N7 Initiative Congressional Education Mission

Hosted by the Atlantic Council with financial support from the Jeffrey M. Talpins Foundation

June 13-18, 2025

Mission goals: The goal of this trip is to educate and inform Members of the Armed Services, Foreign Affairs, Ways and Means, and Financial Services Committees on emerging developments within the Abraham Accords and how they relate to U.S. foreign policy, trade, and defense goals. The trip includes stops to meet with the senior officials in current and potential Abraham Accords countries who can discuss the status of the Abraham Accords, the prospects for expanding and strengthening the Abraham Accords, and the impacts of current dynamics in the Middle East on U.S. and partner cooperation related to the Abraham Accords. The Atlantic Council will demonstrate through engagements with both U.S. officials based in the region and foreign government officials how the expansion and deepening of the Abraham Accords will transform U.S. policy and opportunities within the Middle East in the near future.

Relevance to official duties: The subject matter of the trip is important to Members of the Armed Services, Foreign Affairs, Ways and Means, and Financial Services Committees as they are likely to encounter future legislation concerning the expansion and deepening of the Abraham Accords.

Location: The purpose of travel to Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, and the United Arab Emirates is to meet with regional leaders and U.S. officials who are working to join or strengthen the Abraham Accords.

Please Note: On June 16 (Washington Time), the Atlantic Council notified the House Ethics Committee that it would be unable to support the Israel portion of the trip due to security concerns. In following correspondence with the House Ethics Committee, the decision to end the trip in the United Arab Emirates (On June 18) before the initially approved end-date of June 20th. In addition, due to the conflict which resulted between approval of the trip and the arrival of the delegation in the region, some meetings, confirmed in writing, had to be canceled due to officials' national security demands and new security requirements and postures at U.S. bases.
