QUESTION 12

About GlobalWIN

With Honorary Co-Chairs Senators Shelley Moore Capito (R-WV) and Maggie Hassan (D-NH) and Congresswomen Cathy McMorris Rodgers (WA-05), Debbie Wasserman Schultz (FL-23), and Chrissy Houlahan (PA-06), GlobalWIN is a bipartisan nonprofit organization based in Washington, DC that provides a dynamic forum for women who are passionate about innovation. We have built and continue to expand this powerful network of executives and thought leaders in academia, government, and business, who work in innovation-driven fields. GlobalWIN provides an important forum for female leaders to grow personally and professionally, while contributing to key policy debates.

GlobalWIN highlights women leaders and connects the public and private sector through our programming that includes networking receptions, policy roundtables, career workshops, and educational trips in the United States and abroad.

GLOBALWIN PROGRAMMING

GlobalWIN highlights the important role of women in innovation through our programming. Each year, we host 40+ in-person and virtual panels, salon dinners, workshops, receptions, and trips centered around three programming silos:

1. GlobalWIN Innovation Events: GlobalWIN works with our partners to feature leaders in government and business who have made significant contributions in innovation-driven fields to educate our network on policy issues and strategies for addressing those issues.
2. Career Development: GlobalWIN provides opportunities and support for women at all levels of their careers through continuing education workshops and opportunities. GlobalWIN works with executive coaches and experts to bring thoughtful and strategic trainings to our network.
3. Global Partnership Building: GlobalWIN builds partnerships with like-minded groups in the U.S. and abroad and aims to foster collaboration among women on the key issues related to innovation, technology, and economic growth. GlobalWIN has brought congressional staff and its members all over the world, including Brussels, the U.K., Paris, and Berlin, to showcase the work that our allies do globally.

GlobalWIN will touch on all three of its programming silos by hosting this trip to New York, NY. More specifically, this trip will bring together a group of bipartisan House staff that work on issues related to telecom, commerce, judiciary, and innovation for an overnight stay. During 24 hours of programming, our delegation will discuss important policy issues related to their field of work by participating in roundtables, expert panels, and learning more about the overall industry impact of innovation and rapidly evolving technology. GlobalWIN's House Staff Delegation will interact with companies at the forefront of innovation, female leaders of industry, and other senior executives. Our Delegation will discuss policy issues throughout the trip, connect with peers from across the aisle, fostering an atmosphere of bipartisanship, cooperation and personal network-building.

GlobalWIN is organizing and financially supporting all aspects of this trip, including all travel logistics, meetings, speakers, and panel discussions throughout the hours of official programming. GlobalWIN is the sole organizing and financial sponsor of this trip.

Question 15-2

As anchor for commerce, innovation and entrepreneurial activity, and proximity to Washington, D.C., New York City is the natural choice for an overnight trip to discuss issues around innovation, such as telecommunications, financial technology, smart cities, cybersecurity and innovative branding and marketing.
