2:30 - 3:30 pm: Travel from airport to Hotel Boutique La Distancia, check in to hotel

4:00 - 5:00 pm Welcome and overview of program

Delegates will review (1) the final agenda, (2) security expectations and protocol, (3) leadership roles for the trip, and (4) US policy initiatives toward Cuba. Delegates will have an opportunity to introduce themselves and hear from delegation leaders and interpreters. This meeting is important because it clarifies expectations and logistical information that delegates will need throughout the trip. The entirety of the allotted time for the working breakfast will be spent on officially-connected activity.

- Presenters: Elise Roberts, P-PIP director; Natasha Bannan, ACERE Co-Chair
- Location: Hotel Boutique La Distancia, Calle 6 e/ 23 y 25, Municipio Plaza, Havana

5:30 - 6:30 pm Official visit with Cuban Government

Delegates will meet with top Cuban authorities to discuss pressing issues pertaining to the U.S.-Cuba bilateral relationship, including, but not limited to, the impacts of U.S. trade, travel and financial restrictions on the Cuban people; respect for human rights and prisoners in both countries; support for Cuba's private sector and independent entrepreneurs; and the potential for cooperation in fields such as migration, national security, public health, agriculture, climate change and regional diplomacy. This meeting is important because it provides the opportunity for delegates to hear from the Cuban President personally and to discuss ongoing US-Cuban relations directly with the current Cuban administration.

- Presenters: Miguel Díaz-Canel, President of Cuba; Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla, Minister of Foreign Affairs
- Location: Palacio de la Revolution, 4JC6+8XW Comité Central del PCC, Avenida Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, Havana

12:30 - 1:00 pm Travel from Hotel Boutique Claxson to Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center

1:00 - 4:30 pm: Working lunch and meeting with Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center

The Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center (CMMLK), located in Marianao, a working-class neighborhood in Havana, is a premier Cuban civil society and ecumenical institution that works with communities and churches across the island to promote participation in civic life. The CMMLK has deep ties to Protestant churches and humanitarian organizations in the United States, and many of its leaders have visited U.S. cities on educational exchanges in recent years.

- The meeting will provide delegates with information about religious expression and social participation in Cuba today, as well as the efforts of women, Afro-descendant and LGBTQ+ leaders to promote positive social change in Cuba. This meeting is important because delegates will learn about the impacts of U.S. policies on the CMMLK's foreign visitors program, as well as on Cuban churches and community organizations' ability to provide robust and meaningful services and programming for Cubans of all walks of life.

-The entirety of the allotted time for the working lunch will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

- Presenters: Rev. Izett Samá Hernández, Director; Dayanis Garcia, International Delegations Coordinator
- Location: CMMLK, 3HJH+PJ, Mariano, Havana

4:00 - 5:00 pm: Travel from CMMLK to Old Havana

5:00 - 6:00 pm: Executive time at hotel

6:00 - 8:00 pm: Working dinner with officials from the U.S. Embassy in Havana

The delegates will meet with officials from the U.S. Embassy in Havana, with whom they will discuss issues pertinent to the bilateral relationship between Cuba and the United States, including agricultural trade, environmental and security cooperation, respect for human rights, and support for Cuba's independent private sector. This meeting is important because it will allow delegates to share with U.S. diplomats in Cuba what they heard and saw from Cubans of diverse backgrounds, as well as learn about U.S. foreign policy priorities and public diplomacy programs in Cuba and brainstorm ways to advance ongoing cooperation in the U.S. national interest.

- Presenters: Mike Hammer, Chief of Mission
- Location: Hotel Boutique La Distancia, Calle 6 e/ 23 y 25, Municipio Plaza, Havana

Overnight at Hotel Boutique La Distancia, Calle 6 e/ 23 y 25, Municipio Plaza, Havana

Friday, April 3rd

8:00 - 9:00 am: Breakfast and briefing of day's activities

Delegates will be briefed on the day's meetings. This meeting is important because it provides historical background and current context for meetings throughout the day. This information will be needed for understanding the day's presentations and clarifying any questions about the groups and individuals we will meet. The entirety of the allotted time for the working breakfast will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

