SPONSOR POST-TRAVEL DISCLOSURE FORM

Original Amendment

This form must be completed by an officer of any organization that served as the primary trip sponsor in providing travel expenses or reimbursement for travel expenses to House Members, officers, or employees under House Rule 25, clause 5. A completed copy of the form must be provided to each House Member, officer, or employee who participated in the trip within 10 days of their return. You must answer all questions, and check all boxes, on this form for your submission to comply with House Rules and the Committee's Travel Regulations. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the denial of future requests to sponsor trips and/or subject the current traveler to disciplinary action or a requirement to repay the trip expenses.

NOTE: Willful or knowing misrepresentations on this form may be subject to criminal prosecution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1001.

1. Sponsor(s) who paid or provided in-kind support for the trip: _____
The Aspen Institute, Inc. (Congressional Program)

2. Travel Destination(s): Málaga and Seville, Spain

3. Date of Departure: May 26, 2025 Date of Return: May 31, 2025

4. Name(s) of Traveler(s): Rep. Ami Bera, Sydra Bera

Note: You may list more than one traveler on a form only if all information is identical for each person listed.

5. Actual amount of expenses paid on behalf of, or reimbursed to, each individual named in Question 4:

	Total Transportation Expenses	Total Lodging Expenses	Total Meal Expenses	Total Other Expenses (dollar amount per item and description)
Traveler	$7,212	$1,440	$494	$287
Accompanying Family Member	$6,813	-0-	$494	$287

6. All expenses connected to the trip were for actual costs incurred and not a per diem or lump sum payment.
Signify statement is true by checking box.

I certify that the information contained in this form is true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge.

HOUSE APPENDIX
Aspen Institute Congressional Program
AI and America's Place in the World

May 26-31, 2025

Question 4: Provide names and titles of all House Members you are inviting. For each House invitee, provide an explanation of why the individual was invited.

These members are invited due to their subject matter interest and expertise in the geopolitical issues to be discussed at the conference.

1. Rep. Peter Aguilar: House Committee on Appropriations
2. Rep. Jim Baird: House Committee on Science, Space and Technology
3. Rep. Ami Bera: House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
4. Rep. Don Beyer: House Committee on Ways and Means
5. Rep. Kat Cammack: House Committee on Energy and Commerce
6. Rep. Dan Crenshaw: House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
7. Rep. Diana DeGette: House Committee on Energy and Commerce
8. Rep. Neal Dunn: House Committee on Energy and Commerce
9. Rep. Bill Foster: House Committee on Financial Services
10. Rep. Andy Harris: House Committee on Labor
11. Rep. Darrell Issa: House Committee on Science, Space and Technology
12. Rep. Sara Jacobs: House Committee on Armed Services
13. Rep. John Joyce: House Committee on Energy and Commerce
14. Rep. Darin LaHood: House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
15. Rep. Rick Larsen: House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure
16. Rep. Ted Lieu: House Committee on the Judiciary
17. Rep. Jim McGovern: House Committee on Rules
18. Rep. Jay Obernolte: House Committee on Science, Space and Technology
19. Rep. Kim Schrier: House Committee on Energy and Commerce
20. Rep. Pete Sessions: House Committee on Oversight and Accountability
21. Rep. Adam Smith: House Committee on Armed Services

Question 12 (continued): With AI poised to reshape national security, economic competitiveness, and international norms, this convening continues AICP's mission of helping lawmakers engage thoughtfully with the most pressing issues of our time. AICP organized and conducted the conference and selected and invited the attendees. The foundation listed in 3C, Center for Responsible Innovation, did not play a role in organizing or conducting the conference. The foundation provided grant funding for the program.

Question 15(b) (continued): Spain specifically was chosen as it has a strong track record and expertise on AI as it was the first EU country to open an AI office, and is a leader within Europe, home to many good experts on whom we are drawing for our conference. Málaga is also the home of the European headquarters of Google's cybersecurity network, allowing us to do a site visit. Finally, Spain is a reasonable travel destination for experts and scholars attending from Spain and the Europe region.

AI and America's Place in the World

May 26-31, 2025 | Málaga and Seville, Spain

AGENDA¹

MONDAY, May 26:

U.S. participants depart the U.S. throughout the day.

TUESDAY, May 27 (Overnight in Málaga):

U.S. participants arrive in Spain throughout the day, check into Palacio Solecio Hotel.

6 – 7 PM: Pre-Dinner Fireside Chat: The Geopolitics of AI: Overview

AI is not just a transformative technology—it is a strategic asset reshaping the balance of global power. This opening session will provide a high-level overview of the geopolitical dimensions of AI, from national security and economic advantage to values-based competition over how the technology is governed and deployed. Our opening speakers will assess the AI strategies of major powers, the global race for talent and computers, and the emerging fault lines between democratic and authoritarian approaches to AI development.

