8b.) I represent that I participated in each of the activities reflected in the sponsor’s agenda. If not, explain:

For the reasons outlined below, several of the meetings listed on the proposed itinerary did not happen or were slightly altered. Our flight arriving to Havana Sunday evening was delayed by over two hours, which set off a series of meeting changes. Similarly, the Cuban government added two meetings to our agenda, which forced us to slightly alter the schedule. We did our best to maintain the schedule as close to possible as the original agenda; and replaced canceled or altered meetings with similar meetings.

Altered/unfulfilled meetings:

  • Dinner with Dr. Carlos Alzugaray Treto, Center for Studies of the United States, to discuss bilateral relations between Cuba and the U.S. o Our flight arriving to Havana Sunday evening was delayed by over two hours, forcing us to cancel dinner with Mr. Treto. We were unable to reschedule.
  • Breakfast with Humberto Miranda, researcher from the Institute of Philosophy and Professor to American students studying in Cuba.
    o Our flight arriving to Havana Sunday evening was delayed by over two hours, making arrival that evening very late. We had to cancel breakfast to allow sufficient time to sleep. We were unable to reschedule.
  • Lunch at Hotel Nacional with Gail Reed, International Director, MEDICC.
    o The Cuban government added two meetings to our schedule on Monday and Tuesday, making it impossible to meet with Ms. Reed.
  • Meeting with Rafael Hernandez, editor of Temas.
    o Mr. Hernandez had a stomach ailment and canceled the meeting with us at the last minute.
  • Meeting with Orlando Marquez, Spokesman for the Catholic Church for perspective on current situation, human rights, and the church’s role in society.
    o Mr. Marquez was also sick and forced to cancel his meeting with us at the last minute.
  • Breakfast with University of Havana economist Jorge Mario Sanchez. Mr. Sanchez is an expert in economic relations between the U.S. and Cuba.
    o Mr. Sanchez did not receive the necessary permission from the University of Havana to speak with us.

Added Meetings:

  • Visit with the crew of the U.S. ship “Amistad” docked in Old Havana.
    o We met with the crew of a U.S. ship visiting Havana to discuss the importance of non-governmental cooperation between the U.S. and Cuba on historical and cultural projects.

17. Name of hotel or other lodging facility: Hotel Nacional, Calle 0 esq. 21, Vedado. Ciudad de La Habana, Vedado, Havana

18. Cost per night of hotel or other lodging facility (approximate cost may be provided): $151 (base fare of 105 – prior to commission and taxes)

19. Reason(s) for selecting hotel or other lodging facility:

The Hotel Nacional was selected based on its location and accommodations. The current base rate of $105 per person at the Hotel Nacional exceeds the federal employee lodging per diem for Havana, Cuba by $8 dollars each day. It is the only hotel centrally located near government offices and landmarks, including the Foreign Ministry, the Ministry of Basic Industry, National Center for Sex Education; the Museum of the Revolution, the historic section of Old Havana, farmers markets and other important venues. It also has the necessary accommodations to run an efficient trip – it is the only hotel in the area that has a business center with high speed internet, printing capabilities and long distance call centers. The Nacional also has meeting rooms, which we use for some of our scheduled activities – at no extra charge.

The Hotel Saint Johns ($101/day) is the only hotel located nearby, but it does not have the professional business center that is required for a productive trip. The only other Havana hotels that also have high speed internet, fax, etc (Melia Cohiba, Saratoga, Parque Central, etc) are more expensive and are not centrally located.

 Please contact me if this is an issue so that we can explore other options with proper notice.
March 8, 2010

Dear traveler:

I am writing to invite you to join a fact-finding delegation to Cuba from March 28-31, 2010. The trip is hosted and led by my organization, the Center for Democracy in the Americas. We have invited a bipartisan group of Senate and House staffers to travel together on these dates.

The Center for Democracy in the Americas has run more than three-dozen delegations to Cuba since 2001. We bring supporters and opponents of U.S. policy, Democrats and Republicans, legislators and staff so that they can experience Cuba directly and make better informed decisions about the future of U.S.-Cuba relations.

Our delegations examine a range of issues by seeing a cross-section of Cuba's people and its society. We meet with government officials, leaders of civil society, diplomats from foreign government, academics and artists, and average Cubans in a variety of settings. The purpose of our trips is simple: to give U.S. policy makers the opportunity to ask their own questions and reach their own conclusions about our policy and whether it should be changed.

Our trips comply fully with the rules enacted by Congress on ethics and travel.

We hope you can join us. The deadline for submitting travel forms to House Ethics is Friday, so we need to know as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Sarah Stephens

Mr. Aaron M. Popelka
Office of the Honorable Jerry Moran
2202 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Popelka:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct hereby approves your amended proposed trip to Cuba scheduled for March 28 to April 1, 2010, sponsored by the Center for Democracy in the Americas.¹

You must complete an Employee Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are required to attach a copy of this letter and the Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form, including all attachments. You must also include a copy of the Traveler Form completed by you and signed by your employing Member. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $335 from a single source on Schedule VII of that statement.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act, gifts “of minimal value [currently $335] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy” by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of $335 received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ This advisory opinion concerns whether this trip complies with applicable House Rules. It is our understanding that the Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) administers regulations governing travel by United States citizens to Cuba, including what items may be brought back to the United States. You should contact that agency directly to ensure that your travel is permissible under its regulations.
If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.
