Program Objectives

The Association of Marshall Scholars hosts members of the United States Congress and members of the British Parliament for a bipartisan, cross-party US-UK Legislative Exchange. The multi-day program features subject-matter experts and Marshall Scholars in Oxford and meetings with British government ministers, officials, and private sector leaders in London. The delegation engages in dialogue on issues of critical concern to both nations. The US-UK Legislative Exchange provides an opportunity to underscore and share the expertise within the Marshall Scholar community and aims to support a valuable exchange between legislators from both nations.

United States Delegation

Don Beyer (D VA-08)

Congressman Don Beyer is serving his fifth term as the U.S. Representative from Virginia's 8th District. He serves on Congress' Joint Economic Committee as well as on the House Committee on Ways and Means. He is also a member of the New Democrat Coalition's Climate Change Task Force.

He was the Lieutenant Governor of Virginia from 1990 to 1998 and was Ambassador to Switzerland and Liechtenstein under President Obama.

Salud Carbajal (D CA-24)

Congressman Salud Carbajal is serving his fourth term as the U.S. Representative from California's 24th District. He has demonstrated a strong commitment to protecting our natural environment and resources, enhancing public safety, and creating economic opportunities.

He sits on the House Committee on Armed Services, the House Committee on Agriculture, and the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure. He served eight years in the United States Marine Corps Reserve, including active duty service during the Gulf War in 1992.

Mark Green (R TN-07) (delegation co-chair)

Congressman Mark Green is serving his third term as the U.S. Representative from Tennessee's 7th District. He serves as Chairman of the House Committee on Homeland Security and is a member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

A successful business leader, decorated combat veteran, and ER physician, Green served in the Tennessee State Senate before his election to Congress. His 24 years of service, between the Academy, active duty Army and Army Reserves included two trips to Iraq and one to Afghanistan.

Jim Himes (D CT-04) (delegation co-chair)

Congressman Jim Himes is serving his eighth term as the U.S. Representative of Connecticut's 4th District. Jim graduated from Harvard University and earned a Rhodes Scholarship, which enabled him to attend Oxford University in England, where he continued his studies of Latin America, including research in El Salvador.

Himes is the ranking member of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, and a member of the House Financial Services Committee.

Chellie Pingree (D-ME-01)

Congresswoman Chellie Pingree is serving her eighth term as the U.S. Representative for Maine's 1st District. She is the first Democratic woman elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from Maine.

A member of the House Appropriations Committee, chairing the Subcommittee on Interior and the Environment, the Subcommittee on Agriculture, and the Subcommittee on Military Construction and Veterans Affairs. Pingree also sits on the House Agriculture Committee.

Maria Elvira Salazar (R FL-27)

Congresswoman Maria Elvira Salazar is serving her second term as the U.S. Representative for Florida's 27th District. She currently serves on the House Committee on Foreign Affairs as well as the House Committee on Small Business.

Salazar is a five-time Emmy Award-winning journalist— she has spent her career holding the corrupt and powerful accountable. Congresswoman Salazar has gone toe-to-toe with Venezuela's Nicolás Maduro, Chile's Augusto Pinochet, and most notably Cuban dictator Fidel Castro, being the only US Spanish-language journalist to ever interview the tyrant one-on-one.

Linda Sánchez (D CA-38) (emeritus co-chair)

Congresswoman Linda Sanchez is serving her eleventh term in Congress and is the U.S. Representative for California's 38th District. She serves on the Ways and Means Committee and sits on Trade, Select Revenue Measures, and Social Security Subcommittees.

In addition to co-founding the Congressional Labor and Working Families Caucus, Sánchez has also served in several leadership positions including Vice Chair of the House Democratic Caucus. She is the first Latina elected to a leadership position in the U.S. Congress.

Claudia Tenney (R NY-22)

Congresswoman Claudia Tenney is serving her second term in Congress and is the U.S. Representative for New York's 24th District. Before her election, Claudia served as a member of the New York State Assembly. Tenney is a member of the House Committee on Ways and Means and the House Committee on Science, Space and Technology.

Tenney is an accomplished attorney and longtime small business owner.

Mike Turner (R OH-10) (emeritus co-chair)

Congressman Turner is serving his eleventh term as U.S. Representative for Ohio's 10th District. He is a senior member of the House Armed Services Committee and has previously served as the lead Republican of the Tactical Air and Land Forces subcommittee as well as the Strategic Forces subcommittee.

