Office of the Honorable Tim Ryan
The Honorable Tim Ryan
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Zetts:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Israel,¹ scheduled for February 14 to 22, 2020, sponsored by Rebuilding Alliance.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $390 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $390] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Congressional Staff Del Leadership Learning Mission to Jerusalem and the West Bank

With financial support provided by Rebuilding Alliance, an American 501(c)3 organization and the Rotary Club of Woodside/Portola Valley Foudation (also a 501(c)3 org)
February 14-22nd, 2020
Detailed Agenda

MISSION GOALS: The overall goal of this Leadership Learning Mission is to explore how the peaceful aspirations of all can be furthered when Palestinians and Israelis both enjoy the benefits of equal rights, and how U.S. policy and aid can support those aspirations.

RELEVANCE TO OFFICIAL DUTIES: The Leadership Learning Mission offers Congressional foreign policy staff the opportunity to further their understanding of this region of the world and to better understand the implications of American policies in the region. This fact-finding trip will:

- Provide participants with an understanding of the history of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict leading to the current conditions;
- Consider the implications and impact of Israeli control of building and planning rights in Jerusalem and the West Bank and explore successful ways to prevent the demolition of Palestinian homes, schools, and neighborhoods;
- Visit public, private, and U.N. schools in West Jerusalem, East Jerusalem, and the West Bank to understand the challenges they are facing and learn about joint efforts to address those challenges; and
- Show what the termination of all US aid means for the health and education of Palestinian children.

LOCATION: The purpose of travel to Jerusalem and the West Bank is to give Congressional Foreign policy staff the opportunity to see the evolving facts on the ground and to attend on-site meetings, where possible, to hear from Palestinians and Israelis working to safeguard human rights.

OF NOTE: This is an accompaniment tour in which Congressional staff are joined by constituents. Green Olive Collective is the tour operator selected by Rebuilding Alliance to implement this agenda.

		Sunday, Feb. 16th: West Jerusalem, East Jerusalem, and Greater Jerusalem

9:00	9:30	Transportation by minibus to Jerusalem, Haas Promenade, view point over Jerusalem.
9:30	10:00	Overview of Jerusalem's evolvement as a center point in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, including the 1948 Green Line, the 1967 conquests, East Jerusalem and West Bank annexations, Jewish neighborhoods/settlements, Palestinian neighborhoods, and discussion of civil status in the city of Jerusalem.
		This presentation is relevant to the mission of the trip and the Congressional Staff's official duties because it is providing the Staff with the base of information that they will need and draw upon throughout the remainder of the trip.
		Presenter: Itamar Shapira, LLM tour leader from Green Olive Tours
		Location: Jerusalem's Haas Promenade, Daniel Yanofsky Street, Jerusalem, Israel
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
10:00	10:30	Transportation by minibus to Sieff & Marks Middle and High School
		As we travel, our speaker will provide an overview of Principal's Letter about Issawiya, a neighborhood of East Jerusalem. This is a substantive presentation that advances the mission of trip by introducing a key initiative put forward by educators.
		Presenter: Donna Baranski-Walker, Exec. Director of Rebuilding Alliance
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
10:30	10:50	Participants will have a guided tour of this West Jerusalem school, the first of five school tours on our trip. This tour is useful to Congressional Staff because it provides a first-hand understanding of similarities and differences between the West Jerusalem and East Jerusalem schools, and offers them the opportunity to ask questions of a principal who is working to bridge the divide.
		Tour Guide: Yoram Haim, Principal
		Location: Sieff & Marks Middle and High School, Herzl Blvd 137 Jerusalem

