March 10, 2022

Dear Courtney Stevens,

I am pleased to invite you to participate in the 5th MIT Security Studies Program’s Senior Congressional and Executive Branch Staff Seminar, to be held on the MIT campus from 6:00pm on Wednesday, April 20 until 2:00pm on Friday, April 22, 2022. The Seminar is sponsored by the MIT Security Studies Program through an ongoing grant from the Raymond Frankel Foundation.

The subject of this year’s seminar is “Navigating the New Era: US Foreign Policy amid a Pandemic.” The seminar includes strategic, political, and military analysis. Top outside experts and MIT faculty will examine how the world has been changing during the pandemic, the implications of these changes for U.S. interests, and possible policy responses to meet current and potential challenges. Sessions will focus on the shifting balance of military and economic power, new instruments of statecraft, China’s global ambitions, and emerging threats to nuclear stability. Experts at the MIT Lincoln Laboratory will review advanced technology developments that could produce new options for the American military.

As in the past, we are inviting Senior Congressional and Executive Branch staff from a variety of related policy areas and from committees that will be affected by policy choices that must be made. Participation is by invitation, with the number of attendees limited to encourage intensive interaction among participants, MIT faculty, and guests from industry and academia. Support from the Frankel Foundation makes it possible for us to reimburse, as necessary, the cost of travel and hotel accommodations. We are carefully following Ethics Committee requirements and will provide you with the necessary forms to satisfy your particular ethics requirements.

If you would like to attend, you may apply no later than Friday, March 4, at https://event.me/BxoDy5, and you will be notified by Thursday, March 10. If you are offered a place, this will allow sufficient time for filing the necessary paperwork with your Ethics Committee by March 19. Places are limited, so early application is strongly suggested. Fatima Amjad at the MIT Security Studies Program will be happy to answer any questions, and she can be reached at 617-253-7529 or at fatimaz@mit.edu.

My MIT colleagues and I look forward to welcoming you to MIT on April 20, 2022.

Yours sincerely,
