Dear Ms. Chan:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Nashville, Tennessee, scheduled for August 3 to 5, 2017, sponsored by SoundExchange. We remind you that, because the trip sponsor employs a federal lobbyist, you may participate in officially-connected activity on one calendar day only. We also note that this trip includes one day at your personal expense.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Susan W. Brooks

9:45 am CT – Arrive Nashville International Airport. Board Bus

10:30 am – Arrive Country Music Association [35 Music Square East, Music Row, Nashville, TN 37203]•

10:45 – 11:15 am CT – Welcome to Music City

Leaders of the city's local government and the Country Music Association will briefly welcome guests, to help set the stage and lay some historical and economic background for the day's programming.

11:15- 12:15 noon - "SoundExchange 101" – Presented by SoundExchange Executives

An educational primer about the mission and make-up of the SoundExchange organization, how/why it was established by Congress, and its unique role in today's overall music ecosystem. Presentation will include a discussion of how pending legislation potentially affects the many sectors of the music industry that intersect with SoundExchange, and outline the business opportunities moving forward. A question and answer period will follow a comprehensive power point presentation.

12:15 – 1:30 pm – Lunchtime Panel Discussion - The Economic Impact of the Music Industry on Local Cities

This panel will explore how the city of Nashville, and its surrounding communities, have been affected, economically and culturally, by the changing dynamics of the music industry in the digital age. Nashville has the third largest concentration of employees from the music industry in the country. Panel participants will include Nashville City government officials, music industry representatives, as well as educational and economic development leaders.

1:30 pm – Board Bus

1:45 pm – Check In – Hutton Hotel – [1808 West End Avenue, Nashville TN 37203]

County Q is a currently operational studio where hundreds of recording careers have been born for over 30 years. The purpose of this session is to illustrate the intricacies of the recording process and the number of individuals that are pivotal to a sound recordings' success. This studio tour and training session will include some of Nashville's finest professional musicians who will demonstrate the art of live collaboration on an original ("demo") track. A producer and engineer will be on hand to demonstrate the technical parameters under which live studio recording takes place, and the vast technological processes behind the sound board. Each participant will share their creative insights and talents in the studio, as well as describe the professional challenges of being a full-time musician in the digital age. Congressional participants will interact with the studio professionals and witness the creative process in real time.

5:00 pm – Board Bus to Entrepreneur Center [41 Peabody Street, Nashville, TN 37210]

5:15 – 7:30 pm – Nashville 2017: More Than Just Country Music

Nashville is typically thought of for its contributions to the country music industry. But the tremendous growth of the city over the past two decades has brought life to many more facets of the music, technology and entrepreneurial industries. These all add to the dynamic creative center of the city, and are vital to the communities in and around the area. Special invited guests from non-profit organizations and start-up businesses will describe how various industries have long supported the economics of the city, while others are born every day, creating thousands of new jobs and significant economic growth. The speakers will provide individual accounts of how the creative and economic livelihood of Nashville has increased from the explosive growth of the music industry there. {Note – dinner will be served during these presentations}

7:30 pm – Board Bus to Blue Bird Café [4400 Hillsboro Pike, Nashville, TN]

8:30 – 11:00 pm – "SoundExchange Sessions" Series at the Bluebird Café

The ongoing SoundExchange Sessions Series spotlights the importance of the contribution that artists make, both culturally and economically. The series provides an opportunity for artists to discuss their career, their craft, their influences, and their role in the overall music ecosystem.

The series illustrates the value of all music, across various distribution platforms, a key issue in pending legislation before Congress such as licensing, royalty data and distribution, etc. The intent is to better inform the Congressional participants about how their legislative/policy functions affect the real lives of professionals in the creative community, as well as the peripheral economics that are affected by it. As part of their presentation, the artists will play some samples of their music in a traditional Nashville guitar pull style, as they relate to their personal and professional journeys as musicians.