10:50	11:50	Discussion with the Principal, staff, and students. Discussion will include an overview of the "Principals Together - Jerusalem Schools Connect for Learning" program and will focus on the August 30th letter in which 41 Jerusalem administrators who are members of that program, requested the personal intervention of the Mayor of Jerusalem "so that the children in the Issawiya neighborhood can reach their schools with confidence and peace as all the children of Jerusalem."
		This presentation is relevant to the mission of the trip and the Congressional Staff's official duties because it provides a strong base of information regarding both a program that the principal is a part of that focuses on one particular well-considered request for intervention on behalf of an East Jerusalem neighborhood and also a number of programs that the school is part of, that advance the peaceful aspirations of all.
		Presenter: Yoram Haim, Principal and the staff and students of the Sieff & Marks Middle and High School
		Location: Sieff & Marks Middle and High School, Herzl Blvd 137 Jerusalem
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
11:50	12:50	Transportation by minibus to Khan al Ahmar village via a drive that will have the stopping points at (1) a lookout point over the E1 and Maale Adumim settlement enclave, (2) a lookout point over Issawiya village that became part of annexed East Jerusalem in 1967 and (3) a lookout point over Shuafat Refugee Camp, which also became part of East Jerusalem, yet it is separated from it physically by the Separation Wall.
		One hour of the entire drive is a substantive presentation that will provide Congressional staff with the basis from which to better understand the new U.S. policy declaring Israel's settlements to be legal and the impact of that policy on an evolving campaign within Israel to annex portions of the West Bank and E. Jerusalem. They will have received maps in their information packet and this presentation will allow them to see some of places described on their maps and hear about the history of those places.
		Presenter: Itamar Shapira, LLM tour leader from Green Olive Tours
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
12:50	13:20	Tour of the famous Khan al Ahmar Tyre School. This is the second of five schools we will visit on our trip. The Tyre School serves 150 children from four villages yet demolition orders have been issued to this and most Palestinian schools in Area C.
		This tour offers Congressional Staff a first-hand understanding of similarities and differences between the Jerusalem schools and this school in the West Bank's Area C (the 62% of the West Bank temporarily administered by the Israeli military, per the Oslo Accords).
		Tour Guide: Eid Jahalin, Spokesperson for Khan Al Ahmar
		Location: The Tyre School, Khan al Ahmar Village
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
13:20	13:30	Short walk to the tent where lunch is served. Lunch will be prepared by Khan al Ahmar Women's Association, and served by young men of the village. Joining us for lunch is Rabbi Jeremy Milgrom, an early member of Rabbis for Human Rights who is a good friend of the Bedouin who live in this area, and Angela Godfrey Goldstein, co-director of the non-governmental organization, Jahalin Solidarity.

13:30	14:00	An overview of the village's situation, including the history of the village and time for Q/A. In September 2018, the Supreme Court of Israel rejected an appeal by the residents of the village to stop the planned demolition of their village. Without fair consideration of the village's own master plan, the Supreme Court decision approved demolition of the village and the forced relocation of its residents. This presentation will describe the history of the village and their values. With the help of professional planning services provided by an Israeli planning group, the village developed their own master zoning plan the presentation will show how the village's why allowing the village to build their future in accordance with their own zoning plan would be beneficial to all both in the village and for the neighbors too.
		This presentation is important because Congressional staff will begin to learn what this community values, the impact that forced relocation would have on them.
		Presenter: Eid Jahalin, Spokesperson for Khan Al Ahmar
		Location: Visitor's tent, Khan al Ahmar Village
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
14:00	14:15	A rabbi's personal perspective on his own commitment to Al Khan Al Ahmar and the diverse communities that have come together to defend the rights of the families who live there.
		This presentation will help Congressional staff understand a commitment that stretches across boundaries.
		Presenter: Rabbi Jeremy Milgrom
		Location: Visitor's tent, Khan al Ahmar Village
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
14:00	14:45	Overview of Bedouin issues, especially relating to displacement of Bedouin in the Jerusalem Periphery using maps, and discussion of worldwide advocacy underway to keep Khan Al Ahmar Village not only to stop demolition but to also recognize their master plan.
		This presentation will help Congressional staff understand why the international community views this issue as crucial for keeping options open for peace.
		Presenter: Angela Godfrey Goldstein, co-founder Jahalin Solidarity
		Location: Visitor's tent, Khan al Ahmar Village
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
14:45	15:00	Transportation by minibus up the hill to Kfar Adumim, an Israeli Settlement
15:00	16:00	Discussion with one of the settler-advocates. Kfar Adumim is a mixed religious-secular Israeli settlement in the West Bank. It is located in the Judean Desert, on the southern bank of the Wadi Qelt valley, about 2 miles northeast of the settlement town Ma'ale Adumim, directly above the neighboring Palestinian Bedouin village of Khan al Ahmar.

