Mr. Edwin Kindler
Office of the Honorable Bill Foster
2366 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Kindler:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Cambridge, Massachusetts, scheduled for April 20 to 22, 2022, sponsored by Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Raymond Frankel Foundation.

This approval represents the Committee's determination that the proposed trip complies with relevant House rules, federal laws, and Travel Regulations promulgated by the Committee. You should engage in your own assessment of the risks and implications of engaging in travel during the current COVID-19 pandemic.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $415 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch

March 10, 2022

Dear Edwin Kindler,

I am pleased to invite you to participate in the 5th MIT Security Studies Program's Senior Congressional and Executive Branch Staff Seminar, to be held on the MIT campus from 6:00pm on Wednesday, April 20 until 2:00pm on Friday, April 22, 2022. The Seminar is sponsored by the MIT Security Studies Program through an ongoing grant from the Raymond Frankel Foundation.

The subject of this year's seminar is "Navigating the New Era: US Foreign Policy amid a Pandemic." The seminar includes strategic, political, and military analysis. Top outside experts and MIT faculty will examine how the world has been changing during the pandemic, the implications of these changes for U.S. interests, and possible policy responses to meet current and potential challenges. Sessions will focus on the shifting balance of military and economic power, new instruments of statecraft, China's global ambitions, and emerging threats to nuclear stability. Experts at the MIT Lincoln Laboratory will review advanced technology developments that could produce new options for the American military.

As in the past, we are inviting Senior Congressional and Executive Branch staff from a variety of related policy areas and from committees that will be affected by policy choices that must be made. Participation is by invitation, with the number of attendees limited to encourage intensive interaction among participants, MIT faculty, and guests from industry and academia. Support from the Frankel Foundation makes it possible for us to reimburse, as necessary, the cost of travel and hotel accommodations. We are carefully following Ethics Committee requirements and will provide you with the necessary forms to satisfy your particular ethics requirements.

If you would like to attend, you may apply no later than Friday, March 4, at <https://cvent.me/BxoDy5>, and you will be notified by Thursday, March 10. If you are offered a place, this will allow sufficient time for filing the necessary paperwork with your Ethics Committee by March 19. Places are limited, so early application is strongly suggested. Fatima Amjad at the MIT Security Studies Program will be happy to answer any questions, and she can be reached at 617-253-7529 or at fatimaz@mit.edu.

My MIT colleagues and I look forward to welcoming you to MIT on April 20, 2022.

Yours sincerely,
