This is a Member level trip open to all Congressional Black Caucus members.

If you are unfamiliar, the UN Foundation, it is a public charity that links the UN's work with others around the world, mobilizing the energy and expertise of policymakers, businesses, and NGOs to help the UN tackle global challenges. As part of our mission, we organize several trips per year to UN Headquarters for Members of Congress and staff, providing an opportunity to learn about the UN's work firsthand and ask questions about a wide range of policy initiatives

We are organizing this trip with the support of Rep. Barbara Lee, who will be leading the delegation. The upcoming trip will look at the African American experience and how the United Nations has been a forum for change in the U.S. and around the world. Throughout the trip, we will be meeting with high level leads of UN agencies, like UN Women, the UN Population Fund and UNICEF, as well as the United Nations Secretariat. We also plan on meeting with the US Mission to the United Nations, prominent Member States, and the Commission on the Decade of People of African Descent. The format of the trip will differ from past trips. We are hoping to get the delegation to New York City around 1:00 PM in the afternoon of Monday, April 23rd, have a dinner that evening, and two to three meetings in the morning of Tuesday, April 24th, after which you will depart for DC.
