Office of the Honorable Barbara Lee
2470 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Nickson:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Japan,¹ scheduled for May 24 to June 1, 2019, sponsored by United States Association of Former Members of Congress, with financial support from Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA. We note that this trip includes one day at your personal expense.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $390] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Sergeant at Arms (SAA) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. SAA may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

- 4:00 – 5:00pm Guided visit to Osaka Castle

Osaka Castle served as a key staging point for the Edo unification in the 1600's, that essentially created modern-day Japan. Along with an explanation of the historical importance of the castle, our travelers will have discussions about how the unification of the country led to the eventual creation of the Diet and the representative parliamentary republic that Japan is currently. There will also be discussions about the historical goals of various Japanese political entities and where the entities of today would like to move Japan, politically, financially and culturally.

1-1 Osakajo, Chuo, Osaka
- 7:00 – 8:30pm Introduction to Osaka
Dinner conversation with Consul General Karen Kelley, Political-Economic Officer Mr. Colin Fishwick, Mr. Toru Takei, Kyodo News, and Ms. Hiraku

- 2:00 – 4:00pm Guided visit to Kasuga Shrine and Todaiji Temple
Heijo – now called Nara – became Japan's first permanent capital in 710. Since then, Nara has served as a host of some of Japan's oldest temples and shrines. Kasuga Shrine and Todaiji Temple are UNESCO World Heritage sites because of their importance to the religious history and culture of Japan, which is integrally involved in Japanese life, including politics. The same discussions that will be had at the Asakusa Sensoji Temple will be echoed at these facilities, with other area political and cultural leaders. This is a particularly important site for discussing religious tolerance and inclusion, as it combines aspects of Buddhism and Shinto.

Addendum (updated on May 15, 2019)

4. This study tour is intended for senior congressional staff of the United States Congress; FMC invited senior congressional staff from the House of Representatives who have previously expressed an interest in U.S.-Japan relations during year-round roundtables on Capitol Hill related to Japan and/or during one-on-one meetings. In addition, staff whose Members serve on committees relevant to the trip's issues area – in particular, security, energy, and trade – were invited. Please find a list of all participants.

12. The Congressional Study Group on Japan is among the largest and most active parliamentary exchange programs between the U.S. Congress and the legislative branch of another country. The Study Group creates constant channels of communication and dialogue between American legislators and their counterparts in the Japanese Diet through regular roundtables in Washington, DC, throughout the year in addition to trips such as the 2019 U.S. Senior Congressional Staff Study Tour to Japan. It offers both Members of Congress and senior congressional staff a unique educational forum to examine issues including the U.S.-Japan security alliance, energy policy, bilateral and multilateral trade agreements, and social issues such as women in workforce and demographic change. FMC's Congressional Study Group on Japan is responsible for organizing the seminar program, arranging meetings, and inviting expert speakers to the study tour. FMC is solely responsible for all invitations to and communications with trip participants, as well as the budget for the 2019 U.S. Senior Congressional Staff Study Tour to Japan. All trip and event costs, including meals, will be paid by FMC and SPFUSA.

Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA (SPFUSA) awards grant monies to fund the year-round programming of The Congressional Study Group on Japan as a part of their mission of promoting understanding between the U.S. and Japan.

15. b. 2) Tokyo is the financial and political hub of Japan, and the senior staff delegation will meet with American and Japanese government officials, journalists and issue experts on issues ranging from security, women's status to trade. Additionally, through a visit to Meiji Shrine, participants will gain a holistic understanding of Japan's rich history, culture and religion.

Osaka is the second largest metropolitan area in Japan. The program in Osaka includes a visit to the Headquarter of Panasonic, which will provide senior staff an opportunity to discuss innovation and technology. Meeting with the Prefectural Governor will allow the delegation to learn about regional issues and efforts to revitalize the economy. Additionally, a visit to Osaka Castle, one of the largest castles in Japan, will provide a historical background of the Castle's role in unifying Japan during 16th century.

Nara is Japan's first permanent capital that was established in 710. Since then, Nara has served as a host of some of Japan's oldest temples and shrines. Visit to Kasuga Shrine and Todaiji Temple, both of which are listed UNESCO World Heritage Site, will have the delegation understand Japan's oldest history, and its influence on modern Japan.
