Question 12: Description of Sponsor Interest and Role

With Honor Action is a cross-partisan movement dedicated to promoting and advancing principled veteran leadership in elected public service. Our country has been ripped apart by hyper-partisanship. We are a country where some political and community leaders can't even talk to each other, compromise, or get anything done. With Honor Action is convening its inaugural symposium as an opportunity to bring together people from across the country and political spectrum who believe in the common mission to help fix our broken civic dialogue with a day of engaging programming that will help all attendees better understand the challenges our country faces and the opportunities ahead for broad-based change.

Question 18: Total Expenses for Each Participant (Total Transportation Expenses per Participant)

One-way travel for return trip from Baltimore, Maryland to Washington, D.C. only. Estimated travel expense via car is $27 ($0.58 x 47 miles) and via rail is $30 using Amtrak.
