Dear Ms. Carray:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Austin, Texas, scheduled for May 4 to 6, 2022, sponsored by Global Women's Innovation Network.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $415 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch

Thursday, May 5

8:30 AM Breakfast ft. Allison O'Brien, Oracle
9:30 AM Snooze, an A.M. Eatery, 1109 E 5th Street

Overview: Due to travel complications, during this rescheduled meeting we heard from Allison O'Brien, who serves as Managing Director, Government Affairs for Oracle Corporation, where she oversees industry-leading political programs in support of Oracle's advocacy efforts, including diplomatic and policymaker engagement opportunities, the company's political action committee, and political compliance, transparency, and oversight objectives. Additionally, Ms. O'Brien manages internal and external operations for Oracle Corporate Affairs globally. Allison led us through a conversation about how cloud services help small businesses lead in innovation-driven fields in surprising ways.

10:00 AM The Future of Self-Driving Autos with Argo AI ft. Rachel Rathore
11:00 AM 4800 East 7th Street

Overview: Argo AI is an autonomous driving technology company headquartered in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The company was co-founded in 2016 by Bryan Salesky and Peter Rander, veterans of the Google and Uber automated driving programs. At Argo, they are on a mission to make the world's streets and roadways safe, accessible, and useful for all. Argo is extremely unique in how they handle partnerships to bring a better technology to market. They have partnerships with five leading scientific universities to lend principal scientists to the company and to bridge the gap between tech and academia. In this meeting we will learn about their goal for safer roads and how tech and academia are at the center of this endeavor.

Rachel Rathore is a member of the Public Policy and Government Relations team at Argo AI where she focuses on advancing autonomous vehicle policy at the federal level. Prior to joining Argo AI, Rachel served as Legislative Director for a senior member of the House Energy and Commerce Committee and advised on telecommunications and technology policy. She played a key role in drafting and advancing nine bills into law, including the STOP Robocalls Act, the Precision Agriculture Connectivity Act, and the Advancing Unmanned Delivery Services Act. Rachel is an Ohio native and holds a bachelor's degree in political science and geography from Miami University (OH). Rachel, who intimately understands the role that Congress plays in helping bringing new innovative technology to market, will not only discuss the tech and impact of this innovative company, but she will also discuss how Congress can help clear the path for new technologies like this to exist.

11:30 AM The Technical Innovation Behind Amazon Fulfillment ft.
1:00 PM 2000 E Pecan St, Pflugerville, TX 78660

Overview: There is no question that Amazon is one of the most innovative companies in the world. At the center of that innovation are their fulfillment centers. While often discussed in the media, most people are not able to actually see what goes into fulfilling a single Amazon order. This meeting will be an opportunity for our delegation to see the groundbreaking tech that goes behind package fulfillment. After the tour, we will have with the facility's general manager to hear from him about the intricacies of this process. The tour of the facility was led by Mike Pelenero & Lee Fleming giving us an in depth look at all the processes of fulfillment along with the jobs available with flex hours and full-time benefits. The automation of many processes as they continue to increase production but maintain the jobs promised to Pflugerville Community Development Corp.

It is no secret that Amazon fulfillment centers host some of the most cutting-edge technologies in the US that are changing the America landscape. It is also known that the practices at fulfillment centers have come under intense scrutiny. During this visit our delegation had a hands-on experience of working with some of Amazon's most innovative technologies.

10:30 AM Understanding the Local Politics of Austin with Mayor Steve Adler and his Team
11:30AM Austin City Hall, 301 W 2nd St

Overview: During this meeting with the Mayor of Austin, we will discuss Austin's commitment to climate action. Per Protocol.com, "Austin is part of the C40 coalition, an international constellation of cities that have set aggressive climate targets in line with what the science demands and that represent more than a quarter of the global economy. The Austin Climate Equity Plan sets the city's climate agenda for the coming decades, including reaching net-zero emissions by 2040. That's 10 years ahead of the timeline identified in the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change report about limiting global warming to 1.5 degrees Celsius. It's also 10 years ahead of the federal government's net-zero goal set by President Joe Biden last year." In this meeting we will discuss these timely goals and what initiatives the Mayor is pursuing to achieve them.
