Dear Colleague:

It is our pleasure to invite you to join The Congressional Study Groups’ third annual weekend colloquium for Congressional Chiefs of Staff.

2019 Chiefs of Staff Colloquium:
US-Asia Relations in Transition - What are the Challenges Ahead
Friday, December 6th to Sunday, December 8th in Baltimore, Maryland

The critical importance of the U.S.-Japan alliance and Indo-Pacific relationship is highlighted on a daily basis. In the news are the North Korean military threat, our trade differences with China, TTP11 without the United States, and Japanese and South Korean substantial investments in the U.S., creating thousands of new jobs. The importance of the Indo-Pacific region is growing and strengthening our alliances, on both the strategic/security and trade fronts, are more critical than ever.

Given the changing relationship with our historical allies and trading partners we are excited to invite you to our 3rd annual Weekend Colloquium for Senior Congressional Staff in Baltimore, MD. We will be bringing a bipartisan group of senior staff, focusing on Chiefs of Staff of the new Members of the 116th Congress, whose committee and legislative focus includes international trade and security policy. The group will be meeting with about a dozen experts on Asia, to take a "deep dive" into the issues impacting the region and how the United States interacts with it. Past experts include the following: Bonnie Glaser, from CSIS, Wendy Cutler, former Acting U.S. Trade Representative, Jim Schoff, from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and David Nakamura, from the Washington Post.

Our discussions over two full days will be facilitated by a variety of experts from the academic, media, diplomatic, and businesses communities, and we are expecting an engaging and informative exchange in an intimate setting. Not only do we hope this session will be an educational opportunity, we also hope that you and your colleagues will benefit from this chance to engage in candid policy exchanges across the aisle.

Some topics that will be covered include:
- Asian domestic politics and challenges (Japan, Korean Peninsula, China, ASEAN, India)
- Security (defense cooperation, counterelectivism, North Korea)
- Regional trade framework post-TTP (Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership, TTP11, bilateral FDI)
- Future of U.S. engagement in Asia

For more than 30 years, the Congressional Study Groups have conducted successful, high-level, discussion-driven study tours for Members of Congress and senior congressional staff, which complement an active calendar of year-round programs on Capitol Hill. Fervently non-partisan and non-advocacy, our model promotes an active, substantive discussion among all principals. Our model avoids lengthy speeches or formal presentations that hinder the development of lasting working relationships based on mutual respect and understanding.
All lodging and scheduled meal costs will be paid for by the U.S. Association of Former Members of Congress (FMC), a congressionally-chartered, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, with the support of the Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA. A shuttle bus from Capitol Hill and back to the venue will be provided. This program constitutes privately-sponsored travel and will be submitted to the Ethics Committee for approval. This invitation is non-transferrable, and participation is available on a first-come, first-served basis for a diverse, bipartisan group of about a dozen Chiefs of Staff.

We look forward to hearing from you, and thank you in advance for your consideration.

Best,

Sabine Schleidt
