Office of the Honorable Seth Moulton
1408 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Kanter:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Dublin, Ireland, and London, United Kingdom,\(^1\) scheduled for September 17 to 22, 2018, sponsored by the Progressive Policy Institute.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the “Travel” schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts “of minimal value [currently $390] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy” by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments filed with the Committee, and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

\(^1\) We note that the U.S. Department of State (State Department) has issued a travel warning concerning travel to Dublin, available at https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/international-travel/International-Travel-Country-Information-Pages/Ireland.html. You may wish to contact the State Department regarding the safety of your proposed trip.
If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee’s Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Susan W. Brooks
Chairwoman

On behalf of the Progressive Policy Institute (PPI), I’d like to invite you to join us for a transatlantic mission to Dublin and London from Monday, September 17 to Saturday, September 22, 2018.

This will be PPI’s sixth time hosting a bipartisan delegation of senior congressional staff for high-level policy meetings in Europe and the United Kingdom with our transatlantic allies and partners. With an uncertain geopolitical landscape in Europe post-Brexit—and ever changing political dynamics in the United States—the desire from key players in Europe to meet and talk with their American counterparts in Congress is at a significantly heightened level. With this in mind, PPI believes it is important for U.S. policy professionals to experience and learn about the European view on critical issues not represented in domestic press reports and to inform our allies of Congress’ work in these areas.

This mission will cover a wide range of topics and the schedule is not for the faint of heart; you will see much of Dublin and London in a short period of time!

Specifically, this mission will hold meetings directly related to:

- Ongoing competition, or “State Aid,” investigations targeting US multi-nationals
- The impact of digital privacy laws and crackdown on social media
- The aftermath of Brexit and what it means for US-UK relations
- The new U.S. tax law’s impact EU-US relations
- The political landscape across Europe and its effect on the future of the EU when the UK officially exits in 2019

PPI is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization with the mission of providing educational programming on current policy issues. As such, this mission will comply with House and Senate ethics rules. PPI was a leader in the founding and push for the “Third Way” movement in the 1990s and has continued this work since then by maintaining relationships in Europe and producing informative and thought provoking transatlantic missions and reports.

I hope that you will be able to join us in what promises to be an insightful and educational mission to Dublin and London. Space is limited; please contact me at 202-775-0106 or ctucker@ppionline.org to RSVP or if you require further information.

Regards,

Cody Tucker