		This presentation is important because it provides Congressional staff with an in-person introduction to a thoughtful effort by the settlers to care about their neighbors.
		Presenter: Ezra Korman, a resident of Kfar Adumim Settlement and a member of the 'good neighbor' group of settlers
		Location: the park inside the Kfar Adumim Settlement
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.

10:30	12:45	Observation of the court proceedings for cases of Palestinian child prisoners. Military Court Watch (MCW)'s work is guided by the basic principle that children detained by the Israeli military authorities are entitled to all the rights and protections guaranteed under international law. Further, and in accordance with the principle that no State is permitted to discriminate between those over whom it exercises penal jurisdiction, there is no legal justification for treating Palestinian and Israeli children differently under Israel's military and civilian legal systems. In accordance with these principles, MCW advocates, and where appropriate, litigates, to ensure that all children that come in contact with the military legal system are treated fairly and in accordance with the law.
		Because the key goal of this LLM is to explore how the peaceful aspirations of all can be furthered when Palestinians and Israelis both enjoy equal rights, it is important for Congressional staff to observe this separate, unequal form of juvenile justice.
		Tour Guides: Gerard Horton, Military Court Watch
		Location: Ofer Military Court, just outside the Palestinian town of Beitunia

12:45	13:15	Transportation by minibus to Retro restaurant in Beit Hanina, East Jerusalem
13:15	13:30	Lunch at Retro restaurant in Beit Hanina, East Jerusalem
13:30	15:00	Transportation by minibus to Palestinian Susiya, southern Hebron Hills.
15:00	15:15	Overview of the history of the Palestinian village of Susiya. In 2013, the Sub-Committee for Planning and Licensing of the Civil Administration's Supreme Planning Council rejected the village's proposed master plan stating that the "women and children would be better off living somewhere else." In 2015, Israel's High Court decided that the Palestinian Village of Susiya can be demolished before its case is even heard, and the case is still pending. We'll hear their story and learn of their aspirations to see the recognition of their master plan and live and build their future on their land without fear of demolition.
		A key goal of this LLM is to consider the implications and impact of Israeli control of building and planning rights in Jerusalem and the West Bank and explore ways to prevent the demolition of Palestinian homes, schools, barns, and neighborhoods.
		Presenters: Nasser Nawaja, spokesperson of the Village Council
		Location: inside the tent home of the spokesperson for the Palestinian village of Susiya in the South Hebron Hills

15:15	16:15	Walking tour of the Palestinian village of Susiya. Having heard the history of the village and learned their argument for approval of their master plan, it is time to see what the center of the village looks like. In 2016, the Washington Post called this "a ramshackle village with squalid tents" — but that's not because they want to live this way. Though their ownership of their land is not in question, their master plan was denied by the Israeli Civil Administration's Regional Housing Council for spurious reasons and their appeal is still pending before the Israeli High Court. It is important to note that the Regional Housing Council is made up of Israeli settlers without any Palestinian representation, and, also the Oslo Accords state that Israeli Administration of Area C was only temporary, to be transferred to Palestinian administration 18 months after the establishment of the Palestinian Legislative Council.
		Tour guides: Aysar Nawaja (16) and Ahmad Nawaja (11). Both boys have flown to Washington DC to present a briefing to Congress describing what peace means to each of them. Aysar raises ducks, chickens, turkeys, and pigeons and is keenly interested in animal husbandry. Following her meeting with Aysar in 2015, Senator Diane Feinstein began her correspondence with Prime Minister Netanyahu, https://www.feinstein.senate.gov/public/index.cfm/press-releases?ID=2E7437D1-FBA4-4052-B9F6-6EAE38611203 . The Senator wrote, "I fear that a decision to demolish the village and remove families from their own land will be judged as utterly inconsistent with Israel's core values. If Israel retains a desire to be a Jewish, democratic state, it must treat Palestinians with the same dignity and human rights as Israel's citizens."

16:15	18:15	Transportation by minibus, return to The Gloria Hotel
18:15	19:00	Rest at the Gloria Hotel.
19:00	20:00	Supper and debrief at the Gloria Hotel with Rami Elhanan and Bassam Aramin
20:00	22:00	Personal reflections on the loss of one's child to violence. The Parents Circle Families Forum is a grassroots organization of Palestinian and Israeli families who have lost immediate family members due to the conflict. The PCFF operates under the principle that a process of reconciliation is a prerequisite for achieving a sustained peace. The Parents Forum organizes an annual ceremony in Tel Aviv and our guests will describe how that memorial proceeded.
		This presentation is a way for Congressional Staff to understand the immense value of 'third way' diplomacy and explore how U.S. policy and aid can support the peaceful aspirations of both societies.

