12. For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

The Humpty Dumpty Institute:

One of the Humpty Dumpty Institute's (HDI) main focuses is to foster dialogue between the U.S. Congress and the United Nations. To date, over 650 Members and their staff have participated in our U.N. programs. Since 2009, HDI has also developed overseas programs by which Members of the U.S. Congress and Staff Employees have had the opportunity to meet and discuss issues on an international basis. Most recently, HDI brought Congressional Delegations (incl. Staff) to Belgium, Malawi, Bahrain and Sudan. HDI is organizing a delegation to the United Nations to bring together the leadership of the legislative branch of the United States Government and the leadership of the United Nations. The program allows U.S. elected leaders to better understand how the United Nations can complement U.S. foreign policy objectives as well as allows them to present ideas, concerns, and proposals directly to the United Nations. HDI will conduct the program from start to finish, including sending invitations to Members, providing logistical arrangements, providing appropriate Ethics Committee forms for reporting, and coordinating with the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of the Treasury to ensure that everything is done appropriately. HDI will accompany the participants to all meetings and make sure that the program follows the House Ethics Rules.
