Dear Ms. Ross:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Belgium, scheduled for October 14 to 20, 2017, sponsored by the Friedrich Ebert Foundation.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the “Travel” schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts “of minimal value [currently $390] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy” by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments filed with the Committee, and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.
If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee’s Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Susan W. Brooks

Context:

Even though the new US administration is followed with great interest by the European partners, some of the messages that sent are met with great concern. The fundamental trust in the traditional transatlantic partnership seems to have been shattered. While the EU will have to rely more than ever on itself, it also has to overcome several integration crises and build up new strengths. However, in view of the complexity and interdependency of global challenges the transatlantic partnership needs to be preserved through times of uncertainty. This programme will offer a platform for a transatlantic exchange and aims at opening up communication channels beyond diplomatic channels. The discussion between the delegation and EU representatives and Brussels based think tanks will explore trends and priorities of US foreign policies, at the same time providing the delegation with insights into EU policy making and current areas of progress in the integration process as well as challenges to it. Ultimately, this programme should provide both sides with background knowledge to facilitate interpretation of the respective partner.

Programme
Topics and Institutions that will be covered include:
European Institutions and Decision-making, Security and Defence Policy, Trade Policy, Climate and Energy Policy, European External Actions Service, European Commission (DG Trade, Energy, Climate Action), European Parliament (MEPs and Assistants), NATO, Brussels based think tanks and NGOs. The programme will mostly consist of bilateral meetings.

Costs for travel and accommodation will be covered by FES Brussels.