- Presenters: Elise Roberts, P-PIP director; Natasha Bannan and/or Camila Pineiro Harnecker, ACERE Co-Chairs
- Location: Hotel Boutique La Distancia, Calle 6 e/ 23 y 25, Municipio Plaza, Havana

9:00 - 9:30 am: Travel from hotel to Hospital Hermanos Ameijeiras

9:30 - 11:00 am: Visit to Hospital Hermanos Ameijeiras

The Hermanos Ameijeiras hospital is a leading clinical, surgical and teaching hospital in Cuba's Centro Habana neighborhood, housed in a 24-story building perched over the Malecón.

-During this visit, delegates will exchange with health officials, doctors, nurses, technicians and patients about the structure, mission and impacts of Cuba's public health care system, as well as the labor, material and technological shortages it currently faces. Delegates will witness firsthand scarcities of medications, medical inputs, machinery and personnel at the hospital, as well as learn about the preventative and community-based model that undergirds its operations. The visit will provide insight into opportunities for bilateral cooperation in public health between U.S and Cuban institutions as well as shed light on the impacts of U.S. regulations on public health outcomes, indicators and infrastructure in Cuba.

- Presenters: Ameijeiras Hospital directors and staff
- Location: Hospital Hermanos Ameijeiras, #701 Calle San Lazaro, Havana

11:00 - 11:30 am: Travel from Hospital Hermanos Ameijeiras to Paladar La Guarida

11:30 - 1:30 pm: Working lunch with foreign press corps and business sector

The delegates will meet with foreign and independent Cuban journalists, as well as representatives of international firms doing business on the island, at a historic privately-owned restaurant to discuss the challenges and opportunities of carrying out their work in Cuba. Delegates will learn about key economic, political and social issues in Cuba from the media and business professionals who report on and navigate them every day. This meeting is important as it will allow delegates to transmit their impressions and interactions throughout the trip as well as hear from observers and practitioners deeply familiar with the Cuban reality about the present difficulties and unique potential for relations between the two countries.

- Presenters: Representatives of the accredited foreign press and Western firms based in Cuba
- Location: Paladar La Guarida, 418 Concordia, Centro Habana, Havana

1:30 - 2:00 pm Travel from La Guarida to el Callejón de Hamel

2:00 - 3:00 pm: Visit Afro-Cuban community arts project Callejón de Hamel

-The Callejón de Hamel community arts project is an independent, self-sustaining hub of artists, entrepreneurs and cultural promoters working to preserve the island's diverse African-derived spiritualities through the built environment in one of Havana's most marginalized neighborhoods. The project redistributes income earned from foreign visitors to benefit community programming, including social work and artistic training for school children.

-The visit will provide delegates with a rich understanding of Cuba's religious diversity and insight into the linkages between international tourism, community empowerment and cultural preservation. Delegates will learn about how recent reductions in tourism to the island, stemming from the Covid-19 pandemic and U.S. regulations, have impacted the project's operations and contributed to out-migration among the small business owners and cultural workers based there.

- Presenters: Elias Aseff, Historian at Callejón de Hamel
- Location: Callejón de Hamel, Entre las calles Aramburu y Hospital, Cayo Hueso, Havana

3:00 - 3:45 pm Travel to Latin American School of Medicine

3:45 - 5:30 pm: Visit U.S. students at Latin American School of Medicine

-The Latin American School of Medicine is among the largest medical schools in the world, with thousands of students enrolled from Africa, Latin America and Asia, as well as dozens of low-income students from the U.S. Hundreds of mostly African-American and Hispanic students from the U.S. have trained at the school tuition-free thanks to backing from the Congressional Black Caucus and support from a U.S. foundation, with the understanding that upon graduation they would practice medicine in underserved rural and urban communities throughout the U.S.

-The visit will provide delegates with an opportunity to meet some of these students and learn about Cuba's health care and higher education systems, as well as exchange with students from Africa and Latin America who similarly benefit from this debt-free medical education. Delegates will learn about how U.S. sanctions contribute to difficulties in the provision of medical and educational services in Cuba and be exposed to the history of public health and educational cooperation between U.S. and Cuban institutions. This meeting is important for delegates to understand the interests and challenges for US citizens studying medicine in Cuba, and to consider relevant future legislative priorities related to US-Cuban relations.

