PRIVATE SPONSOR TRAVEL CERTIFICATION FORM - House invitee explanations

4. The following are House Member invitees for the event and explanations for each invitation. Club for Growth has invited Members of Congress whom it believes are strong advocates of pro-growth policies, in order to educate our membership on economic policy issues from a pro-growth standpoint.

Listed House Members are accepting travel expenses from the Club for Growth. Other House Members, not listed on the privately-sponsored travel forms, may be paying for travel-related expenses for the event personally or through campaign funds.

Andy Biggs, Mark Meadows, and John Ratcliffe - To educate our membership on and have the benefit of their expertise on the Constitutional standard for impeachment. The House members will benefit from education and stimulating discussion with Club personnel and members on significant policy matters, as outlined in the Agenda.

Dan Bishop, Ralph Norman and Greg Steube - To educate our membership on and have the benefit of their expertise on Congressional spending. The House members will benefit from education and stimulating discussion with Club personnel and members on significant policy matters, as outlined in the Agenda.

Ted Budd and Warren Davidson - To educate our membership on and have the benefit of their expertise on the impact of death & wealth taxes on America. The House members will benefit from education and stimulating discussion with Club personnel and members on significant policy matters, as outlined in the Agenda.

ADDENDUMS

5. & 18 (row 2) Congressman Ted Budd, Dan Bishop, Ralph Norman, Greg Steube, Andy Biggs, and Warren Davidson accepted the Club for Growth's offer to allow the spouses of House Members attend the event with them. The spouses' travel will be paid at their own expense and only meal costs will be covered by the Club for Growth.

16. The Club for Growth chose The Breakers hotel for several reasons. The hotel has the conference spaces we require—for groups larger than 100 people—and the level of conference services we need to host that many people. We hire a conference broker to ensure we find the least expensive hotel that would accommodate our group. This contract was signed 5 years in advance to secure these comparatively low rates. The cost of the room at The Breakers is $540 per evening. The rooms at this rate that we offer Members of Congress are the same rooms we block out for and rates we offer to our attendees, and is the least expensive rate that we are able to offer. This is significantly less than the non-contract room rates that start at $880 per night that we negotiated down with the assistance of our conference broker. Room rates are nightly, subject to 13% tax, bringing the post-tax nightly rate up to $610.20

18 (column 3). Meals served at The Breakers are the same for Members of Congress as they are for conference attendees. The Club for Growth works to order the least expensive meal options that The Breakers has available, and is working with the hotel staff to reduce the costs of meals as well. The hotel works their overhead for large banquets into the meal costs so actual price reflects costs to maintain their facilities, wait staff, cleaning staff, food preparation and kitchen maintenance. In addition, "extras" are not made available to Members of Congress, including alcohol, and therefore extras are not calculated into the meal estimates for the Members of Congress.
