COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

September 27, 2017

Ms. Natalie Armijo
Office of the Honorable Michelle Lujan Grisham
214 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Armijo:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, scheduled for October 7 to 8, 2017, sponsored by the Pew Charitable Trusts, with financial support from the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation and Democracy Fund. We remind you that, because the trip sponsor employs a federal lobbyist, you may participate in officially-connected activity on one calendar day only.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Susan W. Brooks
Chairwoman

The Honorable Susan Brooks, Chairwoman
Committee on Ethics
U.S. House of Representatives
1015 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Re: Pew Charitable Trusts' Bipartisan Leadership and Management Retreat in Philadelphia, PA

Dear Chairwoman Brooks:

This letter is submitted in connection with the October 7-8 bipartisan leadership and management retreat to Philadelphia, PA sponsored by the Pew Charitable Trusts, to which congressional staff have been invited. We understand that the Committee on Ethics, which is charged with reviewing and approving privately-funded, officially-connected travel by House Members and staff, may consider the Foundation to be a "source" of funds associated with the Pew Charitable Trusts' congressional study trip that must be identified under House rules.

The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation (the "Foundation"), a non-profit foundation established in 1967, made a grant to the Pew Charitable Trusts ("Pew") to support its House Chiefs of Staff project (Grant #2015-2725). The Foundation's grant funds are intended to enable Pew to work with the U.S. House of Representatives' chiefs of staff in an effort to build, strengthen and sustain a bipartisan organization that will foster relationships, share best practices and strengthen the capacity of Congress. The Foundation is aware of Pew's educational activities and the study trip, the participants, and its agenda. However, there is no agreement, written or oral, between the Foundation and Pew whereby the Foundation may direct the activities of Pew, including the conduct of the study trip, or cause the selection of any invited congressional participant. Pew exercises control over that selection process and makes the selection completely independent from the Foundation.

Furthermore, please note that the Foundation is not a registrant under the Federal Lobbying Disclosure Act ("LDA"), does not retain or employ a registered federal lobbyist to lobby on its behalf, and has not received funds from any lobbyist or LDA registrant. Moreover, the Foundation has not accepted any source funds earmarked for Pew or any congressional travel.

If we can provide any additional information, please me at 650-234-4787 or epeters@hewlett.org.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Elizabeth H. Peters', written in a cursive style.

House Chiefs of Staff Retreat Itinerary

Saturday, October 7, 2017

- 9:25am Depart Union Station via Amtrak 164
- 11:17am Arrive 30th Street Station, Philadelphia
- 11:30am Travel via bus to Sofitel, 120 S. 17th Street
- 11:45am Check into Sofitel
- 12:15-1:15pm Lunch, Sofitel.
Lee Rainie, Director, Internet, Science and Technology, Pew Research Center.
- 1:30-3:30pm Jeanne Meserve – “Presentation Skills”
- Participants will learn the research behind audience attention spans and how to quickly connect and keep the interest of various groups. Storytelling best practices are demonstrated along with strategies for handling challenging Q&A scenarios. Methods are also presented to help take complex messages and make them more clear and succinct.
- In addition to tips and techniques, participants are engaged in discussion about the strengths and weaknesses of current presentations in the news and how those critiques may be applied to their own work. Following the interactive discussion, the session will also engage participants with small group exercises where each Chief of Staff has the opportunity to deliver a short segment of a presentation or meeting introduction. Then the presenter receives critique from his or her peers.
- 3:30-3:40pm Break
- 3:40-5:40pm Marty Clarke, “Customer Service – Creating the Standout Experience”
- In this fast, funny, and highly content-rich workshop, Marty Clarke discusses, in detail, real world strategies that give attendees the tools to communicate well with both internal and external audiences. Attendees learn techniques that will help them create the “standout experience” even when the stakes are high and tempers are running hot. Specific topics will include: Creating the Culture of Harmony; Flexibility and How We Make the Service Connection; The 3 Expectations of Every Interaction; Communication and Credibility; Irrate Colleagues! Strategies for a Soft Landing; and Blame vs. Resolution.

Bipartisan House Chiefs of Staff Retreat Philadelphia, PA | October 7-8, 2017

Saturday, October 7, 2017

- 9:25am Depart Union Station via Amtrak 164
- 11:17am Arrive 30th Street Station, Philadelphia
- 11:30am Travel via bus to Sofitel, 120 S. 17th Street
- 11:45am-1:00pm Lunch, Sofitel.
Lee Rainie, Director, Internet, Science and Technology, Pew Research Center.
(Paris Ballroom)
- 1:15-3:15pm Jeanne Meserve – “Presentation Skills” -
(Paris Ballroom)
Participants will learn the research behind audience attention spans and how to quickly connect and keep the interest of various groups. Storytelling best practices are demonstrated along with strategies for handling challenging Q&A scenarios. Methods are also presented to help take complex messages and make them more clear and succinct.
- In addition to tips and techniques, participants are engaged in discussion about the strengths and weaknesses of current presentations in the news and how those critiques may be applied to their own work. Following the interactive discussion, the session will also engage participants with small group exercises where each Chief of Staff has the opportunity to deliver a short segment of a presentation or meeting introduction. Then the presenter receives critique from his or her peers.
- 3:15-3:30pm Break
- 3:30-5:30pm Marty Clarke, “Customer Service – Creating the Standout Experience”
(Paris Ballroom)
In this fast, funny, and highly content-rich workshop, Marty Clarke discusses, in detail, real world strategies that give attendees the tools to communicate well with both internal and external audiences. Attendees learn techniques that will help them create the “standout experience” even when the stakes are high and tempers are running hot. Specific topics will include: Creating the Culture of Harmony; Flexibility and How We Make the Service Connection; The 3 Expectations of Every Interaction; Communication and Credibility; Irate Colleagues! Strategies for a Soft Landing; and Blame vs. Resolution.

Retreat Schedule

- 6:30pm Depart via bus to Independence Hall
- 6:45-7:30pm Private tour of Independence Hall
- 7:30-7:40pm Travel via bus to the Constitution Center
- 7:45-9:30pm Reception and Dinner at Constitution Center
Keynote Address by Walter Isaacson

Walter Isaacson is the president and CEO of the Aspen Institute. He previously served as the chairman and CEO of CNN and the editor of TIME magazine.

Isaacson's most recent book, Leonardo da Vinci (2017), is based on thousands of pages from Leonardo's astonishing notebooks and new discoveries about his life and work. Isaacson weaves a narrative that connects his art to his science. He shows how Leonardo's genius was based on skills we can improve in ourselves, such as passionate curiosity, careful observation, and an imagination so playful that it flirted with fantasy. is a biographical tale of the people who invented the computer, Internet and the other great innovations of the digital age.

Walter Isaacson is the author of the acclaimed best sellers Steve Jobs, Einstein: His Life and Universe, and Benjamin Franklin: An American Life.