- Presenters: Students from the US currently attending the Latin American School of Medicine
- Location: Latin American School of Medicine, Carretera Panamericana Km 3 1/2, Carr. Panamericana, Havana

5:30 - 6:30 pm: Travel from Latin American School of Medicine to El Jardin de los Milagros paladar

6:30 - 7:30 pm: Dinner at El Jardin de los Milagros paladar

- Location: Calle San Juan Bautista esq. 35, Nuevo Vedado, Municipio Plaza, Havana

7:30 - 9:00 pm: Executive time

9:00 - 11:00 pm Visit Fábrica del Arte Cubano (optional)

Fábrica del Arte Cubano is Havana's premier, privately-operated community arts hub, which has hosted award-winning U.S., Cuban and international musicians and currently employs, directly or indirectly, hundreds of Cuban artists and entrepreneurs. In this visit, delegates will exchange with young Cuban filmmakers, actors, musicians and curators about the unique success and global recognition Fábrica achieved under past administrations, and the challenges it has faced amid Cuba's economic and humanitarian decline over the past five years. Delegates will learn about innovative U.S.-Cuba exchanges in the artistic, cultural and educational fields Fábrica has sponsored in the past decade; explore current exhibits and converse with their creators; and exchange with Cuban youth about cultural and employment opportunities on the island today.

- Presenters: X Alfonso, Director of Fábrica del Arte Cubano
- Location: Fabrica del Arte Cubana, 4HGR+X2X, Calle 26, Havana

Overnight at Hotel Boutique La Distancia, Calle 6 e/ 23 y 25, Municipio Plaza, Havana

Saturday, April 4th

8:00 - 9:00 am: Working breakfast and briefing of day's activities

Delegates will be briefed on the day's meetings. This meeting is important because it provides historical background and current context for meetings throughout the day. This information will be needed for understanding the day's presentations and clarifying any questions about the groups and individuals we will meet. 30 minutes of the allotted time for the working breakfast will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

- Presenters: Elise Roberts, P-PIP director; Natasha Bannan and/or Camila Pineiro Harnecker, ACERE Co-Chairs
- Location: Hotel Boutique La Distancia, Calle 6 e/ 23 y 25, Municipio Plaza, , Havana

9:00 - 9:30 am: Travel from hotel to the community project Proyecto Sociocultural Cabildo Quisicubaba

9:30 - 11:00 am Visit Proyecto Sociocultural Cabildo Quisicubaba

This independent community organization based in Centro Habana defends the identity, culture and history of the historically Afro-Cuban neighborhood while attending to the material, sociocultural and spiritual needs of the most vulnerable, including single mothers, the elderly, those suffering from substance abuse and individuals recently released from prison. The organization sustains a robust humanitarian aid distribution program, receiving necessary medical and food supplies from international aid agencies and civic organizations, including from the United States. The meeting will provide insight into the extent of Cuba's economic and humanitarian crisis and shine light on the efforts of Cuban civil society organizations to provide basic goods and services where the government is unable. Delegates will learn about the impediments to humanitarian aid and relief work in Cuba, and leave with a better assessment of how Cuba's multidimensional crisis impacts vulnerable sectors of society.

- Presenters: Enrique Alemán, Platform for Interreligious Dialogue in Cuba
- Location: Asociación Quisicubaba, 4JJQ+C3V, Calle Maloja, Havana

11:00 - 11:30 am: Travel to hotel

3:30 - 5:30 pm: Meeting at Casa de Africa

-Casa de Africa is a historical and cultural museum in Old Havana dedicated to preserving and exhibiting the African influence on Cuban identity, culture and politics

as well as documenting the historic relations between Cuba and the countries on the African continent.

