

EMPLOYEE POST-TRAVEL DISCLOSURE FORM Original Amendment

This form is for disclosing the receipt of travel expenses from private sources for travel taken in connection with official duties. This form does not eliminate the need to report privately-funded travel on the annual Financial Disclosure Statements of those employees required to file them. In accordance with House Rule 25, clause 5, you must complete this form and file it with the Clerk of the House, by email at gifttravelreports@mail.house.gov, within 15 days after travel is completed. Please do not file this form with the Committee on Ethics.

NOTE: Willful or knowing misrepresentations on this form may be subject to criminal prosecution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1001.

PRIMARY TRIP SPONSOR FORM ADDENDUM

Question 4: Provide names and titles of ALL House Members and employees you are inviting. For each House invitee, provide an explanation of why the individual was invited (include additional pages if necessary):

See attached invitation list. This Congressional Institute sponsored retreat focuses on the important roles of Legislative Directors and Communications staff in congressional offices. Therefore, the invitation to this retreat is being extended to legislative directors and the most senior communications staffer in House Republican personal offices and committee offices as well as policy and communication staff in leadership offices.

Question 12: For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

The purpose of the Congressional Institute (a 501(c)4 organization) is to promote public education about Congress and to hold educational conferences for Members of Congress, staff and others. The Congressional Institute is the sole organizer and conductor of this event. The Congressional Institute is dedicated to helping Congressional offices better serve their constituents and to otherwise support and further the Member's legislative and representational roles. Legislative Directors and Communications Directors play essential parts in these, and other important aspects and functions, of personal, committee, and leadership offices. This retreat is designed to strengthen professional relationships among Legislative Directors and senior Communications staff, educate them on policy issues and best practices, and encourage the exchange of ideas with colleagues.

Question 18: Total expenses for each participant:

The estimated lodging rate and per participant food/refreshment expense figure for this event (and provided on this form) do not include the separate costs to the Congressional Institute to rent conference/banquet space large enough to accommodate this large event with appropriate audio/visual capabilities necessary to conduct our program. Dividing these conference and banquet room rental costs by the number of participants estimated to attend this event, the estimated figure would be $323.

Dear Ms. Ziegler:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, scheduled for October 13 to 15, 2021, sponsored by Congressional Institute.

This approval represents the Committee's determination that the proposed trip complies with relevant House rules, federal laws, and Travel Regulations promulgated by the Committee. You should engage in your own assessment of the risks and implications of engaging in travel during the current COVID-19 pandemic.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $415 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2021!!!

Dear /fname/,

The Congressional Institute is once again honored to host the annual 2021 Legislative and Communication Directors Conference, from Wednesday, October 13, 2021, through Friday, October 15, 2021, at the Kingsmill in Williamsburg, VA. We hope you will join us.

This invitation is being extended to legislative directors and the most senior communications staffer in Republican House personal offices, committee offices, and leadership staff. The conference is designed to strengthen professional relationships, educate you on policy issues and best practices, and encourage productive conversations with your colleagues.

Please note that this conference is limited to two staff members from each personal and committee office: one person from the legislative shop and one person from the communications/press shop.

To Register:

Step 1: Submit Ethics Packet by Monday, September 13, 2021

To comply with House rules, you need pre-authorization from the Committee on Ethics. Download the Institute's Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form and submit the whole package with your completed Traveler Form by Monday, September 13, 2021, to the Committee on Ethics. This entire package may be faxed to the Committee at (202) 225-7392, sent or delivered to the Committee at 1015 Longworth, or e-mailed to travel.requests@mail.house.gov.

Failure to submit your completed materials on time means we will be unable to cover the cost of your attendance and the cost would need to be covered by your Member's principal campaign committee funds.

Additionally, you must file a travel disclosure statement with the Clerk of the House within 15 days of your return.

Step 2: Register with the Congressional Institute's website

The Congressional Institute will coordinate all logistical arrangements, including room reservations, meals, group transportation and meetings during the conference. The Institute will cover the cost of participation for each staff member and spouse. You are welcome to bring your children, though you will be responsible for the costs of their participation. All reservations must be made through the Institute.

Subject: Ethics Travel Approval - Congressional Institute; Williamsburg; 10/13/21

Date: Tuesday, October 12, 2021 at 8:50:18 AM Eastern Daylight Time

From: Travel Requests

CC: Travel Requests, Wambold, Adam, Cohan, Melanie

Good Morning,

This email is to confirm that the Committee on Ethics has approved your request to accept privately-sponsored, officially connected travel to Williamsburg, Virginia, scheduled to begin on October 13, 2021, sponsored by the Congressional Institute.

If your plans change and you do not actually accept this trip, please let us know at your earliest convenience by emailing travel.requests@mail.house.gov. You must notify the Committee if you withdraw from the trip.

Due to the large size of this trip, this is a blanket email to inform all approved travelers that they may accept this trip. This email does not contain the official, personalized approval letter that each traveler will need for post-travel filing. The official letter, signed by the Chairman and Ranking Member, will be forthcoming by email in the coming days. You will need that letter, not this email, to properly file post-travel paperwork with the Clerk's office.

If you have not received the personalized approval letter by the time you need to file post-travel paperwork, please travel.requests@mail.house.gov and we will re-send you an electronic copy.

Thank you,

Adam Wambold