After serving on the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) since 2015, Turner was appointed as the Chairman of HPSCI in January 2023. He was also selected to sit on the Oversight and Accountability Committee

In 2022, he earned a Doctorate in Liberal Studies from Georgetown University.

Joe Wilson (R SC-2)

Congressman Joe Wilson is serving his twelfth term as U.S. Representative for South Carolina's 2nd District. He serves as a senior member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, where he is the Chair of the Middle East, North Africa, and Central Asia Subcommittee and a member of the Subcommittee on Europe. He is also the most senior member of the House Armed Services Committee where he is on the Subcommittees on Readiness and also Strategic Forces. Additionally, he serves on the House Committee on Education and the Workforce.

Wilson is the Chairman of the U.S. Helsinki Commission, also known as the Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe.

Harriett Baldwin MP (CON)

Harriet Baldwin has served as Member of Parliament for West Worcestershire since 2010. She came to politics from a successful 20 year career in finance, which she has used to great effect in representing her constituents. Between her first election and her second in 2015, Ms. Baldwin MP's parliamentary experience largely focused on work and pensions, acting as Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Minister for Employment in the Department of Work and Pensions and serving on the Work and Pensions Select Committee. In 2015, she became Economic Secretary to the Treasury and in 2019, she joined the Treasury Select Committee. She was elected Chair of the Treasury Select Committee in November 2022.

Ms. Baldwin MP is wholeheartedly dedicated to representing the UK's foreign policy. She has represented the UK on the NATO Parliamentary Assembly two separate times, was the Prime Minister's Trade Envoy to Russia, and served as Minister for Africa. She has also served as the Conservative Party's Assistant Government Whip, from which position she was promoted to Lord Commissioner to HM Treasury.

Stephen Doughty MP (LAB)

Stephen Doughty was elected as Welsh Labour & Co-operative Member of Parliament for Cardiff South and Penarth in a by-election in November 2012. He was re-elected in the General Elections of 2015, 2017 and 2019.

He served in the last Labour UK Government as Special Adviser on poverty, development, trade and humanitarian affairs to the then UK Secretary of State for International Development.

Following the election of Keir Starmer as Leader of the Opposition in 2020, he was appointed Shadow Foreign Affairs and International Development Minister, covering Africa and the UK Overseas Territories. In Autumn 2021 he was appointed as Shadow Minister for Europe, North America and the Overseas Territories. He also covers themes including global security, NATO, the Polar regions, oceans and LGBT+ rights. He previously held Shadow Ministerial and other roles in the Shadow Treasury, Business and Foreign Affairs teams, was an Opposition Whip, and has served on the Wales, International Development and Home Affairs Select Committees. He is Co-Chair of the LGBT+ Parliamentary Labour Party. He also serves as a Trustee of the Armed Forces Parliamentary Scheme.

Born and educated locally in Cardiff and the Vale of Glamorgan, he went on to study at Lester B. Pearson UWC in Canada, Oxford University and St Andrews University. Her current research focuses on profiling, inferential analytics, explainable AI, algorithmic bias, diversity, and fairness, as well as governmental surveillance, predictive policing, human rights online, and health tech and medical law.

At the OII, Professor Sandra Wachter leads and coordinates the Governance of Emerging Technologies (GET) Research Programme that investigates legal, ethical, and technical aspects of AI, machine learning, and other emerging technologies. She also serves as a policy advisor for governments, companies, and NGO's around the world on regulatory and ethical questions concerning emerging technologies.

Sir Mark Walport FMedSci FRS

Mark Walport retired as Chief Executive of UK Research and Innovation in 2020. UKRI was created in response to Sir Paul Nurse's review of the Research Councils published in 2015.

Mark took up the role in April 2017 and led the creation and implementation of the organisation for its first three years. He has held several distinguished senior positions of influence in research in the United Kingdom. During Mark's tenure as Director of the Wellcome Trust he supported and oversaw a number of developments, including the UK-Biobank project, the completion of the Diamond Synchrotron, the launch of the popular public Wellcome Collection and major international partnerships, such as the Wellcome Trust/DBT India Alliance. From 2013 to 2017 he was Chief Scientific Adviser to the UK Government, Permanent Secretary and Head of the Government Office for Science, and Co-Chair of the Prime Minister's Council for Science and Technology.

