ONE HUNDRED THIRTEEN CONGRESS

U.S. House of Representatives

COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

May 22, 2019

Ms. Melissa Bair
Office of the Honorable Steve Stivers
2234 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Bair:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Albania, Serbia, and Montenegro,¹ scheduled for May 27 to June 1, 2019, sponsored by Atlantic Council of the United States, with financial support from Rockefeller Brothers Fund.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $390] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Sergeant at Arms (SAA) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. SAA may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Balkans Forward Congressional Fellowship

Staff Delegation Trip

Private Travel Sponsor Certification Form – Additional Pages

4. Provide names and titles of ALL House Members and employees you are inviting. For each House invitee, provide an explanation of why the individual was invited

Ms. Mimi Bair, Legislative Assistant, Office of Congressman Steve Stivers (R-OH), United States House of Representatives

As a Legislative Assistant to Congressman Steve Stivers, Ms. Bair handles defense, security, and international affairs policy for the Congressman. She is also the lead staff member who is responsible for supporting the Congressman's roles as the co-chairman of both the Caucus on Serbia and the Caucus on North Macedonia. The staff delegation to the Western Balkans and its focus on regional security, political and economic reforms, US engagement in the region, and institution building offer an opportunity for Ms. Bair to deepen her understanding of a variety of foreign policy and security policy issues affecting the region, that are directly relevant to her work for Congressman Stivers. The meetings and exchanges on the Serbia-Kosovo dialogue designed to resolve the long-standing dispute between both countries, will also allow her to develop an up-to-date understanding of recent developments and the prospects for an agreement, that will enhance her work on foreign affairs and the Serbia caucus.

Ms. Lina Dakheel, Senior Policy Advisor, Office of Congressman Thomas Suozzi (D-NY), United States House of Representatives.

Ms. Dakheel serves as senior policy advisor for Congressman Suozzi, covering foreign policy and trade policy in his office and supporting his role on the House Ways and Means Committee. In this position, she helps to develop the Congressman's agenda on international affairs issues and works on Russia, China, global anti-corruption, and illicit financing efforts, which all impact the Western Balkan countries in a variety of ways. The staff delegation to the Western Balkans will cover especially Russian and Chinese influence as well as crime and corruption challenges in the region and will thus offer an opportunity for Ms. Dakheel to deepen her understanding of these issues as they relate specifically to the Western Balkans and US policy there.

Mr. Kevin Fashola, Foreign Policy Fellow, Office of Congressman Gregory Meeks (D-NY), United States House of Representatives

Mr. Fashola covers foreign relations, armed services, intelligence issues, and international organizations for Congressman Meeks, who serves as a senior member of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Europe, Eurasia, Energy, and the Environment. The staff delegation visit will not only cover a wide range of issues relevant to Mr. Fashola's work for Congressman Meeks, including security challenges in the Western Balkans, US policy in the region, influence of Russia, China, and other actors, as well as the prospects for the eventual inclusion of Western Balkan countries in international organizations such as NATO and the European Union. The meetings and interactions with decisionmakers in the region will therefore allow Mr. Fashola to gain a deeper understanding of these issues, how they impact the Balkans, and how they affect US policy in the region.

Ms. Gabrielle Gould, Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Europe, Eurasia, Energy and the Environment, United States House of Representatives

In her role as Staff Director for the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Europe, Eurasia, Energy and the Environment under Subcommittee Chairman Bill Keating (D-MA), Ms. Gould works on the entire spectrum of issues impacting US relations with Europe. The Western Balkans have strategic importance for Europe and are a focal point for cooperation between the United States and its European Union (EU) allies. The meetings and discussions as part of the staff delegation to the region will allow Ms. Gould to gain a deeper, up-to-date understanding of the issues affecting the Balkan countries, learn about cooperation between the United States and the EU on themes such as regional security, institutional reform and in-region capacity building, the path of Western Balkan countries toward NATO and EU membership, and identify opportunities for constructive US engagement. This will directly contribute in educational value to her work on the Subcommittee.

Ms. Christina Mahoney, Legislative Director, Office of Congressman Emanuel Cleaver II (D-MO), United States House of Representatives

As Legislative Director for Congressman Cleaver, Ms. Mahoney manages the Congressman's legislative team and handles foreign affairs, appropriations and budgets, trade, and national security as well as the Congressman's work on the House Subcommittee on National Security, International Development, and Monetary Policy. She also serves as the lead staffer for the Congressman's role as co-chair of the Caucus on Serbia. The focus of the staff delegation on regional security and security challenges in the Balkans, political and economic reform, institution building, and the fight against crime and corruption will directly benefit her deeper understanding of these issues as they relate to US policy toward the region. The meetings and exchanges on the Serbia-Kosovo dialogue designed to resolve the long-standing dispute between both countries, will also allow her to bring back an up-to-date understanding of recent developments and the prospects for an agreement, that will enhance her work on foreign affairs and the Serbia caucus.

