Dear Ms. Dubad:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Queenstown, Maryland, scheduled for December 13, 2019, sponsored by Aspen Institute, Inc., with financial support from the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation and the Democracy Fund.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch

About Socrates

The Aspen Institute Socrates Program provides a forum for emerging leaders from various professions to convene and explore contemporary issues through expert-moderated dialogue. Socrates also provides the opportunity for participants to enter into a diverse professional network, and into the broader range of the Aspen Institute's programs.

Socrates seminars enable participants to explore current, pressing leadership challenges. Discussions are built around contemporary texts, and are led by expert moderators who engage and encourage participants to share their views. Seminars are designed to be values-based Socratic explorations to facilitate an exchange of ideas. At the core of Socrates is a remarkable group of emerging and recognized leaders including entrepreneurs, venture capitalists, representatives of government, international, nonprofit and non-governmental organizations, academics and journalists. Participants are provided ample time for interaction, relationship-building and outdoor activities outside the seminars.

Socrates programs include:

Flagship Winter and Summer Seminars in Aspen, CO

Drawing more than 180 leaders annually, every President's Day weekend (February) and the first Friday following the end of the Aspen Ideas Festival the Socrates Program organizes 8 seminars (3 in the Winter; 5 in the summer) at the Aspen Institute's Meadows campus in Aspen, CO.

Socrates Salons

Leveraging the geographic diversity of the Socrates Society, program staff work with alums and partner organizations like the Chicago Council on Global Affairs, New Orleans Business Alliance, and Hunter College (NYC) to bring one day seminars (Salons) to a handful of cities across the USA.

Inclusive Republic Summit Series

Focusing on small and medium-sized cities, this seminar series focuses on founding documents and letters from some of America's great leaders to help civically-engaged leaders to engage in the same type of debates that our founders did in the first 20 years of our nation's founding. Participants leave these one-day events with more questions about American history and respect for the diversity of the readings that expose the textured history of our 242 year old democratic Republic.

International Socrates Seminars

Each international seminar has on average participation from five countries, including US participants, who often help accelerate the dialogue in countries unfamiliar with Socratic dialogue. In each international location, our partners also provide a public event with the US-based moderator to expose more people to the topic.

Emerging Governance Leaders Series

The Socrates Program has created an annual series of Socratic seminars for Congressional staff, focused on Article 1, Section 1 of the US Constitution. Reaching up to 100 Congressional staffers per year, these expertly-moderated seminars will take place at Aspen's Wye River campus.

Re: The Aspen Institute 2019 Socrates Program Emerging Governance Leaders Seminar

Dear Chairman Deutch,

This letter is submitted in connection with The Aspen Institute 2019 Socrates Program Emerging Governance Leaders Seminar, to which House of Representatives staff have been invited. We understand that the Committee on Ethics, which is charged with reviewing and approving privately-funded, officially-connected travel by Members and staff of the House, may consider the Foundation to be a "source" of funds associated with The Aspen Institute's study trips that must be identified under House rules.

The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation (the "Foundation"), a non-profit foundation established in 1967, made a grant to The Aspen Institute to support the Socrates Program and its Emerging Governance Leaders Seminar series (Grant #2018-8044). Please note that the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation is aware of the study trips, the participants, and the agenda. However, there is no agreement, written or oral, between the Foundation and The Aspen Institute whereby the Foundation may direct the activities of the Socrates Program, including the conduct of the study trips, or cause the selection of any invited congressional participant. The Aspen Institute exercises control over that selection process and makes the selection completely independent from the Foundation.

Furthermore, please note that the Foundation is not a registrant under the Federal Lobbying Disclosure Act ("LDA"), does not retain or employ a registered federal lobbyist to lobby on its behalf, and has not received funds from any lobbyist or LDA registrant. Moreover, the Foundation has not accepted any source funds earmarked for The Aspen Institute or any congressional travel.

If we can provide any additional information, please contact me at 650-234-4771 or ktsadick@hewlett.org.

Sincerely,

Kristy Tsadick

Fireside Chat

"Life & Lessons in Congress"

A conversation with William Hoagland, Bipartisan Policy Center Senior Vice President and Lorelei Kelly, Fellow-In-Residence at the Georgetown University Beeck Center for Social Impact + Innovation

Conversation will cover the personal and professional realities of pursuing a career as a congressional staffer and juxtapose them with the larger implications of representing congress, focusing on how congress's role as the interlocutor of the American people, particularly in the digital age, is evolving, and with it the roles and responsibilities of its staff.

Moderated by Cordell Carter, Socrates Program Director
