Question #12

The Climate Solutions Foundation (CSF) was founded in 2019 as an educational, bipartisan 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Our mission is to bring together ideologically diverse Members of Congress and their staff, global leaders, and corporate and trade executives to discuss climate science, economics, and policy. The Climate Solutions Foundation hosts a series of bipartisan, bicameral gatherings of members of Congress, congressional staff, executives, and scientists to build trust within the climate change community and inspire collaborative efforts to advance the agenda on climate change. Since then, CSF has expanded its programming to include domestic educational trips, international trips to the UN's (COP) convenings, congressional staff briefings, receptions, and a congressional fellowship program. The Climate Solutions Foundation is solely responsible for organizing and planning all aspects of the trip.

Question # 15-2

New York City during Climate Week and the United Nations General Assembly provides a unique opportunity to bring senior House staffers deeply engaged in climate policy together with a bipartisan group of leaders from the private, public, and nonprofit sectors.

Being in NYC during this time allows staff to experience the broader global climate conversation firsthand and engage with policymakers, corporate leaders, and other stakeholders who are actively shaping climate and clean-energy policy. While Climate Solutions Foundation will curate its own programming, the proximity to Climate Week and UNGA provides access to a breadth of conversations and leaders that would be difficult to replicate elsewhere.

Question #12

The Climate Solutions Foundation (CSF) was founded in 2019 as an educational, bipartisan 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Our mission is to bring together ideologically diverse Members of Congress and their staff, global leaders, and corporate and trade executives to discuss climate science, economics, and policy. The Climate Solutions Foundation hosts a series of bipartisan, bicameral gatherings of members of Congress, congressional staff, executives, and scientists to build trust within the climate change community and inspire collaborative efforts to advance the agenda on climate change. Since then, CSF has expanded its programming to include domestic educational trips, international trips to the UN's (COP) convenings, congressional staff briefings, receptions, and a congressional fellowship program. The Climate Solutions Foundation is solely responsible for organizing and planning all aspects of the trip.

Question # 15-2

New York City during Climate Week and the United Nations General Assembly provides a unique opportunity to bring senior House staffers deeply engaged in climate policy together with a bipartisan group of leaders from the private, public, and nonprofit sectors.

Being in NYC during this time allows staff to experience the broader global climate conversation firsthand and engage with policymakers, corporate leaders, and other stakeholders who are actively shaping climate and clean-energy policy. While Climate Solutions Foundation will curate its own programming, the proximity to Climate Week and UNGA provides access to a breadth of conversations and leaders that would be difficult to replicate elsewhere.

The combination of bipartisan congressional engagement, substantive Foundation programming, and exposure to the larger global climate community demonstrates the importance of finding practical, durable climate solutions that can garner support across political lines.
