Line 15/16. Many hotels near the Los Angeles Convention Center are unavailable for booking during the 2016 E3 conference, and the rates for available nearby hotel rooms are inflated during this time, due to increased demand as a result of the E3 show. Below are per night prices from some of the hotels in the area that were available, for these dates:

- Ritz-Carlton Los Angeles - $509 per night + taxes/fees
- Beverly Wilshire - $365 per night + taxes/fees
- JW Marriott Santa Monica - $318 per night + taxes/fees
- Loews Santa Monica - $318 per night + taxes/fees
- JW Marriott at L.A. Live - $309 per night + taxes/fees
- Hilton Checkers - $304 per night + taxes/fees

The Entertainment Software Association ultimately made the decision to book at the L.A. Hotel Downtown because the prices noted above are more expensive than the rate it was able to secure ($249 per night + applicable taxes/fees for a total of $311.23 per night), the hotel is in close vicinity to the Convention Center where E3 is held, which will make for more productive time and less time in transit, and the hotel has the capacity to hold all staffers invited.

The daily total meal expenses for June 14 will be $110, with a good faith estimated allocation of $20 for breakfast, $25 for lunch, and $65 for dinner. This is slightly more than the maximum per diem rates for official Federal Government travel for this area due to higher costs for catering in downtown Los Angeles, the increased demand for catering during the E3 conference, and the need to use only approved caterers for the hotel and the E3 venue. The maximum meal expenses per participant on the trip travel days, June 13 and June 15, will be for $38, which complies with per diem rates, and reimbursement for travel day meals will only be made if receipts are provided.
House Primary Trip Sponsor Form - Additional Information (Revised Attachment)

Line 15 and 16. The total estimated meal expenses per participant for this trip are $121.00. On June 13, a travel day for this trip, ESA will reimburse each participant up to $38.00 per day for meals if receipts are provided. On June 14, ESA will provide breakfast and lunch for each participant. The good faith estimated cost of breakfast for each participant will be $20.00, and the cost of lunch will be $25.00. Dinner will not be provided by ESA on June 14. On June 15, the final travel day for this trip, ESA will again reimburse each participant up to $38.00 per day for meals if receipts are provided.

Many hotels near the Los Angeles Convention Center are unavailable for booking during the 2016 E3 conference, and the rates for available nearby hotel rooms are inflated during this time, due to increased demand. Below are per night prices from some of the hotels in the area that were available, for these dates:

Ritz-Carlton Los Angeles - $509 per night + taxes/fees
Beverly Wilshire - $365 per night + taxes/fees
JW Marriott Santa Monica - $318 per night + taxes/fees
Loews Santa Monica - $318 per night + taxes/fees
JW Marriott at L.A. Live - $309 per night + taxes/fees
Hilton Checkers - $304 per night + taxes/fees

The Entertainment Software Association ultimately made the decision to book at the L.A. Hotel Downtown because the prices noted above are more expensive than the rate it was able to secure ($249 per night + applicable taxes/fees for a total of $311.23 per night). The Entertainment Software Association negotiated this standard price with the hotel for a large block of rooms for use during E3. In addition, the hotel is in close vicinity to the Convention Center where E3 is held. The hotel's proximity to the Convention Center is significant because of the heavy volume of traffic in Los Angeles that is expected during the E3 conference. Selecting a hotel not located near the Convention Center would mean adding several additional hours of transit time, which would result in much less time available for educational programming.
