Mr. Augustine "Austin" Smythe
Office of the Speaker of the House
H-232, The Capitol
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Smythe:

This responds to your letter dated July 30, 2018, seeking retroactive approval of travel expenses in connection with a privately-sponsored trip. Specifically, you seek retroactive approval to accept travel expenses in connection with your participation in a trip to White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, from January 31 to February 2, 2018, sponsored by the Congressional Institute (the sponsor).

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

According to your letter, supporting documents, additional information provided to Committee counsel, and publicly-available information, the background on this matter is as follows. You are the policy director for Speaker Paul Ryan, and you are paid above the senior staff rate.¹ Speaker Ryan was elected in November 1999 to represent Wisconsin's 1st congressional district and elected as Speaker in 2015. You were invited by and accepted travel related to your official duties to White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, from the sponsor. The trip expenses totaled approximately $1,048 for you. You are seeking retroactive approval from the Committee for your travel expenses, which you already accepted.

Your letter states that Jessica Cameron, counsel to the speaker, submitted your request to travel at the invitation and expense of the sponsor to the Committee on January 2, 2018. Although the required documents were submitted to the Committee in a timely manner, 30 days before the start of the trip, you realized that you had not received an approval letter and immediately contacted the Committee after the trip had concluded. Cameron received a blast email the trip was approved as the Speaker's Office point of contact and there was no indication you were not approved. Upon returning you realized you did not receive a formal approval letter as your colleagues did. The Committee had a record of your submission, but you were not sent an approval letter because of a clerical error. Committee counsel asked you to submit a letter to the Committee seeking retroactive approval for acceptance of the travel from the sponsor.

LEGAL BACKGROUND AND ANALYSIS

Members and staff are required to request and receive approval from the Committee before accepting privately-sponsored travel.² The requirement has been in place since March 1, 2007, pursuant to the House rules that were passed at the start of the 110th Congress on January 4 and 5, 2007. We note further that the rules related to privately-sponsored travel are laid out in the Travel Regulations issued by the Committee³ and in the annual ethics training provided by the Committee that all House staff are required to complete.

In general, the Committee will not approve a privately-sponsored trip in a case in which a House traveler failed to obtain permission to travel from the Committee before embarking on the trip. In exceptional circumstances, the Committee may consider approving a previously unapproved trip after the trip has taken place.

Based on the representations in your letter and additional information provided to Committee counsel, the Committee determines that you have demonstrated exceptional circumstances for not having obtained pre-approval of the above-noted trip. Specifically, you have made representations to the Committee that you made a good-faith effort to file the Forms by sending the Forms by email more than 30 days before your trip. Further, this trip otherwise complied with House rules and you immediately attempted to remedy this mistake after your return. Finally, Committee records indicate that you have not previously accepted travel from a private sponsor without prior approval of the Committee. As a result, the Committee approves your request for retroactive approval for your trip to White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, from January 31 to February 2, 2018, sponsored by the Congressional Institute.

The Committee, however, notes that retroactive travel approval may be inappropriate for you or your office in the future. This letter serves as a reminder to you of the rule requiring you to receive explicit Committee approval before you accept privately-sponsored travel. Committee approval is granted by way of a letter signed by the Committee Chairwoman and Ranking Member.

You should submit your Disclosure to the Clerk of the House, substituting this letter for the Committee pre-approval required by House rules, or, if you have already made a partial disclosure to the Clerk, you should add this letter as an amendment to that submission. Finally, if you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement under the Ethics in Government Act (EIGA), you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering 2018.⁴

³ See generally Travel Regulations (December 2012).

⁴ 5 U.S.C. app. §§ 101 et seq.

LIMITATIONS

The response above constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of House Rule 25 and the EIGA. The following limitations apply to this opinion:

- This advisory opinion is issued only to Augustine "Austin" Smythe, the requestor of this opinion. This advisory opinion cannot be relied upon by any other individual or entity.
- This advisory opinion is limited to the current provision and interpretation of the House rule and federal statute specifically noted above. No opinion is expressed or implied herein regarding the application of any other federal, state, or local statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other law that may be applicable to the proposed conduct described in this letter, including the Internal Revenue Code.
- This advisory opinion will not bind or obligate any entity other than the Committee on Ethics of the United States House of Representatives.
- This advisory opinion is limited in scope to the specific proposed conduct described in this letter, the specific facts represented to the Committee, and the understanding of those facts to the extent indicated in this letter, and does not apply to any other conduct or facts, including that which appears similar in nature or scope to that described in this letter. Should this letter mis-state any facts in this matter, the opinion and advice may no longer apply and you should inform the Committee as soon as possible to determine if the advice and opinion in this letter apply to the accurate factual basis.

The Committee will take no adverse action against you in regard to any conduct that you undertake, or have undertaken, in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion, so long as you have presented a complete and accurate statement of all material facts relied upon herein, and the proposed conduct in practice conforms with the information you provided, as addressed in this opinion.

Changes or other developments in the law (including, but not limited to, the Code of Official Conduct, House rules, Committee guidance, advisory opinions, statutes, regulations, or case law) may affect the analysis or conclusions drawn in this advisory opinion. The Committee reserves the right to reconsider the questions and issues raised in this advisory opinion and to rescind, modify, or terminate this opinion if required by the interests of the House. However, the Committee will rescind an advisory opinion only if relevant and material facts were not completely and accurately disclosed to the Committee at the time the opinion was issued. In the event that this advisory opinion is modified or terminated, the Committee will not take any adverse action against you with respect to any action taken in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion so long as such conduct or such action was promptly discontinued upon notification of the modification or termination of this advisory opinion.

Mr. Augustine "Austin" Smythe

PRIMARY TRIP SPONSOR FORM ADDENDUM

Question 4: Provide names and titles of ALL House Members and employees you are inviting. For each House invitee, provide an explanation of why the individual was invited (include additional pages if necessary):

See attached invitation list. This Congressional Institute-sponsored conference will educate attendees on important policy issues and allow House Members and Senators and their staff to develop relationships with each other. Thus, the invitation to this conference is being extended to senior leadership and committee staff to learn policy developments and trends alongside House Members and Senators.

Question 12: For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

The purpose of the Congressional Institute (a 501(c)4 organization) is to promote public education about Congress and to hold educational conferences for Members of Congress, staff and others. The Congressional Institute is the sole organizer and conductor of this event. This retreat is designed to strengthen professional relationships among Members of Congress, senior leadership and committee staff, educate them on policy issues and best practices, and encourage the exchange of ideas with colleagues.

Question 18: Total expenses for each participant:

The estimated lodging rate and per participant food/refreshment expense figure for this event (and provided on this form) do not include the separate costs to the Congressional Institute to rent conference/banquet space large enough to accommodate this large event with appropriate security and audio/visual capabilities necessary to conduct our program. Dividing these conference and facility rental costs by the number of participants estimated to attend this event, the estimated figure would be $383 as disclosed on the sponsor form.

The Congressional Institute will employ additional assistance at this conference to help ensure that only participants and invited persons access events. The amount disclosed on this form ($42) reflects a per attendee division of the total figure for such additional assistance.