¹ Congressional Program Executive Director Charlie Dent moderates the discussion sessions, recognizes members of Congress who have questions, and is assisted by a timekeeper to ensure the conversation is quick paced and every member of Congress has an opportunity to ask questions and discuss the issues.

Speakers:

Vilas Dhar, President, McGovern Foundation

Eva Maydell, Member, European Parliament

Vivian Schiller, Executive Director, Aspen Digital (moderator)

7 – 9 PM: Working Dinner, Gallo Ronco

Seating is arranged to expose participants to a diverse range of views and provide the opportunity for a meaningful exchange of ideas. Scholars and lawmakers are rotated daily. Discussions will focus on the geopolitics of AI.

WEDNESDAY, May 28 (Overnight in Málaga):

7 – 8:45 AM: Breakfast available to all participants

Roundtables: Fundación Unicaja

9 – 9:15 AM: Introduction and Framework of the Conference

This conference is organized into roundtable conversations, working lunches, and pre-dinner remarks. This segment will highlight how the conference will be conducted, how those with questions will be recognized, and how responses will be timed to allow for as much engagement as possible.

Speaker:

Charlie Dent, Vice President, Aspen Institute;
Executive Director, Congressional Program

9:15 – 11 AM: Roundtable Discussion:

Global Competition: AI and the Battle for Technological Leadership

AI has become central to geopolitical, strategic and security competition. This session examines how different actors—China, the Gulf States, Europe, and Africa—are approaching and developing AI tools and the infrastructure to adopt them for economic growth, national security, and political influence. Panelists will explore China's state-driven AI strategy, the Gulf's heavy investment in AI infrastructure, Europe's focus on regulation, and Africa's emerging role in AI adoption. The discussion will also address critical pressure points, including export controls, semiconductor supply chains, and the policy levers the U.S. can use to maintain its technological edge.

Speakers will address the following questions:

- How does China’s centralized, state-driven approach to AI development compare to the U.S.’s more decentralized, private-sector-led model?
- How are the Gulf States leveraging AI investment as a geopolitical tool, and what are the implications for U.S. interests?
- Does Europe’s strong regulatory stance on AI hinder its competitiveness in the global AI race, or will the so-called “Brussels effect” create a framework that others will eventually follow?
- What role does Africa play in the AI landscape, and how should the U.S. engage with emerging AI markets on the continent?
- How effective are current U.S. export controls on AI-related technologies, and what additional steps should be taken to secure semiconductor supply chains?

Speakers:

Kayla Blomquist, Director, Oxford China Policy Lab

Klon Kitchen, Managing Director, Beacon Global Strategies

11 – 11:15 AM: Break

11:15 AM – 1 PM: Roundtable Discussion:

Economic, Jobs, and Labor Impact

AI is already reshaping the U.S. economy—while it is increasing productivity and restructuring entire sectors, it is raising difficult questions about the future of work for U.S. workers and companies. This discussion will explore how AI is likely to affect labor markets in both the short and long term, including sectoral job displacement, wage pressure, and new opportunities for growth and investment in the U.S. and globally. It will also address how policymakers can balance innovation with workforce resilience through education, training, and targeted investment.

Speakers will address the following questions:

- How does AI change the nature of productivity and economic competitiveness at the national level—and what levers does the federal government have to shape outcomes?
- Which sectors of the U.S. economy and which jobs are most vulnerable to AI-driven disruption, and which are most likely to benefit?
- How can policymakers ensure that workers—particularly in lower-income and rural communities—are not left behind in the AI economy?
- What investments are needed in education, workforce retraining, and apprenticeship to prepare Americans for AI-impacted jobs?

Speakers:

Jack Clark, Co-Founder, Anthropic

Jaime Sevilla, Director, Epoch

1 – 2 PM: Working Lunch at Patio de Beatas with Remarks: AI and Global Health

Speaker:

Mark Dybul, Co-Director of the Center for Global Health Practice and Impact, Georgetown University Medical Center

2:30 – 4:00 PM: Site Visit to Google Cyber Security Center in Málaga

Málaga is the European headquarters of Google's cybersecurity network. We will be doing a site visit there on the same day we are discussing cyber security threats in the region and US challenges more broadly. Learning from our European colleagues about the current day risks, opportunities and challenges associated with cyber security and ensuring US private sector leadership will be a core theme of the day. Jose Luis Ugía, Developer Relations for Google Spain at the Málaga Center will be our guide.

4-6 PM: Individual Discussions

Scholars will be available to meet individually with members of Congress for in-depth discussion of ideas raised in the morning sessions, including Jack Clark, Jamie Sevilla, Kayla Bloomquist and Klon Kitchen.