		Tuesday, Feb. 18th: UNRWA (Shuafat), Issawiya neighborhood, Jerusalem's Old City
7:45	8:45	Breakfast at the Gloria Hotel
8:45	9:15	Transportation by minibus to Shuafat Refugee Camp in East Jerusalem
9:15	10:00	This presentation will describe the scope and scale of UN Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugee (UNRWA)'s food, education, and emergency operations in the West Bank, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, Israel, and Gaza. House staff will learn about the refugee crisis as a whole, and hear of the consequences of President Trump's decision to cut over $300Mil of annual US funding to UNRWA. There will be time for questions and answers.
		A major change in U.S. policy took place in 2018 when the President chose to impound funds allocated by Congress to pay for food, education, and medical care provided by UNRWA to nearly 5.5 million Palestinian refugees. In addition, all funding for Palestinian aid was cut, both for food and medical aid projects implemented by Non-Governmental Organization contractors under contract to USAID, and direct aid to the Palestinian Authority, with the exception of funding for Palestinian security cooperation with Israel in the West Bank. This presentation is relevant to the House staffs' official duties because here they will hear about the significant impact this decision has had for UNRWA in Jerusalem and throughout the region. Recently, the foreign aid spending legislation which passed the House 207-120 and the Senate 71-23 in December, included $75 million in humanitarian and economic aid for the West Bank and Gaza alongside another $75 million for security aid to support the Palestinian Authority (PA), however, it did not reinstate aid to UNRWA.
		Presenter: Allegra Pacheco, Senior Team Leader, Protection and Neutrality Office
		Location: Conference room at Shufat Health Center
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
10:00	10:15	Overview of Shufat Refugee Camp from the roof of Shufat Health Center
		The Shufat Refugee Camp faces serious challenges. This is the only Palestinian refugee camp located inside Jerusalem or any other Israeli-administered area. Residents hold Jerusalem ID's and pay taxes to Israel. In 2012, this refugee camp was cited in a French study as a good example of urban renewal as East Jerusalem businesses began to relocate there. However, in November, 2017, the Jerusalem municipality demolished 18 storefronts and three gas stations in East Jerusalem's Shuafat refugee camp for not having the proper building permits. The demolitions in Shuafat — a refugee camp that lies on the Palestinian side of the Green Line but is in the greater Jerusalem footprint — were the most extensive since the construction of the security fence over a decade ago.
		This presentation is relevant to the House staffs' official duties because this overview will show the proximity of Shuafat to other Jerusalem neighborhoods.
		Presenter: Thaer Jalloud - Chief Area Officer, UNRWA – Jerusalem
		Location: the roof of the Shufat Health Center
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.

10:15	10:45	Protection Briefing: Life under occupation specifically focusing on protection issues for children in and out of school. although this is a Jerusalem neighborhood, city services including community policing and garbage pick-up are minimal.
		This presentation is relevant to the House staffs' official duties because they are required to advise on policy decisions that impact peace and security. How the neighborhood of Shuafat is treated impacts the peace and security of Jerusalem.
		Presenter: Romain Estebe, Protection and Neutrality Officer
		Location: a conference room inside the Shufat Health Center
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
10:45	11:05	Walking tour in the Shufat Refugee Camp, from the health center to the Shuafat Girls' School
		The walking tour will help the travelers gain a sense of what life in an UNRWA-administered refugee camp is like. This can also be a time for one-to-one discussion with the UNRWA staff. This is related to the staffs official duties because U.S. policy is directly and severely impacting the services provided to Palestinian refugee camps.

11:05	11:25	Meeting with the School Parliament (children). This is the third school of five that we plan to visit on the Leadership Learning Mission. This tour is useful to Congressional Staff because it provides them with a first-hand understanding of what UNRWA schools are like, including the challenges they face.
		Facilitator: Thaer Jalloud
		Presenters: The girls who are the elected representatives of their school.
		Location: Shufat Girls' School
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
11:25	11:50	Transportation by minibus to Issawiya Girls Comprehensive School
11:50	12:15	Participants will have a guided tour of the school, the fourth of five schools we will visit on our trip. This tour is useful to Congressional Staff because it provides them with a first-hand understanding of similarities and disparities between the West Jerusalem and East Jerusalem schools, and offers them the opportunity to ask questions.
		Tour Guide: Afaf Kadumi, Principal
12:15	13:15	Discussion with the Principal. Discussion will include an overview of the Parents' Strike and the impact of the August 30th Principals Together letter and subsequent efforts to negotiate a removal of police presence during school hours. Members of the Parents Club may join us for this discussion.

		This presentation is relevant to the mission of the trip and the Congressional Staff's official duties because it examines the response to a particular well-considered effort to provide the same safety and care to children in an East Jerusalem neighborhood as is experienced by all other children in Jerusalem.
		Presenter: Afaf Kadumi, Principal

		A major objective is to provide the Congressional Staff with an understanding of the history of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict leading to the current conditions and any discussion of that history must include the historical sites within the walls of the Old City of Jerusalem.

11:00	13:00	Transportation by minibus to Al Aqaba Village in the north of the Jordan Valley, in the West Bank's Area C
13:15	14:30	Lunch for all prepared by Al Aqaba Rural Women's Association
		Location: Women's Center Room adjacent to the Kindergarten Building
14:30	15:00	Presentation of the history and challenges faced and facing the Palestinian village of Al Aqaba in the West Bank's Jordan Valley in so-called Area C. In 2004, the Israeli Army issued demolition orders against all the homes in Al Aqaba Village and also against the medical clinic, the mosque, and the kindergarten that was built from contributions by hundreds of Americans. In 2008, the Israeli High Court ruled in favor of the village stating that 'for the time-being, the center of the village will remain standing.' In addition to the kindergarten and conference center, the village is home to the Ibn Rush'd Library, a mosque with double minarets in the shape of a peace sign, a tea factory, a cheese factory, and most recently, many new homes built with village-issued building permits, the first in Area C. Israeli, Palestinian, and international peacemaker teams are invited to join us — RSVP's required.
		This presentation will show how a Palestinian village would thrive if their master plan was recognized — Al Aqaba is a great place to see what peace can look like.

		Presenter: Haj Sami Sadek Sbaih, Mayor of Al Aqaba. From 1972 until 2002, Al Aqaba Village was used for live-fire training exercises by the Israeli Army. Mayor Haj Sami Sadeq was 16 years old when he became the first victim of that unfettered training program and has been in a wheelchair since that time. When the shooting happened, Israel provided emergency medical care and rehabilitation for many years within Israel so the mayor speaks fluent Hebrew. He deeply believes that no one, not on any side, should ever experience what has happened to him. He welcomes all who come in peace.
		Location: The Mayor's office on the ground floor of the Kindergarten Building
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
15:00	16:00	Walking tour of Al Aqaba's kindergarten (the 5th school in our series), tea factory, community park, goat cheese factory, and past the homes that were finished without demolition orders. Rebuilding Alliance was instrumental in helping build the kindergarten and in 2011, we organized a design charette to help villagers design and build their own homes. Al Aqaba is the first Palestinian village to provide their own building permits for construction of homes in their village. Rebuilding Alliance worked with the Al Aqaba Housing Cooperative to launch the Rebuilding to Remain home construction finance program, and we crowd-funded affordable loans for the construction of three homes. The people of the village have continue to build in accordance with their village-issued building permits and a remarkable town has taken shape. This tour is relevant to the House staff's official duties because (1) it is important to see what a Palestinian village looks like when the village is allowed to thrive, (2) seeing this will allow House staff to consider how U.S. policy and aid can support the aspirations of Palestinian village who seek to stay on their land by preventing the demolition of Palestinian homes, schools, and neighborhoods, and (3) to hear from this important Palestinian leader who is working to safeguard human rights.

