immigration officials and courts. This, along with news about recent removals, has been accompanied with panic and uncertainty throughout the community. For this reason, Univision News has been preparing a town hall meeting to seek answers to all of the questions we see in the community.

As perhaps the most outspoken congressman for immigration rights, we believe that your participation in the town hall will be invaluable. We would look for your guidance as to the environment on the Hill regarding immigration reform and what remedy, if any, there may be to recent actions that accelerate the rate of deportations.

We would like to invite you to be a part of a panel that will answer questions from our hosts as well as from the studio audience.

Here's some preliminary information about the show:

- TITLE: Noticias Univision presents "Immigration: The New Rules."
- AIR DATE: Sunday, March 5th, as a special edition of Aqui y Ahora.
- AIR TIME: 10pm-11pm ET. Second hour is live streamed only. (Arrival at 9pm ET at Univision NEWS studios in Miami.
- MODERATORS: Maria Elena Salinas, Teresa Rodriguez, and Jorge Ramos.
- PANELISTS:
 - o Clarissa Martinez, VP NCLR
 - o Gaby Pacheco, Dreamer
 - o Ruben Martinez, former ICE Official
 - o Ezequiel Hernandez, Immigration Attorney.
 - o Xavier Becerra, California Attorney General VIA SATELLITE

We will have an audience of 80-100 people who will ask questions about their specific immigration situation.

We will use every immigration question to talk about people's rights, what documents they should carry and what preparations they should make if they are indeed at risk of deportation.

We would also like to talk about what action people can take in order to empower themselves and their communities. We have an example of a case in San Antonio who was picked up under questionable circumstances and then released thanks to prompt and insistent community reaction. Finally, we would like to address what role congress can play under the current political climate. We will encourage people to become citizens and participate in their local communities.

Regards,

Lourdes Torres
