The Honorable Charles W. Dent
U.S. House of Representatives
2082 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Germany, scheduled for May 30 to June 3, 2017, sponsored by the U.S. Association of Former Members of Congress, Friedrich Naumann Foundation, and ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $390] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments filed with the Committee, and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

The Honorable Charles W. Dent

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Susan W. Brooks
Chairwoman

Sincerely,

Yvette D. Clarke
Acting Ranking Member

Addendum

Question #4

For over three decades, the annual Congress-Bundestag Seminar has brought together Members of Congress with their counterparts in the German Bundestag to address issues of mutual concern to the transatlantic relationship. Therefore, The Congressional Study Group on Germany – a program of the U.S. Association of Former Members of Congress (FMC) – invites Members of Congress who have expressed interest in transatlantic legislative dialogue and cultural exchange in general, as well as the issues of security, energy, trade, and representative democratic systems, more specifically.

The Hon. Charles W. Dent
The Hon. Chellie Pingree
The Hon. Kathleen Rice
The Hon. Niki Tsongas

Question #12

The U.S. Association of Former Members of Congress is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, congressionally-chartered organization, committed to promoting public service and strengthening representative democracy and legislative dialogue domestically and abroad through non-partisan, non-advocacy programming. For over three decades, the Association's Congressional Study Group on Germany has convened the Annual Congress-Bundestag Seminar to foster frank and candid dialogue between Members of the U.S. Congress and Members of the German Bundestag on the most pertinent issues of the bilateral and broader transatlantic relationship. In light of Germany's increased leadership role on the global and European stages with respect to the Ukrainian crisis and Eurozone crisis, relationships between the US and Germany are more vital than ever, especially following the NSA surveillance affair, which continues to strain ties.

Each year, the Study Group partners with one of five German political foundations on a rotating basis. The Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom (FNF) is the partner for the 34th Annual Congress-Bundestag Seminar. Similar to FMC's mission, FNF fosters political dialogue among political, business, scientific and cultural multipliers from North America and Europe.

FMC has also partnered with the ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius, a private, non-profit, nonpartisan foundation based in Hamburg, which, among its many goals, supports dialogue on cooperative global governance and international understanding.

Question #15b.2)

The Annual Congress-Bundestag Seminar alternates between Germany and the United States each year. Last year's Seminar took place in Washington, DC and Boca Raton, FL, the home district of our Co-Chair, the Hon. Ted Deutch. This year, the Seminar will take place in Berlin and Hamburg. As the seat of the federal government, Berlin is the only destination for high-level meetings with senior government officials. Visiting Hamburg provides the opportunity to learn about transatlantic issues with a regional perspective, especially trade and infrastructure issues. Both cities are also witnesses to a history that includes two world wars and two dictatorships.

The consequences of this history continues to shape German foreign and domestic policy to this day and an understanding of this fact is crucial to stronger bilateral ties.

Dear Colleague,

Last year, you received an invitation to join us for the 34th Annual Congress Bundestag Seminar of The Congressional Study Group on Germany originally planned for March. With the release of the 2017 legislative calendar, we have adjusted the dates of the Seminar to now take place during the Memorial Day recess week: Tuesday, May 30 – Saturday, June 3, 2017, visiting Berlin and Hamburg.

As co-chairs for The Congressional Study Group on Germany (CSGG), a private, non-profit legislative exchange, we are pleased to invite you to join us for this Seminar. The Annual Seminar is the highlight of our programming and alternates between the United States and Germany, most recently in Ted's Florida district in March 2016.

The Seminar's roundtable sessions focus on a productive and lively conversations with a multi-partisan delegation of our counterparts from the German Federal Parliament. In addition to meetings with journalists, business leaders, and civil society representatives, previous agendas included conversations with Cabinet-level officials, including Chancellor Angela Merkel, who has consistently met with each Seminar delegation since 2007.

Our visit to Germany comes at a crucial moment. As the 115th Congress and 45th Presidential administration take office, Germany is preparing for their own federal elections this fall. We hope this timely delegation visit will strengthen ties across the Atlantic and serve to sustain the US-German relationship through these times of transition.

Topics for the 2017 Seminar agenda include the future of the EU after Brexit and mass migration; economic cooperation without T-TIP; prospects for the 45th President of the United States, the 115th Congress, and the 2017 German federal elections; and securing the international liberal order (China, Russia, and the fight against terrorism).

As in previous years, the 2017 Seminar constitutes "privately-sponsored travel," and the CSGG will provide you with the requisite information for the Ethics Committee for approval. Funding is available on a first-come, first-served basis for a balanced delegation of approximately 6

Members of Congress. Airfare for Members of Congress is on Lufthansa from Washington, DC to Germany in business class and from Germany to Washington, DC in premium economy. While spouses are welcome to join, we regret the CSGG cannot cover the cost of their airfare, but they will cover hotels, meals, and local transportation.

We hope you will join us for the continuation of this vital transatlantic dialogue. If you are able to join us or have any questions, please contact Lorraine Harbison of The Congressional Study Group on Germany at 202-222-0972 Ext. 170 or L.Harbison@usafmc.org.

Best wishes,
