Dear Mr. Tittle:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Richmond, Virginia, scheduled for May 18 to 19, 2019, sponsored by Pew Charitable Trusts, with financial support from William and Flora Hewlett Foundation and Democracy Fund. We remind you that, because the trip sponsor employs a federal lobbyist, you may participate in officially-connected activity on one calendar day only.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Re: The Pew Charitable Trusts Bipartisan House Chiefs of Staff Conferences 2019

Dear Chairman Deutch,

This letter is submitted in connection with The Pew Charitable Trusts' Bipartisan House Chiefs of Staff Conferences, to which House of Representatives staff have been invited. We understand that the Committee on Ethics, which is charged with reviewing and approving privately-funded, officially-connected travel by Members and staff of the House, may consider the Foundation to be a "source" of funds associated with The Pew Charitable Trusts' study trips that must be identified under House rules.

The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation (the "Foundation"), a non-profit foundation established in 1967, made a grant to The Pew Charitable Trusts to support the House Chiefs of Staff Project (Grant #2018-7107). The Foundation's grant supports efforts to provide a nonpartisan, nonpolitical "safe space" to foster bipartisan relationship building and management best practices that can lead to better informed and more effective public policy. Please note that the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation is aware of the study trips, the participants, and the agenda. However, there is no agreement, written or oral, between the Foundation and The Pew Charitable Trusts whereby the Foundation may direct the activities of the House Chiefs of Staff Project, including the conduct of the study trips, or cause the selection of any invited congressional participant. The Pew Charitable Trusts exercises control over that selection process and makes the selection completely independent from the Foundation.

Furthermore, please note that the Foundation is not a registrant under the Federal Lobbying Disclosure Act ("LDA"), does not retain or employ a registered federal lobbyist to lobby on its behalf, and has not received funds from any lobbyist or LDA registrant. Moreover, the Foundation has not accepted any source funds earmarked for The Pew Charitable Trusts or any congressional travel.

If we can provide any additional information, please contact me at 650-234-4787 or epeters@hewlett.org.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth L. Peters
General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

A.I., Robotics, and America in 2050.
David Pogue (The New York Times and CBS Sunday Morning)
From 2000 to 2013, David Pogue was the New York Times weekly tech columnist. After a five-year detour to Yahoo Finance, he's now he's back at the Times, writing the "Crowdwise" feature for the "Smarter Living" section. He's a four-time Emmy winner for his stories on "CBS Sunday Morning," and a host of 17 science specials on "NOVA" on PBS. (Empire Ballroom)
- 1:30-1:45pm Break
- 1:45-3:15pm Bipartisan Challenges in the Toughest Chief of Staff Job.
Chris Whipple, author of "The Gatekeepers: How the White House Chiefs of Staff Define Every Presidency," will moderate a discussion with the chiefs of staff to Presidents Bill Clinton (John Podesta) and George W. Bush (Joshua Bolten). (Empire Ballroom)
- 3:15-3:45pm Break and Room Check-in
- 3:45-5:00pm Presidential Recordings – The Executive/Legislative Branch Relationship Through History, Marc Selverstone, the Miller Center at UVA
To assist chiefs in gaining a better understanding of effective working relationships between the legislative and executive branches, this session will explore the interactions between the president and House leadership over the years through the Miller Center's exhaustive collection of Oval Office recordings from Kennedy through Nixon. (Empire Ballroom)
- 5:30-7:00pm Walking Tour of Historic Richmond (optional)
Shuttle buses provided at hotel entrance

Conference Schedule

7:30-9:00pm.

Reception and Dinner Program

Bill Martin, Executive Director, Valentine Museum

“Richmond: Building a New Narrative”

From Jefferson’s Statute for Religious Freedom to John Marshall’s leadership in the U.S. Supreme Court, conversations around the values and infrastructure of the emerging nation were centered in Richmond and with its political leadership. From this early history until today, Richmond is a reflection of both the aspirations and failures. (Empire Ballroom)