-During this meeting, delegates will meet with ambassadors and other officials from African and Latin American nations accredited in Cuba to discuss issues of geopolitical, commercial and sociocultural importance. The meeting will provide delegates with a more in-depth understanding of Cuba's bilateral and multilateral relations with countries and regional blocs in Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as offer a platform to debate solutions to pressing global challenges. Delegates will learn from the dignitaries about their countries' political and economic relations with Cuba and explore regional strategies to improve bilateral affairs with the U.S., thus contributing to delegates' work on the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Presenters: Various African/Latin American ambassadors to Cuba

Location: Casa de Africa, 4JQX+9R, Centro Historico, Havana

6:00 - 8:00 pm Working dinner with Afro-Cuban entrepreneurs, artists and activists

Paladares are family-owned, privately-operated restaurants that boomed with the legalization of self-employed work in Cuba in the 1990s. Since then, thousands of these independent businesses have begun operating throughout the island, employing a significant portion of the young Cuban workforce and importing hundreds of millions of dollars worth of inputs from the United States. At this dinner at paladar Yarini with Afro-Cuban entrepreneurs, artists and independent activists, delegates will learn about Cuba's thriving private sector, recent U.S. regulations designed to support this sector and further measures delegates can help advocate for to encourage its growth and prevent some of Cuba's best and brightest from abandoning their life projects in Cuba through migration. The meeting will provide delegates with insight into the unique challenges Afro-Cuban business owners, cultural workers and organizers face, as well the support they have received from U.S. public diplomacy funding and the impacts U.S. restrictions on trade and travel pose to their success. The entirety of the allotted time for the working dinner will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

- Presenters: Adriana Heredia, Beyond Roots; Annia Liz De Armas, Lo llevamos rizo; Yurena Manfugás, BarbarA's Power; Diarenis Calderón, Nosotrxs*
- Location: Privately owned restaurant near hotel*

12: The Partnership for Participatory International Policy (P-PIP) is a national organization with a mission focused on facilitating meaningful interactions between elected officials, their staff, and individuals directly affected by US policies and practices. Our core commitment lies in supporting international grassroots delegations, allowing policymakers to engage directly with those impacted; our goal is fostering informed policy-making and a greater understanding of the historical and current real-world implications of US policies. P-PIP supported the logistical planning for the trip and invited participants for the delegation, and P-PIP's director will travel on the delegation. P-PIP will financially support the delegation by using general operating funds and a grant from FPOS.

15(b)2: The objective of the delegation is to hear directly from Cubans about the impacts of US policies on migration and democratic processes. The specific locations and meetings were chosen based on where Cuban organizations are located and where P-PIP can ensure the safety of the delegates.

March 31, 2026

The Honorable Jonathan Jackson
U.S. House of Representatives
1632 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Cuba,<sup>1</sup> scheduled for April 1 to 5, 2026, sponsored by Partnership for Participatory International Policy.

Committee travel regulations require that you submit your complete pre-trip approval request to the Committee at least 30 days before the commencement of the trip or it will not be granted. Despite your failure to do so in this instance, we are approving your current request. However, any future requests should adhere to the 30-day requirement.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

<sup>1</sup> Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman

Congressman Jonathan Jackson
1632 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515-1301

Dear Congressman Jackson:

We are writing to invite you to attend a NODEL to Cuba from April 1 - 5, sponsored by the Partnership for Participatory Policy (P-PIP). The delegation is focused on learning about the current economic and humanitarian crisis and the impacts of recent changes in US policies.

During the visit, delegates will engage with members of Cuban civil society—religious and community leaders, entrepreneurs, agricultural producers, medical students and others— offering unique insight into the bilateral relationship between the United States and Cuba. Delegates will also meet with Cuban authorities as well as representatives of the U.S. Embassy in Havana.

P-PIP will coordinate all aspects of the schedule and the preparation of forms for the House Ethics Committee, and we will cover all expenses for the trip. If you are able to attend, we will extend an invitation to a member of your staff to accompany you. While on-the-ground we will coordinate all transportation, interpretation, lodging, meals, and meetings, in line with US legal requirements.

As we get closer to the trip, we will send a pre-delegation briefing book with a packing list, draft schedule, pre-trip readings, and other materials to prepare for the delegation.

Please let us know if you have any questions about the delegation. We hope you are able to join us.

Sincerely,

Elise Roberts, Director
