FRS Congressional Broadband Tour to South Dakota 2018

August 13-16, 2018

The Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) is a 501c3 non-profit dedicated to enhancing quality of life in America by promoting a better understanding of rural issues. The vision of FRS is to harness the power of the rural communications industry to enrich lives in America.

The purpose of this trip is to educate Hill staff on the geographic and financial challenges of providing robust broadband service to remote rural areas, as well as to highlight the role rural telecom companies play in providing these essential services that support education, agriculture, health, and public safety. Attendees will visit with a range of small, rural telecommunications companies in South Dakota as well as companies that provide essential services to these companies such as engineering. The group will also visit with rural community leaders and discuss ways in which the state has been enhanced by broadband applications. Drive times through South Dakota will give FRS staff an opportunity to provide educational sessions on the bus, as well as illustrate the difficulty of serving “last mile” areas in a highly rural state.

Per the Ethics rules, no registered lobbyists will attend this trip. All expenses will be paid in full by the Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) and will be subject to the daily per diem allowances for Senate and House employees—in other words, all meals, lodging and transportation for staffers will be covered by FRS within these allowance rates.

Monday, August 13

7:00am Staffers will meet and check-in with Jessica Golden (Executive Director, Foundation for Rural Service (FRS)) at their flight’s gate at Washington Reagan Airport (DCA).

7:45am—2:40pm The group will fly together from DCA to Sioux Falls Regional Airport, South Dakota.

2:40pm Arrive at Sioux Falls Regional Airport. Jessica Golden (FRS) will provide staffers with welcome packets and lead them to the bus they will be taking for the entirety of the trip.

2:50—3:00pm Board bus and drive to SDN Communications (2900 W 10th Street, Sioux Falls, SD).

3:00—5:30pm At SDN Communications, the group will be provided with a “Welcome to South Dakota” presentation, which will include an industry overview, a history of broadband funding mechanisms in the state such as the Universal Service Fund, and how funding programs and recent policy changes affect the telecommunications providers of South Dakota. Presenters will include:

- Rich Coit, Executive Director, South Dakota Telecommunications Association
- Greg Dean, Director of Industry Relations, South Dakota Telecommunications Association
- Mark Shlanta, CEO, SDN Communications
- Larry Thompson, CEO, Vantage Point Solutions
Also provided by the presenters will be a background on how SDN was founded by the rural telecom providers in the state, statistics from a recent broadband survey and a broadband engineering perspective.

5:30—7:00pm The group will head to dinner nearby where they will be joined by the presenters from the Welcome to South Dakota presentation. Jessica Golden (FRS) and Kelly Wismer (Communications Manager, NTCA—the Rural Broadband Association) will moderate a discussion on reflections and follow-up questions from the day’s discussion. Mark Shlanta (SDN Communications) will also provide background on data center the group will visit after dinner.

7:00—7:20pm Drive to SDN Data Center (5300 North La Mesa Drive, Sioux Falls, SD).

7:20—7:45pm Mark Shlanta (SDN Communications) will give the group a tour of the SDN Communications Data Center, a multi-million-dollar data center that features redundant power feeds, high-tech electronic identification security measures, and access to SDN’s network and internet service.

7:45—8:45pm The group will drive to Mitchell, SD. Along the way, Kelly Wismer (NTCA) and Jessica Golden (FRS) will provide a wrap-up discussion of the day’s activities and conversations.

8:45pm Arrive in Mitchell, check into hotel (Hampton Inn Mitchell, 1920 Highland Way, Mitchell, SD 57301).

9:15—10:45am The group will visit with Midstate Communications CEO/General Manager Mark Benton and Marketing Manager Chad Mutziger, who will provide an overview of the company’s history, challenges, and recent broadband deployments. Staffers will also walk a few blocks down the road from the Midstate offices to visit a live cattle sale, which, thanks to Midstate’s highspeed broadband, is now available to an international audience.

10:45—11:30am Drive to Chamberlain, SD. Kelly Wismer (NTCA) and Jessica Golden (FRS) will review the visit to Midstate and take any questions from staffers. Kelly and Jessica will discuss the unique west vs. east geography of the state and how these differences affect the state’s economy and resources. On the route, the group will also pass the sculpture of Dignity, a 50-foot-tall statue designed to honor the cultures of the Lakota and Dakota people.

11:30—1:30pm The group will have a roundtable lunch at the Akta Lakota Museum & Cultural Center (1301 North Main Street, Chamberlain, SD), an educational outreach of St. Joseph’s Indian School, which works to promote education and understanding of the Northern Plains Indian Culture past, present and future through preservation of historical artifacts and contemporary art.

2:00—3:00pm Drive to Mount Rushmore National Memorial (13000 SD-244, Keystone, SD 57751). Along the way, Kelly Wismer (NTCA) will share about the Smart Rural Community (SRC) program that NTCA—The Rural Broadband Association started a few years ago. SRC recognizes rural broadband providers that have gone above and beyond not just to build broadband to their communities but have helped the communities utilize the applications of that broadband by partnering with local libraries, schools, farmers, small businesses, public safety affiliates and so on.

3:00—5:00pm The staffers will have time for a bathroom break and to visit Mount Rushmore National Memorial. Jessica Golden (FRS) and Kelly Wismer (NTCA) will join the group to continue to reflect on what they have seen so far on the trip. Mount Rushmore National Memorial continues to be a significant economic development tool for the state of South Dakota. With close to 3 million visitors a year, the Memorial is key to many of the small businesses and towns that surround it. When tourists arrive to the nearby areas, they often expect to be able to connect to the internet. Jessica and Kelly will kick off the conversation of the role of broadband in tourism and continue it on the bus back to Rapid City.