12. For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

Atlantic Council – Primary Sponsor

Driven by our mission of “working together to secure the future,” the Atlantic Council promotes constructive leadership and engagement in international affairs based on the Atlantic Community’s central role in meeting global challenges. The Council provides an essential forum for navigating the dramatic economic and political changes defining the twenty-first century in order to adapt, revitalize, and defend the international rules-based order. Through the papers we write, the ideas we generate, and the communities we build, the Council shapes policy choices and strategies to create a more secure and prosperous world.

The Atlantic Council’s Balkans Forward Initiative is a unique, coordinated effort to foster a democratic, secure, and prosperous Western Balkans firmly integrated into the transatlantic community. Our work seeks to reinvigorate US engagement in the region, promote more effective US-European leadership, foster dialogue among key actors across the region, and cultivate a new generation of decision-makers and experts. The Balkans Forward Initiative provides analysis on regional developments, organizes delegations to the region, develops strategy and policy recommendations, and regularly convenes relevant actors and leaders.

The staff delegation visit to the Western Balkans relates directly to both the overall mission of the Atlantic Council and the regional mission of the Balkans Forward Initiative. By building greater awareness and understanding among congressional staff of the challenges and opportunities facing the Western Balkans, the educational purpose of the visit is intended to support informed US policy toward the region. This directly advances and underpins the Atlantic Council’s mission of promoting constructive US engagement and leadership in global affairs. Through dialogue with government officials and civil society representatives in Western Balkan countries on their NATO and European Union membership perspectives, the program will also complement the Council’s focus on Euro-Atlantic cooperation, both at a global and a regional level.

The visit will further the Balkans Forward Initiative’s intentional objective of cultivating new thought leaders on the Balkans by fostering the next generation of experts on Southeastern Europe, which today has become the mainstay of experts and former decision-makers that experienced the wars of the 1990s first-hand. By helping to building up expertise and understanding of key regional issues among a new generation of decision-makers, the staff delegation also helps to lay the groundwork for continued and reinvigorated US engagement in the region in the future.

The Atlantic Council is the sole organizer of the congressional staff delegation visit to the Western Balkans. The Council will identify participants for the staff delegation, request and secure meetings with counterparts in the four countries, and implement all aspects of the visit, including meeting requests and program coordination, planning accommodation and transportation, implementing on-the-ground logistics, preparing briefings, and other details.

Rockefeller Brothers Fund – “Grantmaking Sponsor”

For over 75 years, the Rockefeller Brothers Fund (the Fund) has supported social change that seeks to build a more just, sustainable and peaceful interdependent world. Our long history also informs our future: through cooperation, collaboration, and leveraging our philanthropic resources, we embrace new solutions to problems that threaten our common humanity.

The Fund believes philanthropy has an essential role to play in addressing some of society’s largest challenges. Our grantmaking programs are devoted to supporting solutions to climate change, advancing a vital and inclusive democracy, peacebuilding, and supporting a vibrant and inclusive arts community in our home city of New York. In addition, in the pivotal places of China and the Western Balkans, we pursue certain program goals in region-specific contexts.

We are a private, family foundation established in 1940 by the sons of John D. Rockefeller, Jr. who sought to pool the power of their giving, and were later joined by their elder sister. Three successive generations of Rockefeller family members have provided exceptional leadership and assured effective governance while also inviting participation from distinguished non-family trustees.

The Fund has been engaged in grantmaking in the Western Balkans since 2001. At that time, in light of the region’s long history of instability and the recent conclusion of the Balkan wars of the 1990s, the prospect of a peaceful, democratic, and prosperous Europe hinged, in part, on the Balkans’ successful transition to a post-Communist and post-conflict era. During its first years in the Western Balkans, the Fund’s grantmaking aimed to nurture healthy democratic processes, support regional initiatives to debunk persistent myths and prejudices, and encourage development of a vibrant civil society. The Fund’s work in the Western Balkans, and especially in Serbia, Montenegro, Kosovo, and Bosnia and Herzegovina, builds on its 20-year past experience in Central and Eastern Europe, supporting transition processes and helping to create conditions for their accession to the European Union.

