COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

Washington, DC 20515

December 22, 2022

The Honorable Claudia Tenney
U.S. House of Representatives
1410 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to United Kingdom,¹ scheduled for January 12 to 17, 2023, sponsored by Association of Marshall Scholars.

Committee travel regulations require that you submit your complete pre-trip approval request to the Committee at least 30 days before the commencement of the trip or it will not be granted. Despite your failure to do so in this instance, we are approving your current request. However, any future requests should adhere to the 30-day requirement.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than the reporting threshold from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. That reporting threshold is currently $415 but is set to adjust in 2023. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts “of minimal value [currently $415, but set to adjust in 2023] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy” by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee’s Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

THE TIES THAT BIND

Every year, the Association of Marshall Scholars partners with Emerson College Polling Center to conduct a poll that highlights major current issues and public perceptions about US-UK ties. This year's report surveys American attitudes toward strategic alliances, international partnerships and overseas learning. The data—which found that 80 percent of Americans believe US-UK leadership is important for global security—comes just as the UK government is experiencing great political change with a new Prime Minister and a new King.

“Americans understand how critically important US-UK leadership is to global security,” said Dr. Nell Breyer, executive director of the AMS. “The strong response to the war in Ukraine reflects our shared foundational values and mutual commitment to democratic norms. The American public hopes the next British Prime Minister will continue prioritizing NATO leadership with the current US administration.” Here are a few key takeaways from the poll.

Which of the following countries do you think is the most valuable ally and strategic partner of the United States?

● United Kingdom
 ● Canada
 ● China
 ● Someone Else
 ● Germany
 ● Australia
 ● France
 ● Italy

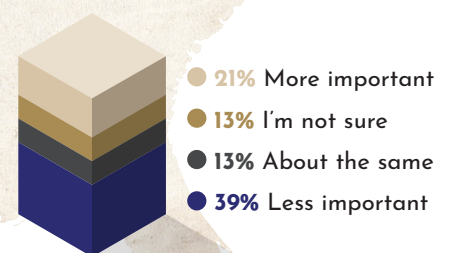

Is the alliance between the United States and the United Kingdom more or less important today than it was five years ago?

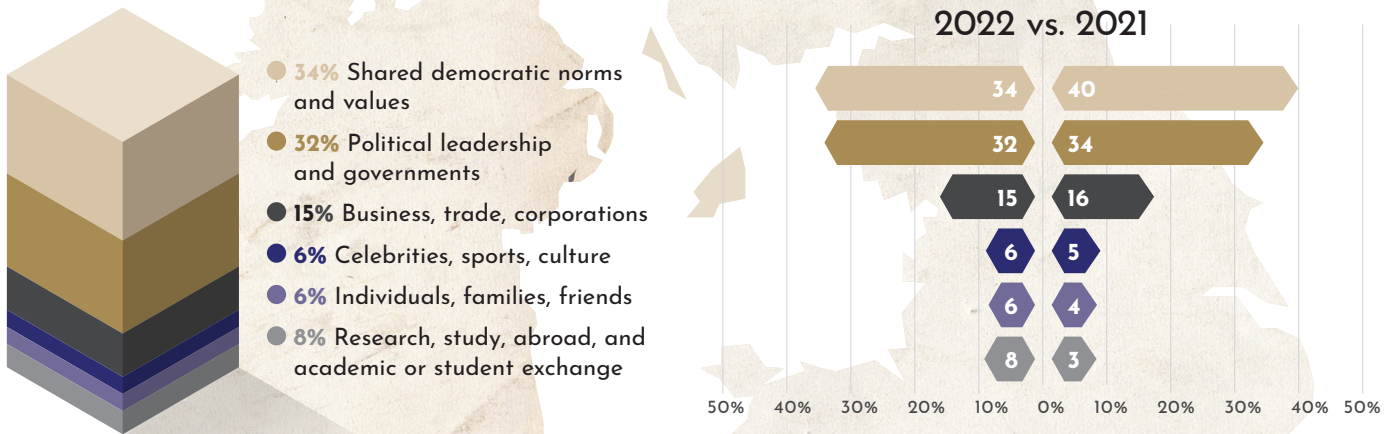

In the last year, do you think that relations between the United States and the United Kingdom have gotten better, gotten worse, or stayed about the same?

For the next generation, how important do you think the British monarchy will be to relations between the United States and the United Kingdom?

In your opinion, which of the following has the most significant influence on a strong alliance between the United States and the United Kingdom?

How important is a free trade agreement between the United States and the United Kingdom?

