Mr. Adam Magary
Office of the Honorable Michael Cloud
512 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Magary:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your and your Spouse’s proposed trip to Warrenton, Virginia, scheduled for October 29 to 31, 2021, sponsored by Faith and Law Project, and The Clapham Group.

This approval represents the Committee’s determination that the proposed trip complies with relevant House rules, federal laws, and Travel Regulations promulgated by the Committee. You should engage in your own assessment of the risks and implications of engaging in travel during the current COVID-19 pandemic.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $415 from a single source on the “Travel” schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.
If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee’s Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch
Chairman

  - Todd Deatherage, Telos, moderator
  - Mark Rodgers, Clapham Group, moderator

7:30 - 9:00pm Evening Session
- 7:30 – 9:00pm Navigating the Times (Cancel Culture vs. Principled Pluralism): The environment for debate has become more difficult to navigate due to the ability of organizations and social media to restrict free expression. This session will discuss the challenges and the need for ongoing free exchange of ideas for the future health of the American experiment.
  - Stephanie Summers, The Center for Public Justice, presenter
  - Cherie Harder, Trinity Forum, response

Saturday, October 30
8:00am Breakfast

9:00 - 11:30am Morning Session
- 9:00 – 10:15am Approximate Justice: Embedded in the American Experience is the balance of power and the legislative process that requires compromise to result in progress; therefore, it is a given that compromise is necessary. This session will explore how one determines when principles overline process from prudential policy to fundamental principles of one’s convictions.
  - Steve Garber, author, presenter
  - Stephanie Summers, The Center for Public Justice, response

- 10:15 – 11:30am Being Anti-Racist; Reviewing Critical Race Theory: The reality of ongoing systemic racial injustice has exposed a need to evaluate systems which require reform to address intentional racial bias; Critical Race Theory is one of those frameworks which has been proposed. We will discuss the broad issues of racial injustice and help staff understand the complexities, pros, and cons of Critical Race Theory.
