U.S. House of Representatives
1730 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Miami, Florida, and Cuba,¹ scheduled for February 18 to 22, 2024, sponsored by Center for Democracy in the Americas.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Michael Guest". The first letter "M" is large and loops around the first few letters of the name.

- 7:00 pm Depart for dinner from hotel lobby
- 7:30 pm-10:00pm Dinner Discussion with Ana Sofía Peláez, Michael Bustamante, Amaury Pacheco, and other members of the Cuban American Community.
The delegation will receive a pre-trip briefing about the history of engagement between the Cuban diaspora in the U.S. and the Cuban people in Cuba, how U.S. policy over the years has affected this engagement, and a current view on the options from a Cuban American perspective. Ana Sofía Peláez is an activist and award-winning food and culture writer who has organized Latino get out the vote efforts since 2016. Her first cookbook, The Cuban Table, was nominated for a James Beard award and she contributed to The Immigrant Cookbook to benefit the ACLU Immigrants' Rights Project. She currently works in the childhood nutrition space and is a frequent contributor to national media outlets. She earned a BA from Barnard College, and a Master's from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid. Michael J. Bustamante is an Associate Professor of History and the Emilio Bacardí Moreau Chair in Cuban and Cuban-American Studies at the University of Miami, where he also directs academic programs at the Cuban Heritage Collection and the undergraduate program in Cuban Studies. He has published significant works on Cuban memory and politics, including "Cuban Memory Wars: Retrospective Politics in Revolution and Exile" and co-edited "The Revolution from Within: Cuba, 1959-1980," contributing to academic and public discourse on Cuban and Latin American studies. Before his academic career, Bustamante worked as a Research Associate for Latin America Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations, and is known for his scholarship on Cuban topics and as a commentator on contemporary Cuban affairs, Cuban-American politics, and U.S.-Cuban relations. Amaury Pacheco, an Afro-Cuban poet and prominent figure in Cuba's independent art scene, has started a new chapter in Miami after fleeing Cuba's through the Biden Administration's humanitarian parole program. Known for his critical stance against censorship and his role in founding the artist collective Movimiento San Isidro, Pacheco's activism led to surveillance and harassment by Cuban authorities, prompting his escape to the U.S. with his family, minus one son who remains imprisoned in Cuba. Now in Miami, Pacheco navigates the challenges of adapting to a new country, learning English, and planning to continue his activism and artistry in a vastly different context.
