The Honorable Mike Bost
U.S. House of Representatives
352 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your and your spouse's proposed trip to the United Kingdom,¹ scheduled for August 6 to 11, 2023, sponsored by the Ripon Society and the Franklin Center for Global Policy Exchange.

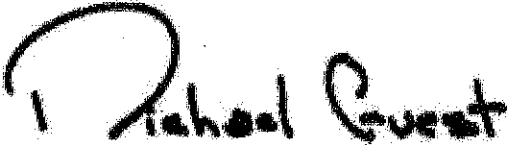

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

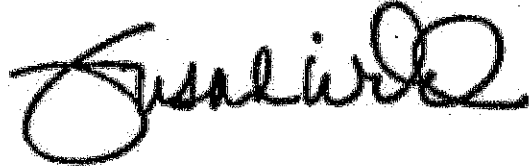

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Programmatic Elements

The TransAtlantic Capital to Capital Exchange will be held in London and focus on “The Special Relationship” that exists between the United States and the United Kingdom, as well as the areas of current and future cooperation between our two great countries. To achieve this goal, the conference will hold panel discussions, breakout sessions, and dinner discussions with U.S. Members of Congress and UK officials and leading members of industry focusing on 10 major policy areas: trade, taxation, energy security, financial services, defense and NATO, health care, China, immigration, artificial intelligence, and engagement with the Pacific and the EU.

Panel Discussions, Breakout Sessions, and Dinner Discussions

Throughout the conference, the Members of Congress will participate in panels and breakout sessions. For the panels, the topics are chosen based on the Representative’s unique area of interest, committee assignments or expertise. On each panel they will be joined by current UK government officials, former officials and other experts and industry leaders from the UK and the EU. All Members of Congress will be in the audience during these panel discussions.

For breakout sessions and dinner discussions, the Members of Congress will participate in small discussions about specific topics relevant to the U.S. and UK as well as their relations around the globe.

Tuesday, August 8

TransAtlantic Capital to Capital Exchange

London, England | August 7-11, 2023

January 18, 2023

Congressman Mike Bost
U.S. House of Representatives
352 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Bost:

You and Tracy are invited to participate in the TransAtlantic Capital to Capital Exchange policy conference that The Ripon Society and the Franklin Center are holding in London, England, August 7-11, 2023. We will depart from the U.S. on Sunday, August 6, to arrive in London on Monday, August 7, and return to Washington, DC on Friday, August 11.

The purpose of this policy conference is to examine some of the key issues impacting the U.S.-U.K. relationship. One of our main topics will be trade, particularly as it relates to trade between the U.S. and U.K. The conference will also feature panel discussions and keynote presentations on such topics as energy and climate change, global financial services, healthcare, technology and data policy, corporate tax policy, the future of NATO and the prospects for a free trade agreement between the U.S. and UK.

The conference keynote addresses and panel discussions will feature Members of Congress, British government officials, diplomats from the region, and policy experts from both business and academia. As a leader in U.S. legislative policy and a longtime proponent of making sure the United States remains engaged around the world, we would be honored to have you participate in these policy discussions as well.

You and Tracy will receive non-refundable roundtrip business class airfare directly between your Congressional District and London, hotel accommodations, group meals and ground transportation. The TransAtlantic Capital to Capital Exchange has been organized in accordance with all Ethics Committee guidelines.

A final agenda for the policy conference will be provided to you in June. You will be asked to be a speaker at one or more of the policy sessions. While your contributions to all sessions would be of great interest, we will work with your office to identify the specific topic(s) where you can help lead the discussion as a speaker.

We will also visit the British Parliament among other historic sites in and around London.

We have limited capacity and will take acceptances on a first come first served basis. Kindly RSVP by February 1 but earlier if possible.

If you accept this invitation, we will provide the necessary documents you must submit to the House Ethics Committee in June. We can accommodate a 28-30 Member bipartisan delegation along with our other guests. It is our sincere hope that you will be able to participate in this event.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (202) 216-1008 or jconzelman@riponsociety.org.

Sincerely,

Jim Conzelman
President and CEO
