Ms. Christina McCauley
Office of the Honorable Doris O. Matsui
2311 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. McCauley:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to United Kingdom,¹ scheduled for April 9 to 13, 2022, sponsored by Global Women's Innovation Network.

This approval represents the Committee's determination that the proposed trip complies with relevant House rules, federal laws, and Travel Regulations promulgated by the Committee. You should engage in your own assessment of the risks and implications of engaging in travel during the current COVID-19 pandemic.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $415 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts “of minimal value [currently $415] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy” by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee’s Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch

Now in his post in London in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, James will use his deep understanding of both US and UK politics to do a high-level country briefing and overview of our two nation's special relationship. He'll also give us a briefing of what we should be thinking about during some of our upcoming meetings with government officials in UK.

3:00 PM Kensington Palace and Gardens

While most of our time in London will be spent focusing on the functions of the UK and of businesses in London, the British governmental system is unique in its split government, with both a functioning monarchy and a separate democratic system. During this walking meeting led by an expert on the monarchy, we will learn the role that the monarchy itself plays in the government. Most Americans understand that there is a House of Commons and the House of Lords and that the Queen does play a role in sanctioning certain decisions made by the British government, but this meeting will go deeper into what this split government means and help us understand the exact role the monarchy plays in a constitutional monarchy.

4:30 PM Global Impact Investing with Visa
5:30 PM 1 Sheldon Square, London W2 6TT, UK

Overview: Visa has recently established a new philanthropic platform for giving, called the Visa Foundation, which focuses on helping micro and small enterprises thrive through access, growth and resilience. Our goal is to empower these enterprises and improve their livelihoods—ultimately lifting up their communities. At the heart of the new social impact focus is the belief that micro and small enterprises are the backbone of the global economy, accounting for more than 90 percent of enterprises worldwide and contributing 50 to 60 percent of global employment¹. However, many of these businesses struggle to access the tools, resources, and training to help them fully thrive. The new social impact strategy, including the core mission of Visa Foundation, is to support efforts to fix this imbalance. During this meeting we will hear from several of the people behind the UK team at the Visa Foundation to discuss their work.

Dinner and Global Trade for British Goods with Last Drop Distillers

8:30 PM

Overview: During this dinner featuring Rebecca Jago, Co-Owner of Last Drop Distillers, we will learn about trade of British goods between the UK and EU, as well as globally, from the incredibly unique perspective of one of the only female owners of the spirits company in the entirety of the UK. True spirits pioneers, the founders of The Last Drop Distiller between them have created some of the world's most well-known and best loved spirits brands: Johnnie Walker Blue Label, Chivas Regal 18-Year-Old, The Classic Malts, and with Malibu and Baileys Irish Cream, two of the most original and successful new drinks categories in the world. Ten years ago, rather than retiring, they decided to turn their attention to something a little different and created one last unique brand: The Last Drop Distillers. Their goal was simple, but by no means easy: to find, and bottle, for the delectation of friends and connoisseurs alike, the world's finest, rarest, and most exclusive spirits. Rebecca will discuss the fine craftsmanship of her trade as well as the impact that global trade agreements have on her business and other UK-owned small businesses.

Innovation in Entertainment with Amazon's Priyanka Wadhawan, Director of Insights and Innovation & Georgia Brown, Head of EU Originals for Prime Video/Amazon Studios

1:00 PM

1 Principal Place, Worship St, London EC2A 2FA

Overview: Priyanka Wadhawan is Director of Insights & Innovation at Amazon, where she has worked for over 15 years. In that time, she has led a variety of product, technology and business teams. Priyanka moved from Seattle to the UK four years ago, to build Amazon's Insight and Innovation team in Europe. This group focuses on solving large scale strategic problems that don't have a clear answer. In this role, she works with cross functional global teams using data, economic science, analytics and automation. Originally from India, she has over 20 years of experience in building successful products and businesses in high growth technology organisations across India, USA and Europe. At Amazon, she is widely recognized as a strategic thinker and innovative leader, having developed and launched outstanding products to enhance the customer experience, including Amazon Prime in the UK, Germany and Japan, 'Prime Pantry' (Patent awarded) and the recently launched 4star store in the UK.

Georgia Brown, Amazon Studio's Director of European Originals, has said that audiences have been increasingly turning to feature films on their service in the last few years and expressed plans for the company to beef up its film slate. Speaking in the penultimate conversation at the Edinburgh TV Festival on Thursday, the exec also touched on the importance of investing in local language talent as well as its plans to implement some "robust" diversity strategies. "I think what has worked really well for us, broadly, is movies, interestingly," she said. "We were aware of this and we were aware that audiences wanted movies, and my original remit wasn't to include movies, it was television series that we were looking at. But we started to realize that audiences, they come in and they give us this precious time for these big series – they give us six, seven, eight, nine, ten hours of their time to watch this incredible world come to life and then when they go what they're tending to go to watch is movies."

During this panel discussion, featuring these two impressive women, as well as a few other women at the company, we will ask them to share a bit about their career, the best thing about their role and what they are working on, what things they are trying to improve, and what they see as current industry trends.

1:30 PM Bringing new Technology and Services to Emerging Markets with Uber
2:30 PM

Overview: As many of us will remember, when Uber came to market in London in the mid-2000s, it caused wide-scale labor protests in the city. The company, which up to that point had been growing in largely unregulated markets, was suddenly brought to halt. The protests and policies that came along with them spread to other cities across the globe and was the beginning of the policification of the gig-economy. In this meeting we will take a bit of a history lesson and learn from Uber about the lessons learned in bringing new technology to market.

7:15 PM Tour of the Tower of London and Ceremony of the Keys
10:15 PM St. Katharine's & Wapping, London

Overview: This is a unique opportunity to witness and learn the amazing history of the nightly 'Ceremony of the Keys' ceremony, practiced for over 700 years, where the city of London is officially closed and secured for the evening.

What is the Ceremony of the Keys? Footsteps echo in the darkness. The sentry cries out, 'Halt, who comes there?' The Yeoman Warder replies, 'The keys.' 'Whose keys?' 'Queen Elizabeth's keys.' 'Pass then, all's well.' Aside from the monarch's name, this is the exact exchange that has been spoken for centuries and forms part of the traditional 'locking up' of the Tower of London. Set amidst the mighty battlements of this ancient historic fortress, the Ceremony of the Keys is one of the oldest and most colourful surviving enactments of its kind. Although the monarch may no longer reside at the Tower, the Crown Jewels and many other invaluable objects still do, therefore its importance is still paramount today.
