 - Location: Capitol Building, 66 Cienfuegos, Havana

5:30 - 6:00 pm: Travel from Capitol to dinner

6:00 - 8:00 pm Working dinner with Afro-Cuban entrepreneurs, artists and activists

Paladares are family-owned, privately-operated restaurants that boomed with the legalization of self-employed work in Cuba in the 1990s. Since then, thousands of these independent businesses have begun operating throughout the island, employing a significant portion of the young Cuban workforce and importing hundreds of millions of dollars worth of inputs from the United States. At this dinner at paladar Yarini with Afro-Cuban entrepreneurs, artists and independent activists, delegates will learn about Cuba's thriving private sector, recent U.S. regulations designed to support this sector and further measures delegates can help advocate for to encourage its growth and prevent some of Cuba's best and brightest from abandoning their life projects in Cuba through migration. The meeting will provide delegates with insight into the unique challenges Afro-Cuban business owners, cultural workers and organizers face, as well the support they have received from U.S. public diplomacy funding and the impacts U.S. restrictions on trade and travel pose to their success. The entirety of the allotted time for the working dinner will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

- Presenters: Adriana Heredia, Beyond Roots; Annia Liz De Armas, Lo llevamos rizo; Yurena Manfugás, BarbarA's Power; Diarenis Calderón, Nosotrxs

10:00 - 10:30 am: Travel to meeting with President

10:30 am - 12:00 pm: Meeting with the Cuban President

Delegates met with the President of Cuba to discuss pressing issues pertaining to the U.S.-Cuba bilateral relationship, including, but not limited to, the impacts of U.S. trade, travel and financial restrictions on the Cuban people; respect for human rights and prisoners in both countries; support for Cuba's private sector and independent entrepreneurs; and the potential for cooperation in fields such as migration, national security, public health, agriculture, climate change and regional diplomacy. This meeting was important because it provided the opportunity for delegates to hear from the Cuban President personally and to discuss ongoing US-Cuban relations directly with the current Cuban administration.

- Presenters: Miguel Díaz-Canel, President of Cuba
- Location: Palacio de la Revolución, 4JC6+8XW Comité Central del PCC, Avenida Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, Havana

12:00 - 12:45p Travel from Palacio de la Revolucion to Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center

12:45 - 4:00 pm: Working lunch and meeting with Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center

The Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center (CMMLK), located in Marianao, a working-class neighborhood in Havana, is a premier Cuban civil society and ecumenical institution that works with communities and churches across the island to promote participation in civic life. The CMMLK has deep ties to Protestant churches and humanitarian organizations in the United States, and many of its leaders have visited U.S. cities on educational exchanges in recent years. The meeting provided delegates with information about religious expression and social participation in Cuba today, as well as the efforts of women, Afro-descendant and LGBTQ+ leaders to promote positive social change in Cuba. This meeting was important because delegates learned about the impacts of U.S. policies on the CMMLK's foreign visitors program, as well as on Cuban churches and community organizations' ability to provide robust and meaningful services and programming for Cubans of all walks of life. The entirety of the allotted time for the working lunch will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

- Presenters: Rev. Izett Samá Hernández, Director; Dayanis Garcia, International Delegations Coordinator
- Location: CMMLK, 3HJH+PJ, Marianao, Havana

4:00 - 4:15 pm: Travel to Maternity Hospital

4:15 - 5:30pm Visit Hospital Universitario Ginecobstetrico "Eusebio Hernández Pérez"

Met with maternity hospital's Deputy Director to discuss the scope of services the hospital provides to pregnant mothers and newborn babies. Delegates visited a neonatal unit and visit with expecting mothers and those who have recently delivered to discuss the needs and services of the hospital, patients (mothers and babies) and how U.S. policies have affected the ability of the hospital to provide consistent services and families preparing for birth.

- Presenters: - Dr. Leonor González Leon, Directora General
- Location: Hospital Universitario Ginecobstetrico, Havana

5:30 pm - 6:00 - Travel from Maternidad Obrera to El Jardin de los Milagros paladar

6:00 - 9:00 pm: Dinner at El Jardin de los Milagros paladar with Ambassadors

During this meeting, delegates met with ambassadors from African and Latin American nations accredited in Cuba to discuss issues of geopolitical, commercial and sociocultural importance. The meeting provided delegates with a more in-depth understanding of Cuba's bilateral and multilateral relations with countries and regional blocs in Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as offered a platform to debate solutions to pressing global challenges. Delegates learned from the dignitaries about their countries' political and economic relations with Cuba and explored regional strategies to improve bilateral affairs with the U.S., thus contributing to delegates' work on the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

- Presenters: Various African/Latin American ambassadors to Cuba, including Mexican Ambassador Miguel Díaz Reynoso; Brazilian Ambassador Christian Vargas, Zimbabwe Ambassador Patrick Ronald Mutasa. Namibian Ambassador Lebbius Tobias.
- Location: El Jardín de los Milagros, Calle San Juan Bautista esq. 35, Nuevo Vedado, Municipio Plaza, Havana

The Honorable Pramila Jayapal
U.S. House of Representatives
2346 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Cuba,¹ scheduled for April 1 to 5, 2026, sponsored by Partnership for Participatory International Policy.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman
