August 8, 2019

Ms. Maria Martirosyan
Office of the Honorable Jimmy Gomez
1530 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Martirosyan:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Altoona, Dubuque, and Waterloo, Iowa, scheduled for August 12 to 15, 2019, sponsored by Iowa Renewable Fuels Association, the National Biodiesel Foundation, the Renewable Fuels Foundation, the Iowa Corn Growers Association, the Iowa Soybean Association, the Iowa Biodiesel Board, the Missouri Corn Growers Association, the North Dakota Ethanol Council, the Nebraska Corn Board, Renew Kansas, the Farm Credit Services of America, Renewable Fuels Nebraska, the Kansas Soybean Association, the Kansas Corn Growers Association, the Ames Chamber of Commerce, the Iowa Biotechnology Association, Big River Resources, and Western Dubuque Biodiesel.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch
Chairman

12. For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

Please Note: The sponsors are paying for all expenses associated with the Biofuels Tour.

Iowa Renewable Fuels Association: brings together Iowa ethanol and biodiesel producers to foster the development and growth of the state's renewable fuels industry through education, promotion and infrastructure development. IRFA is committed to making Iowa a leader in producing renewable fuels and value-added co-products; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as host/presenter on the tour.

National Biodiesel Foundation: supports and promotes outreach, education, science, and demonstration activities for the advancement of biodiesel and its co-products to improve national security, air quality and the environment; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as a presenter on the tour.

Renewable Fuels Foundation: seeks to meet the education, research, and strategic planning needs of the U.S. fuel ethanol industry; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as a presenter on the tour.

Iowa Corn Growers Association: a membership organization supporting agricultural issues on behalf of its members, ICGA's mission is to create opportunities for long term Iowa corn grower profitability; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as a contributor on the tour.

Iowa Soybean Association: a membership organization recognized for excellence in enhancing long term sustainability of Iowa soybean farmers. ISA's mission is to expand opportunities and deliver results for Iowa soybean farmers; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as a contributor on the tour.

Iowa Biodiesel Board: represents the biodiesel industry in Iowa, from production through distribution to end users. The IBB promotes the commercial success of biodiesel in Iowa; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as a contributor on the tour.

Missouri Corn Growers Association: a membership organization supporting agricultural issues on behalf of its members, has contributed to planning the tour, identified invitees and will serve as a contributor on the tour.

North Dakota Ethanol Council: brings together ethanol producers in North Dakota to help grow production and demand for ethanol, has contributed to planning the tour and identified invitees.

Renew Kansas: brings together ethanol producers in Kansas to help grow production and demand for ethanol, has contributed to planning the tour, identified invitees and will serve as a contributor on the tour.

Nebraska Corn Board works to support agricultural issues on behalf of its members, including promoting the production and use of renewable fuels, and supports the Tour because growing value-added markets like biofuels vital to their members' future, has contributed to planning the tour by identifying invitees to attend the tour.

Farm Credit Services of America: a mission-driven financial cooperative serving farmers, ranchers and rural Americans that finances renewable energy projects and has an overall concern regarding the economic health of rural America; has contributed to planning the tour and identified invitees.

Renewable Fuels Nebraska: brings together ethanol producers in Nebraska to help grow production and demand for ethanol; has contributed to planning the tour and identified invitees.

Kansas Soybean Association: serves as the voice and advocate for soybean-farmer-members, including expanding public awareness of the soybean markets; has contributed to planning the tour, identified invitees and will serve as a contributor on the tour.

Kansas Corn Growers Association: actively works with other commodity and farm organizations to maximize the voice of Kansas corn producers for the promotion and market development of ethanol and other value-added products made from corn, has contributed to planning the tour, and they also identified invitees from Kansas for the Tour.

Ames Chamber of Commerce: strives to make Ames a better place to live, work, and do business by strengthening the economic vitality and the quality of life in the Ames community; has contributed to planning the tour, and will serve as a contributor on the tour.

Iowa Biotechnology Association: the Iowa Biotechnology Association unifies more than Iowa's bioscience industry, academic research institutions and economic development organizations; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as a contributor on the tour.

Big River Resources: a locally controlled business enterprise providing farmers and local investors with the chance to extract added value through ownership of an ethanol processing plant; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as a presenter on the tour.

Western Dubuque Biodiesel: a locally controlled business enterprise providing farmers and local investors with the chance to extract added value through ownership of a biodiesel processing plant; has contributed to planning the tour and will serve as a presenter on the tour.