How important is the United States' and the United Kingdom's leadership in tackling climate change?

A NEW CLASS

Introducing the 2023 Marshall Scholars

The 40 winners of the 2023 Marshall Scholarships were unveiled by the British government in December. The recipients, considered among the most accomplished undergraduate university students and recent graduates in the United States, were chosen following an intense selection process. The 2023 class will begin graduate studies at universities across the United Kingdom next year, coinciding with the 70th anniversary of the scholarship.

This year's class includes accomplished authors, astrophysicists, a human rights advocate, and COVID-19 researchers, among other disciplines. Eighty-five percent of the 2023 class intend to pursue public service careers in the US following their time in the UK, including representatives from the US Military Academy and US Air Force Academy who will take up active-duty service upon completing their studies.

“Whether it is the War in Ukraine or global challenges from the effects of climate change, Marshall Scholars continue to work to help address global issues head on,” said Dame Karen Pierce, British ambassador to the United States. “The British government is excited to support these future leaders of American society as they begin the next stage of their lives studying at some of the UK’s top academic institutions.”

ASSOCIATION OF MARSHALL SCHOLARS

ABOUT THE AMS

British Parliament created the Marshall Scholarship in 1953 in gratitude to the United States for the Marshall Plan. The flagship program continues today as an extraordinary opportunity for between 40-50 highly accomplished young Americans to begin or continue post-graduate education at any university in the United Kingdom.

The Association of Marshall Scholars works to strengthen US-UK ties and also the Marshall Scholarship. Historically, the transatlantic alliance has served as a linchpin for liberal democracy, prosperity, and global peace. A valuable thread of this relationship has been the Marshall Scholarship, an educational program strengthening international exchange and advancement in nearly every field of human endeavor.

Over 2,000 young Americans have been awarded Marshall Scholarships to study at universities throughout the United Kingdom. Since that time, the Scholarship has counted among its distinguished alumni a Nobel Laureate, a NASA Astronaut, Oscar, and Academy Award winners and nominees, fourteen MacArthur Fellows, six Pulitzer Prize winners, founders of global companies such as Dolby Labs and LinkedIn, presidents of Universities and Colleges, and many in the military and public service across the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government.

In recent years, the Association has developed programs to foster educational exchange with its membership and civic leaders in the US and in the UK. Examples of these ongoing programs include The Marshall Forum and the US-UK Legislative Exchange.

A close accord between our two countries is essential to the good of mankind in this turbulent world of today, and that is not possible without an intimate understanding of each other. These scholarships point the way to the continuation and growth of the understanding which found its necessity in the terrible struggle of the war years.

– GEORGE C. MARSHALL

The vision of Secretary Marshall and of the United States lives on in the special relationship and strong bonds of friendship between our two nations and in their steadfast commitment to our common cause of freedom.

– HER MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II

The former Prince of Wales, serves as Patron of the Association of Marshall Scholars.

ASSOCIATION OF MARSHALL SCHOLARS

ABOUT THE AMS

British Parliament created the Marshall Scholarship in 1953 in gratitude to the United States for the Marshall Plan. The flagship program continues today as an extraordinary opportunity for between 40-50 highly accomplished young Americans to begin or continue post-graduate education at any university in the United Kingdom.

The Association of Marshall Scholars works to strengthen US-UK ties and also the Marshall Scholarship. Historically, the transatlantic alliance has served as a linchpin for liberal democracy, prosperity, and global peace. A valuable thread of this relationship has been the Marshall Scholarship, an educational program strengthening international exchange and advancement in nearly every field of human endeavor.

Over 2,000 young Americans have been awarded Marshall Scholarships to study at universities throughout the United Kingdom. Since that time, the Scholarship has counted among its distinguished alumni a Nobel Laureate, a NASA Astronaut, Oscar, and Academy Award winners and nominees, fourteen MacArthur Fellows, six Pulitzer Prize winners, founders of global companies such as Dolby Labs and LinkedIn, presidents of Universities and Colleges, and many in the military and public service across the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government.

In recent years, the Association has developed programs to foster educational exchange with its membership and civic leaders in the US and in the UK. Examples of these ongoing programs include The Marshall Forum and the US-UK Legislative Exchange.

A close accord between our two countries is essential to the good of mankind in this turbulent world of today, and that is not possible without an intimate understanding of each other. These scholarships point the way to the continuation and growth of the understanding which found its necessity in the terrible struggle of the war years.