16:00	16:45	Transportation by minibus back to Bardala Village, through the Tayaseer Checkpoint, passing settlement outposts
		Presenters: Dafna Banai who is part of Machsom Watch, will join us on the bus to describe what we will be seeing in the Jordan Valley.
		The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
16:45	17:15	Visit to Bardala to see the Israeli Army's destruction of a water pumping station for the village and its agriculture while installing a pumping station exclusively for settler agriculture within 50 yards of the damaged pump.
		This visit is relevant to the House staff's official duties because it is important for staff to see not only the positive example that Al Aqaba brings forward but also understand the very real challenges of most villages in the Jordan Valley. Bardala is also facing a serious water crisis while the settlement next door is fully green. This is amplified in drought years like 2019. Bardala is receiving demolition orders for building without an unattainable permit. Dafna and her colleagues are called to act as a peaceful presence when Israeli settlers threaten the shepherds and their families.
		Presenters: Dafna Banai who is part of Machsom Watch, will join us on the bus to describe what we will be seeing in the Jordan Valley.

		A key Israeli lawyer for at-risk Palestinian neighborhoods in both E. Jerusalem and Palestinian villages in the West Bank will meet with us to describe his efforts to assert fair rule of law. This is an opportunity for the travelers to ask questions about what we saw earlier in the week: East Jerusalem and Palestinian Area C planning issues, human rights, child detentions. Yesh Din – Volunteers for Human Rights is an Israeli organization registered as a non-profit in Israel. Yesh Din is subject to Israeli law and is served by a volunteer corps and by a professional staff, lawyers and human rights experts. Yesh Din was established in 2005 and has since worked to protect the human rights of Palestinians living under Israeli armed forces' occupation.

10:30	11:30	Presentation: an overview of the challenges facing children and families in Gaza. Since the 1967 occupation of the West Bank and Gaza Strip, Israel's military has developed a complex system of rules and sanctions to control the movement of the 4.5 million Palestinians who live there. The Israeli human rights group, Gisha, whose name means both "access" and "approach," will describe the legal assistance and public advocacy they use to protect the rights of Palestinian residents. Because freedom of movement is a precondition for exercising other basic rights, Gisha's work has a multiplier effect in helping residents of the occupied territories access education, jobs, family members and medical care. This is relevant to the House Staffs' official duties because (1) it is important for them to understand the challenges that ordinary people are facing in Gaza; and (2) because intervention by Congressional offices can overcome barriers and assure calm, health, and safety. Presenter: Tania Hary, Executive Director of the Gisha Legal Center for Freedom of Movement Location: Gisha Office The entirety of allotted time will be covering officially-connected activity.
11:30	13:30	The overall goal of this Leadership Learning Mission is to explore how the peaceful aspirations of all can be furthered when Palestinians and Israelis both enjoy the benefits of equal rights, and how U.S. policy and aid can support those aspirations. Because the World Bank is reporting that the Gaza economy is close to collapse, we want our delegates to hear directly from Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in Gaza and from the UN to learn exactly what "close to collapse means" and to explore what action to take to ameliorate the malnutrition and hopelessness that will grow worse unless something changes. Rebuilding Alliance has worked with NGOs' in Gaza since 2003, many of which are affiliated with the UN Relief and Works Agency for Palestinian Refugees and Palestinian Non-Governmental Organizations. Rebuilding Alliance is currently working with four Palestinian NGOs in our program to send solar-powered lanterns to Gaza's children, and we've precleared and sent 35,600 lanterns through the blockade so far. We want to speak directly with people who live in Gaza. At present, the US Government bars US Government employees from travelling to Gaza, the area where over 2 million Palestinians live. Therefore, we are planning teleconference discussions with UNRWA Gaza Operations Director Matthias Schmale and the Gaza speakers many of whom are associated with Palestinian NGO's in Gaza.

	Israel's blockade of Gaza has continued for 12 years now producing immense suffering among the people who live there. A goal of our LLM is to show what the termination of all US aid means for the health and education of Palestinian children. Though we cannot bring our delegation there, we can talk with those who live there to get their assessment. This is relevant to the staff's official duties because Congress (1) has the ability to ameliorate suffering, (2) can intervene to lift the blockade to allow Gaza exports to reach U.S. markets and (3) can intervene to allow U.S. food to reach Gaza families.
	Here is the list of NGO and UN speakers we are inviting as speakers. In addition, we are inviting Israeli human rights activists and writer, Amos Gvirtz , to make an introduction and to stay with us to listen to the Gaza presenters. Amos' book, Don't Say We Didn't Know , is formulated with the understanding that on both sides of the Israeli – Palestinian conflict there are people who want the same thing: peace and protection of human rights.
