PRIMARY TRIP SPONSOR FORM – HOUSE ETHICS ADDENDUM 2025

4. The following are House Member invitees for the event and explanations for each invitation.

The Club for Growth has invited Members of Congress whom it believes are strong advocates of pro-growth policies, in order to educate the Club for Growth membership on economic policy issues from a pro-growth standpoint. The Club for Growth has also invited Senators and members of the conservative movement to educate its membership and Members.

Listed Members are accepting travel expenses from the Club for Growth. Other Members, not listed on the privately-sponsored travel forms, may be paying for travel-related expenses for the event personally or through campaign funds.

Anna Paulina Luna – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of her expertise on economic freedom and free markets, and to learn about free market policy.

Bob Onder – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of his expertise on economic issues and to learn about economic policy matters.

Byron Donalds – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of his expertise on the importance of parental school choice, and to learn about education policy.

Chip Roy – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of his expertise on economic policy and to learn about policy matters important to his legislative interests.

Nancy Mace – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of her expertise on reducing federal spending and limiting government to promote opportunity for all Americans, and to learn about economic policy matters.

Scott Perry – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of his expertise on reducing federal spending and limiting government to promote opportunity for all Americans, and to learn about economic policy matters important to his legislative interests.

Brandon Gill – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of his expertise on economic freedom and to learn about economic policy matters important to his legislative interests.

Andy Harris – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of his expertise on reducing federal spending.

Marlin Stutzman – To educate the Club for Growth membership and have the benefit of his expertise on economic issues and to learn about economic policy matters.

5. & 18. (row 2). The Club for Growth offered to allow the spouses of Members to attend the event alongside them. Several Members accepted the Club for Growth's offer. All spousal travel will be paid for in full at their own expense and only the cost of the spouse's meals will be covered by the Club for Growth. Costs are good faith estimates for spousal meals. Some Members will travel alone, spouse attendance is to be determined.

12. The Club for Growth hosts this annual economic conference each March to bring together Members of Congress and Club for Growth members. The Club for Growth has invited Members of Congress whom it believes are strong advocates of pro-growth policies, in order to educate the Club for Growth membership on economic policy issues from a pro-growth standpoint. The Club for Growth has also invited Senators to educate its membership and Members.

16. The Club for Growth chose the Breakers Hotel for several reasons. The hotel has the conference spaces we require – for groups larger than one hundred people – and the level of conference services we need in order to host that number of people. We hire a conference broker to ensure we find the most cost-effective hotel that would accommodate our group. This contract was signed three years in advance to secure the least expensive, comparatively low rates. The cost of the room at the Breakers Hotel is $625.00 per evening. The rooms at this rate we offer Members of Congress are the same rooms we block out for and rates we offer our attendees, and is the least expensive rate that we are able to offer. This rate is significantly more affordable than the non-contracted room rates which start at approximately $975.00 per evening that we negotiated with the assistance of our conference broker. Room rates are nightly, subject to 13% tax.

18 (column 3). All meals served at the Breakers Hotel are the same for Members of Congress as for conference attendees. The Club for Growth works to order the least expensive meal options that the Breakers Hotel has available, and with hotel staff to reduce to overall costs of meals as well. The Breakers Hotel includes their overhead costs for large banquets into the meal costs so actual price reflects expenses to maintain their facilities, wait staff, cleaning staff, food preparation, kitchen maintenance.

Agenda draft is current, speakers and exact timing may be subject to change.
