Ms. Mary Ellen Richardson
Office of the Honorable Darin LaHood
503 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Richardson:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to United Kingdom,¹ scheduled for July 26 to 30, 2026, sponsored by Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN).

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Delegates will explore the life and legacy of Her Late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, whose 70-year reign exemplified steadfast leadership, resilience, and an unwavering commitment to public service. The time here offers an opportunity to reflect and hear about how women leaders can provide continuity and stability while guiding institutions through periods of significant political, social, and global change. It also highlights the enduring importance of service, diplomacy, and constitutional leadership—values that resonate across democratic institutions.

The delegation will then attend a networking event in the Redgrave Room, hosted by the Royal Household. Bringing together approximately 20–25 women from across the Household, the reception will provide a unique opportunity to engage with senior leaders and professionals serving in a wide range of operational, strategic, ceremonial, and administrative roles. Through candid discussion and exchange, delegates will gain insight into how women lead across complex organizations, foster institutional excellence, preserve tradition while embracing modernization, and support the work of a globally recognized institution.

Subject to operational requirements, the program may also include a private viewing of the Changing of the Guard in the Quadrangle. From this privileged vantage point within the Palace grounds, delegates will experience one of the United Kingdom's most iconic ceremonial traditions while gaining a deeper appreciation for the discipline, coordination, and institutional continuity that underpin the ceremonial functions of the British state.

Question 12

GlobalWIN highlights women leaders and connects the public and private sectors through programming that includes networking receptions, policy roundtables, career workshops, and educational trips in the United States and abroad.

Our stay in England will combine all tiers of GlobalWIN programming and provide participants a rare opportunity to grow professionally while connecting with experts and leaders outside of the United States. GlobalWIN has organized and planned many domestic and international trips over the last 16 years.

This trip was planned with the professional guidance of our Co-Founder and President, Helen Milby, Executive Director Angeli Chawla, Senior Advisor Andrea Mietus and Senior Outreach Manager, Zoriana Moulton.

Question 15-2

GlobalWIN selected London for its strong transatlantic ties and wealth of expertise across key policy areas, including data privacy, healthcare, trade, female leadership, and technology innovation. This has become a trip we have continued to host each year due to the relationship and wealth of

From July 26–30, we will bring 20 bipartisan Congressional staffers to London for three days of intensive programming. London offers direct access to GlobalWIN allies and leaders outside the United States, enriching participants' subject-matter knowledge and professional growth through high-impact meetings and timely insights.

Question 18 – Cost of Lodging (4 Nights)

GlobalWIN is extending the hotel stay for the evening of Sunday, June 26, 2026 for the delegation. This will ensure that upon arrival in the United Kingdom early Monday morning, delegates will have immediate access to their rooms to freshen up before the official programming begins.

Given that the group will be traveling overnight in economy accommodation and adjusting to the time difference, this additional night is intended to allow the delegation time to rest and prepare before the start of scheduled activities.
