Dear Congressman Liccardo,

On behalf of the Rodel Institute and the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), we are delighted to invite you to the CFR-Rodel Foreign Policy Forum from Friday, July 11, at 4:00 p.m. to Sunday, July 13, at 12:00 p.m. at CFR's New York headquarters, at 58 East 68th Street, New York, NY, 10065.

This program is designed to leverage CFR's foreign policy expertise and deepen your understanding of the biggest foreign policy issues facing the United States. We will bring together a select group of current and former Rodel Fellows for a weekend of discussions on topics such as trade and tariffs, the future of AI and cybersecurity, transatlantic relations, competition with China, global conflicts, energy, and U.S.-Latin America relations.

As you may know, CFR is an independent, nonpartisan national membership organization, think tank, educator, and publisher dedicated to informing U.S. engagement with the world. Through its State and Local Officials Initiative, CFR serves as a resource to elected officials by providing policy-relevant ideas and analysis, convening experts and policymakers, and promoting informed public discussion—all to address the most consequential issues facing the United States and the world.

CFR will cover all costs related to travel, lodging, and meals for participants. Please complete this interest form by Friday, April 4, 2025. Please note that space is limited. As with all Rodel Fellowship Seminars, our goal is to ensure partisan balance among attendees. We will maintain a waitlist of registrants and notify you of your registration status by the end of April. Participants are welcome to bring their spouse or partner to the Friday and Saturday dinner programs.

We hope you will be able to join us!

Kind regards,
Lizzy and Irina
