Mr. Bradley Howard
Office of the Honorable Stephanie N. Murphy
1710 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Howard:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Middleburg, Virginia, scheduled for November 12 to 14, 2021, sponsored by Center Forward.

This approval represents the Committee's determination that the proposed trip complies with relevant House rules, federal laws, and Travel Regulations promulgated by the Committee. You should engage in your own assessment of the risks and implications of engaging in travel during the current COVID-19 pandemic.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $415 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

12. Sponsor’s interest in the subject matter and role in organizing the trip:

Center Forward’s Issues Conference is being convened to bring together pragmatic policy influencers from various industries, organizations, and the public sector to focus on common-sense solutions. Center Forward’s organizational mission is to provide centrists the information they need to craft common-sense solutions and provide support in turning those ideas into results. Center Forward brings together Members of Congress, not-for profits, academic experts, trade associations, corporations, and unions to find common ground.

Center Forward is the sole organizer of the trip. Center Forward is planning the Conference and is responsible for the organization and execution of the event logistics as well as the programming content. Discussion topics will include cybersecurity and its role in shaping the future of healthcare, energy, jobs, technology, national security etc., balancing competing priorities in the federal budget, an examination of voter trends and their relationships with Members of Congress and the President specifically relating to top issues including top social issues and democracy and governance, and an outlook on the global economy in a post-COVID world as it relates to job creation, supply chain, competition, and new trends in the workplace. Participants are expected to include policymakers and advocate groups as well as business leaders, academic researchers, and a member of the press.

Lunch Remarks — “Consent of the Governed”

Government and society have undergone transformational change, and the future of the way people interact will not look like the past. The last two years have brought about paradigm shifts in peoples’ work, political, and social experiences. Reporter Jon Allen will share how the thinking of the American voter has shifted in recent years and what that means from a public policy perspective in a nearly evenly divided Congress.

Jon Allen, Senior National Politics Reporter, NBC News

1:30 pm - 2:45 pm Panel Discussion — “Rethinking Global Trade and Supply Chains to Sustain Economic Growth”

In so many ways, COVID-19 reshaped the global economy and the ways in which markets interact at both the macro- and micro-level. The ways that governments and private companies view trade, supply chain, and workforce have been dramatically changed forever. This panel will focus on what these changes mean for the global economy in a post-COVID context, and how businesses can recover, create jobs, and promote growth at the local level. Joined by special guests:

- Paul DeLaney, Vice President, Trade and International, Business Roundtable
- Geoff Freeman, President & CEO, Consumer Brands Association
- Third panelist, TBD
- Moderated by Libby Greer, Board Member, Center Forward