Earlier in his career he made key contributions to understanding the role in lupus of the 'complement' system. Mark found that deficiencies in complement — normally a protective immune response — were important in conferring susceptibility to the autoimmune disease. In people affected by lupus, the immune system attacks their own tissues, and it was known that activation of the complement pathway was part of the disease process. Studying a handful of lupus patients with hereditary disruption to the complement system, Mark revealed the complex role of the complement pathway in this disease.

Xenia Wickett

Xenia Wickett runs an executive coaching and advisory business, Wickett Advisory, which helps private individuals and organisations make smarter, more informed decisions allowing them to better realise their goals.

Xenia was the Norwegian energy giant, Equinor's, Vice President of Political Analysis and Integrity Due Diligence and sat on the Global Strategy and Business Development management team. As an advisor to senior leaders across the business, her work focused on Xenia served with the US government as Director for South Asia on the National Security Council and at the State Department as Special Adviser at the Homeland Security Group and as an Officer in the Bureau of Non-Proliferation. Shortly after 9/11, she was detailed to the US Office of the Vice President to help launch the Office of Homeland Security Affairs. Until the summer of 2022, she served as a commissioner for the Marshall Aid Commemoration Commission. Previously she has held affiliations with the Council on Foreign Relations and the World Economic Forum.

“Nearly 70 years after the first group of American students journeyed across the Atlantic, the Marshall Scholarship program remains an integral part of the UK-US relationship.”

– DAME KAREN PIERCE
BRITISH AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES

The British Government has awarded 51 winners of 2024 Marshall Scholarships, the largest class ever in the 70 year history of the scholarship program.

The recipients, considered among America’s most accomplished undergraduate university students and recent graduates, were chosen following an intense selection process and will begin graduate studies at top universities across the United Kingdom next year.

The program received 1006 applications this year from candidates representing academic institutions across the United States. 34 US universities across 21 US States and the District of Columbia are represented, nearly a third of which are state or public universities and military service academies.

The 2024 class will take up their studies at 18 different institutions across the UK starting next September, ranging from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine to Loughborough University in Leicestershire.

Among this year’s class are aspiring diplomats, doctors, fighter pilots and scientists. Half of the 2024 class will pursue STEM-related degrees, including several who will study issues relating to the ethics and advancement of Artificial Intelligence.

ASSOCIATION OF MARSHALL SCHOLARS

ABOUT THE AMS

British Parliament created the Marshall Scholarship in 1953 in gratitude to the United States for the Marshall Plan. The flagship program continues today as an extraordinary opportunity for between 40-50 highly accomplished young Americans to begin or continue post-graduate education at any university in the United Kingdom.

The Association of Marshall Scholars works to strengthen US-UK ties and also the Marshall Scholarship. Historically, the transatlantic alliance has served as a linchpin for liberal democracy, prosperity, and global peace. A valuable thread of this relationship has been the Marshall Scholarship, an educational program strengthening international exchange and advancement in nearly every field of human endeavor.

Over 2,000 young Americans have been awarded Marshall Scholarships to study at universities throughout the United Kingdom. Since that time, the Scholarship has counted among its distinguished alumni a Nobel Laureate, a NASA Astronaut, Oscar, and Academy Award winners and nominees, fourteen MacArthur Fellows, six Pulitzer Prize winners, founders of global companies such as Dolby Labs and LinkedIn, presidents of Universities and Colleges, and many in the military and public service across the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government.

In recent years, the Association has developed programs to foster educational exchange with its membership and civic leaders in the US and in the UK. Examples of these ongoing programs include The Marshall Forum and the US-UK Legislative Exchange.

A close accord between our two countries is essential to the good of mankind in this turbulent world of today, and that is not possible without an intimate understanding of each other. These scholarships point the way to the continuation and growth of the understanding which found its necessity in the terrible struggle of the war years.

– GEORGE C. MARSHALL

The vision of Secretary Marshall and of the United States lives on in the special relationship and strong bonds of friendship between our two nations and in their steadfast commitment to our common cause of freedom.

– HER MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II

The former Prince of Wales, serves as Patron of the Association of Marshall Scholars.

Washington, DC 20515

Dear Colleague:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your and your spouse's proposed trip to United Kingdom,¹ scheduled for May 8 to 13, 2025, sponsored by Association of Marshall Scholars.

Committee travel regulations require that you submit your complete pre-trip approval request to the Committee at least 30 days before the commencement of the trip or it will not be granted. Despite your failure to do so in this instance, we are approving your current request. However, any future requests should adhere to the 30-day requirement.

You must complete a Member/Officer Post-Travel Disclosure Form and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. You must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