6:30 – 7:30 PM: Pre-Dinner Remarks: Software Singularity

Jack Clark, Co-Founder of Anthropic, will deliver thought-provoking pre-dinner remarks examining Software Singularity and its critical implications for technology policy, governance, and regulatory approaches in an AI-accelerated world.

Speaker:

Jack Clark, Co-Founder, Anthropic

7:30 – 10 PM: Working Dinner at Picasso Museum

Seating is arranged to expose participants to a diverse range of views and provide the opportunity for a meaningful exchange of ideas. Scholars and lawmakers are rotated daily. Discussions will focus on global AI competition and AI's economic impacts.

THURSDAY, May 29 (Overnight in Seville):

6:30 – 7:45 AM: Breakfast, check out of Palacio Solecio Hotel

Roundtables: Fundación Unicaja

8 – 10 AM: Roundtable Discussion:

AI and Cybersecurity: Defending Against Next Generation Threats

Increasingly powerful AI is reshaping both cyber defense and cyber offense. AI is being used to detect threats, automate security responses, and fortify digital infrastructure—but it is also enabling more sophisticated cyberattacks, including AI-generated phishing, deepfake deception, and turbocharged hacking. This session explores the evolving cybersecurity landscape, the risks AI poses to national security and critical infrastructure, and the policies and technologies needed to protect against AI-driven threats. Panelists will also discuss how governments and private-sector leaders can collaborate to ensure AI enhances, rather than undermines, cybersecurity.

Speakers will address the following questions:

- How is AI transforming both cyber offense and defense, and what emerging threats should we be most concerned about?
- What role should the federal government play in regulating AI-driven cybersecurity threats, particularly regarding critical infrastructure?
- How can AI be used to detect and mitigate threats faster than traditional cybersecurity methods?
- What are the risks of AI-generated misinformation and deepfakes in cyber warfare and political interference?
- How should businesses and governments collaborate to create global norms for AI security while maintaining competitive advantages?

Speakers:

Rob Joyce, Founder, Joyce Cyber; former NSA Director of Cybersecurity

Ciaran Martin, Founding CEO of the National Cyber Security Centre and Professor, University of Oxford

10 – 10:15 AM: Break

10:15 AM – 12 PM: Roundtable Discussion:

The Race for Compute and Energy Demands from AI Systems

AI's rapid advancement is driving an unprecedented surge in energy consumption, from data centers powering large-scale machine learning models to edge computing and real-time AI applications. As AI adoption grows, so does its strain on power grids, raising concerns about sustainability, efficiency, and long-term energy security. We will explore the energy demands of AI systems today and in the future, strategies for improving efficiency, and the role of renewable energy and grid modernization in supporting AI's expansion, including how policymakers, utilities, and tech companies can address the intersection of AI growth and energy sustainability.

Speakers will address the following questions:

- What is current AI energy demand and how is it expected to grow in the next decade?
- What technological advancements, such as more efficient chips and cooling systems, can help mitigate AI's energy impact?
- What role should renewable energy play in meeting AI's growing electricity needs, and is it scaling fast enough?
- How should governments and regulators think about the balance between energy efficiency standards for AI infrastructure and promoting rapid innovation?

Speakers:

Brad Carson, Co-Founder and President, Center for Responsible Innovation

Divyansh Kaushik, Vice President, Beacon Global Strategies

Owen Larter, Senior Director, Frontier Policy and Public Affairs, Google DeepMind

12:30 PM: Pickup Box Lunch for the Road

1:00 – 4:00 PM: Depart Malaga for Seville Via Bus

4:00 PM: Arrive in Seville, check into Querecia de Seville Hotel

5:00 -7:00 PM: Individual Discussions

Scholars will be available to meet individually with members of Congress for in-depth discussion of ideas raised in the morning sessions, including Brad Carson, Divyansh Kaushik, Owen Larter, Chris Krebs and Vivian Schiller.

7 – 9 PM: Working Dinner, Eneko Basque

Seating is arranged to expose participants to a diverse range of views and provide the opportunity for a meaningful exchange of ideas. Scholars and lawmakers are rotated daily. Discussions will focus on AI and cybersecurity, AI-driven energy demands, and AI-generated information manipulation.

FRIDAY, May 30 (Overnight in Seville):

7 – 8:45 AM: Breakfast

Roundables: Metropol Parasol

9 – 11 AM: Roundtable Discussion:

AI and Military Power: The Future of Warfare and National Security

AI is transforming military strategy and tactics, with impacts on everything from autonomous weapons to war gaming, intelligence analysis and battlefield decision-making. States are racing to integrate AI into defense systems, raising critical questions about strategic stability, human oversight, and the ethics of autonomous warfare. Panelists will cover how AI is reshaping military power, the risks of an AI arms race, and how the U.S. can maintain its technological edge while ensuring responsible AI deployment. Panelists will also discuss the role of AI in cyber warfare, intelligence gathering, and threat deterrence.

Speakers will address the following questions:

- How is AI changing military strategy, and what capabilities will define the next era of warfare?
- Should the U.S. pursue fully autonomous weapons systems, or is human oversight essential for ethical and strategic reasons?
- What are the risks of an AI arms race, and how can global powers establish guardrails to prevent escalation?
- How should AI be integrated into intelligence and surveillance to enhance national security while protecting civil liberties?
- What role does the private sector play in military AI development, and how should government manage public-private partnerships in defense tech?

Speakers:

Kenneth Payne, Professor of Strategy, King's College London

Matt Turpin, Senior Advisor, Palantir Technologies

11 – 11:15 AM: Break

11:15 AM – 12:45 PM: Policy Reflections for Members of Congress

This time is set aside for members of Congress to reflect on what they have learned during the conference and discuss their views on implications for U.S. policy. Drawing on the full range of conversations throughout the week, members will seek to identify for each other the most promising takeaways for the United States policy process, with a special focus on opportunities for bipartisan cooperation. This is a members-only conversation.

1 – 2 PM: Working Lunch

Discussion continues between members of Congress and scholars on AI, military power, and national security.

3 – 4:30 PM: Historical Site Visit, Alcázar (Optional)

Participants will be taken on a guided tour of the Real Alcázar of Seville, a historic Royal Palace formerly the site of the Islamic era citadel of the city.

5:00 -7:00 PM: Individual Discussions

Scholars will be available to meet individually with members of Congress for in-depth discussion of ideas raised in the morning sessions, including Kenneth Payne and Matt Turpin.

7 – 8 PM: Pre-Dinner Fireside Chat: Final Reflections and Looking Over the Horizon

In this concluding session, Dr. Brad Carson will synthesize key insights from the week's discussions and reflect on what they mean for U.S. global leadership in an era shaped by AI and geostrategic competition. Drawing on his experience in academia and public service, Dr. Carson will outline strategic takeaways from the central debates and offer his own forward-looking recommendations for U.S. policymakers. Sébastien Krier from Google DeepMind will discuss the next generation of AI systems.

Speakers:

Brad Carson, Co-Founder and President, Center for Responsible Innovation

Sébastien Krier, Manager, Policy Development and Strategy, Google DeepMind

8 – 9:30 PM: Working Dinner, Casa Roman

The Honorable Ami Bera
U.S. House of Representatives
172 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your and your child's proposed trip to Spain,¹ scheduled for May 24 to 31, 2025, sponsored by Aspen Institute, Inc., and Center for Responsible Innovation. We note that this trip includes two days at your personal expense.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

The Honorable Ami Bera

U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-0306

Dear Representative Bera,

I would like to invite you and Janine to our bipartisan, bicameral congressional conference on AI and America's Place in the World in Seville and Malaga, Spain, May 26-31, 2025, including travel dates. Please get back to us with your interest to attend the conference by COB Friday, January 31, 2025. These conference spots fill up quickly, so please RSVP as soon as possible. This invitation does not guarantee your participation in the conference.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) has become central to all aspects of U.S. geopolitical security – from access to computers, trade, competition with China and other global actors, cybersecurity, and the future of warfare. Rapid digitalization and development of technology pose significant opportunities and challenges for the U.S. and our economic and strategic security. Members of Congress will engage in round-table discussions and informal conversations with invited experts to better understand: (1) advances in artificial intelligence and how AI affects the security of US business and infrastructure; (2) regulatory options and trade-offs; and (3) what steps should be taken to pioneer frameworks to advance American vitality and security. Members will have a unique opportunity to focus on AI and holistically think about their role in advancing and gauging America's tech innovation.

Conference attendance is by invitation only. No outside observers, no lobbyists, no congressional staff, and no media are allowed to participate. All conference sessions are off-the-record. No foreign governments are accepted to fund the Aspen Institute Congressional Program. As required by the Senate and House ethics rules, we will provide congressional participants with ethics private sponsor forms completed and signed.

Travel expenses, including business class airfare, meals, and lodging will be paid for by the Aspen Institute; no expenses for entertainment or recreation are paid for in compliance with ethics rules.

The Congressional Program is part of the Aspen Institute, Inc. a nonprofit organization founded in 1949. The Congressional Program was created to promote leadership on public policy by bringing legislators together from both political parties with internationally renowned scholars for high level discussions and analysis. Since our program's inception, more than 598 members of Congress have participated in our 160 domestic and international conferences.

We hope you can join us for this important conference.

Sincerely,

Charlie Dent