The Fund focuses on Serbia, Montenegro, Kosovo, and Bosnia and Herzegovina to help them complete the process of integration into the EU. The interdependence among the countries, common challenges they face, and the potential they possess together as a subregion of the European Union present a unique opportunity for successful integration. The Fund supports civil society initiatives that advance collaboration and enhance the capacity for sustainable development and enduring peace in the region.

The Fund has made a grant to the Atlantic Council’s Balkans Forward Initiative to support its work related to the Western Balkans, with the understanding that parts of that funding may be used to support a Congressional staff visit to the region. The Fund is not involved in any way in organizing, implementing, or directing the staff delegation and did not participate in the selection of members of the delegation. At the end of the grant period in October 2019, the Fund requires the Atlantic Council to provide a grant report about the use of the funds made available through the grant to ensure that the funds have been used in accordance with the terms of the grant.

15. I represent that: The trip involves events that are arranged specifically with regard to congressional participation:

1. Detail the cost per day of meals

The Atlantic Council uses the official Federal Government per diem rates as a point of orientation in planning all meals for this staff visit.

For Tirana, we will remain within the per head maximum meal rate of $86 per day.

For Belgrade, we expect to remain below the $89 maximum rate for meals per day.

For Budva, we expect to remain well within the $81 maximum rate for meals per day in Montenegro.

2. Provide the reason for selecting the location of the event or trip

Tirana, the capital of Albania, was selected to allow for meetings with Albanian government officials and civil society representatives. Albania as a full NATO member, but as an EU accession candidate faces unique challenges, including tackling difficult political and economic reforms. Meetings in Tirana will provide the staff delegation valuable insights into the Euro-Atlantic integration processes and its complexity, especially given the current political flux in the country.

Belgrade, the capital of Serbia, has been selected to allow for meetings with Serbian government officials and civil society representatives. Serbia maintains complex relations with the United States, the European Union, and its historical ally Russia. The country is also directly involved in a long-lasting dispute with Kosovo and has Serbian minority populations in neighboring countries that impact its regional and international relations. The current government is officially committed to a reform agenda, including a solution to the dispute with Kosovo, but also faces significant opposition at home. Given Belgrade's regional importance, the meetings with Serbian officials and societal actors will not only provide an important counterpart to the earlier dialogue in Pristina, but also offer new insights for the visiting staffers into US-Serbia relations, the country's progress as an EU candidate, and the role of other foreign actors.

Budva, in Montenegro, is the location of the To Be Secure (2BS) Forum, which will take place from May 30 through June 1, 2019. The 9th 2BS Forum is a high-level international conference and a flagship event of the Atlantic Council of Montenegro, which each year brings together political leaders, senior government officials, think tank experts, and other thought leaders from across the Western Balkans, Europe, and the United States. As such, the Forum offers many opportunities for bilateral meetings with senior government officials, especially with leaders from those Balkan countries which the group will not visit. Meetings with Montenegro's political leadership but also government representatives from North Macedonia are being requested for the delegation. This year, the conference will focus on the so-called "return of geopolitics" to the region as a result of growing influence of Russia, China, and Turkey; the 70th Anniversary of NATO; and the need for US and European engagement and political investment in a new framework for the Western Balkans. Through its diverse sessions and discussions, the programming at the conference will therefore further advance the educational objectives of the visit to raise awareness and build deeper expertise among the congressional staff participants about regional challenges and opportunities as well as the need for US involvement and transatlantic cooperation in the region.

16. Name, nightly cost, and reasons for selecting each hotel or other lodging facility:

The Atlantic Council uses the official Federal Government per diem rates as a point of orientation in planning all accommodation for this staff visit.

Requests for quotes on group rates are pending for most hotels and are likely to reduce the good faith estimates based on initial research on rates:

The Plaza has been selected for Tirana because of its central location, allowing easy access to government ministries for meetings. It is one of the few hotels with international standards in Tirana. The estimated rate at the Plaza is $160.

The Metropol Palace has been selected for its central location in Belgrade, which allows easy access to meetings at government ministries and cuts down on local transportation needs. The estimated rate at the Metropole Palace is $140.

The Hotel Splendid has been selected because it is the main conference hotel of the To Be Secure Forum and the main site of the conference. Staying at the Hotel Splendid will eliminate the need for ground transportation for the group and allow easy access to the conference and bilateral meetings. There is also only a very limited number of hotels with international standards in Budva. The estimated rate at the Hotel Splendid is $180.