– GEORGE C. MARSHALL

The vision of Secretary Marshall and of the United States lives on in the special relationship and strong bonds of friendship between our two nations and in their steadfast commitment to our common cause of freedom.

– HER MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II

THE TIES THAT BIND

Every year, the Association of Marshall Scholars partners with Emerson College Polling Center to conduct a poll that highlights major current issues and public perceptions about US-UK ties. This year's report surveys American attitudes toward strategic alliances, international partnerships and overseas learning. The data—which found that 80 percent of Americans believe US-UK leadership is important for global security—comes just as the UK government is experiencing great political change with a new Prime Minister and a new King.

“Americans understand how critically important US-UK leadership is to global security,” said Dr. Nell Breyer, executive director of the AMS. “The strong response to the war in Ukraine reflects our shared foundational values and mutual commitment to democratic norms. The American public hopes the next British Prime Minister will continue prioritizing NATO leadership with the current US administration.” Here are a few key takeaways from the poll.

Which of the following countries do you think is the most valuable ally and strategic partner of the United States?

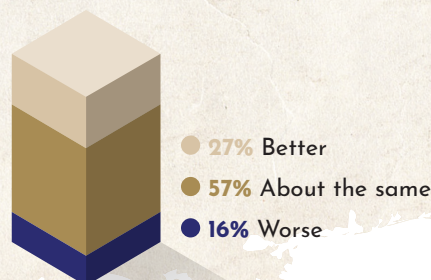

United Kingdom Canada China Someone Else Germany Australia France Italy

Is the alliance between the United States and the United Kingdom more or less important today than it was five years ago?

In the last year, do you think that relations between the United States and the United Kingdom have gotten better, gotten worse, or stayed about the same?

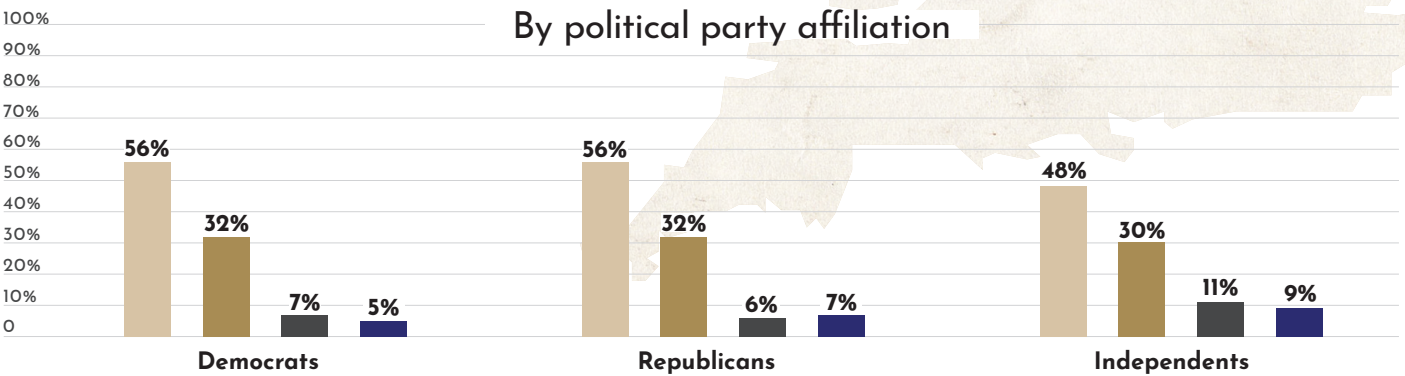

For the next generation, how important do you think the British monarchy will be to relations between the United States and the United Kingdom?

In your opinion, which of the following has the most significant influence on a strong alliance between the United States and the United Kingdom?

How important is a free trade agreement between the United States and the United Kingdom?

How important is the United States' and the United Kingdom's leadership in tackling climate change?

A NEW CLASS

The recipients, considered among the most accomplished undergraduate university students and recent graduates in the United States, were chosen following an intense selection process. This year's class includes accomplished authors, astrophysicists, a human rights advocate, and COVID-19 researchers, among other disciplines. Eighty-five percent of the 2023 class intend to pursue public service careers in the US following their time in the UK, including representatives from the US Military Academy and US Air Force Academy who will take up active-duty service upon completing their studies.

“Whether it is the War in Ukraine or global challenges from the effects of climate change, Marshall Scholars continue to work to help address global issues head on,” said Dame Karen Pierce, British ambassador to the United States. “The British government is excited to support these future leaders of American society as they begin the next stage of their lives studying at some of the UK’s top academic institutions.”
