Ms. Sruthi Prabhu
Office of the Honorable Trey Hollingsworth
1641 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Prabhu:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to San Francisco, California, scheduled for September 7 to 9, 2022, sponsored by Global Women's Innovation Network.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $415 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

11:10 AM Arrive SFO

30-minute drive

12:30 PM Trip Welcome and Overview
1:00 PM During the Drive

Overview: While the delegation travels from the airport to it's first meeting, Tizzy Brown, GlobalWIN's Senior Director and Vice President at HM&CO, will go over the details of the trip. During this time she will discuss an overview of GlobalWIN and purpose of it's educational staff delegation trips. She will discuss why GlobalWIN is in San Francisco, and she will give a preview of each of the meetings the delegation will be attending.

1:00 PM Lunch & Voices in Action ft. Twitter
2:30 PM 1355 Market St #900, San Francisco

Overview: Twitter is a digital social media platform that is widely known for being a domestic and global space for political discourse. The company is currently focusing on expanding broadband, technological innovation, widespread communication, and advancing their mission of serving open and unfringed public conversation. During this meeting, to be had over lunch, we will discuss how critical the platform has become for quickly getting information out to constituents and districts, for garnering breaking news in a quick and digestible fashion, and for being a global connector. This will be with Twitter's team of public policy and digital creator professionals.

11-minute drive

3:00 PM How the Gig Economy Has Changed the Workforce for Women ft. Uber
4:00 PM 1515 3rd St, San Francisco

Overview: Uber is well known for its public transportation model of ride-sharing with gig economy and contractor infrastructure. During this meeting, we will discuss how this business model creates a flexible schedule for women, who are typically the caregivers in households, to accumulate an income. This type of employment is a prime example of contracting work that helps to financially support mothers and caregivers who are able to set their own hours. We will also discuss the positive effects ride-sharing has on the environment and our nation's goals of lowering greenhouse gas emissions—the largest contributor to climate change. We will meet with Uber's government affairs team for this meeting.

7-minute drive

Wednesday, September 7

4:30 PM Self-Driving Technology & Reception ft. Aurora Tech
5:30 PM 85 Bluxome Street, San Francisco

Overview: Aurora Tech is a self-driving auto tech company with the goal of changing the way people and goods move through the world. They aim to revolutionize the transportation industry by making our roads more safe and more efficient. They partner with an ecosystem of logistics providers, ridesharing networks, vehicle manufacturers, and fleet management companies. During this meeting we will learn from Aurora's team of technical experts about how they are working to integrate their technology across these sectors, while also discussing the public policy hurdles it will need to overcome to come to market. Lastly, we will discuss how their location in the San Francisco Bay Area, which is known for the startups and new technology, is helping them navigate this ecosystem of partnerships hurdles.

Time to check in with offices and work as needed.

6:30 PM Dinner ft. Women in Leadership Across Innovation Sectors
8:30 PM Featuring executives from PhRMA, PG&E, Toyota, Intel, Abbott, Walmart, TSMC, the Blockchain Association & Steel Perlot

Overview: One of the things that makes GlobalWIN so special is our unique intersection of innovation across sectors. This dinner will give the GlobalWIN delegation the chance to meet with senior executive women across sectors, including autos, tech, biopharma, retail, manufacturing and more, to understand how top women in each of these industries navigate their executive leadership positions. It will also give the delegation the ability to meet with women representing sectors that both directly relate to their current role, and others that represent new opportunities for them, but exposing them to the familiar and new ideas.

Thursday, September 8

9:00 AM Breakfast & Green Tech in Autos & Demo ft. GM
10:00 AM 1201 Bryant St San Francisco
Travel to next meeting in GM Fleet

Overview: General Motors and Cruise will be the first companies in the world to run a commercial taxi service of self-driving cars in a major city. Recently, the California Public Utilities Commission approved Cruise's final application to start the commercial ride-hailing business in San Francisco. Cruise will use a fleet of 30 completely driverless all-electric Chevrolet Bolts to ferry passengers around parts of the city. During this meeting we will learn about the tech and what sets this fleet of driverless vehicle apart from others. We will also discuss the means by which this decision was made in the CA Commission and what issues the GM local government relations team worked on to help this fleet come to market. The Congressional staff will then have the opportunity to see this technology in action when they take the fleet to the next meeting. During the drive we will be shown how these features work on actual city streets.

10-minute drive

10:30 AM Meeting with San Francisco Local Government Officials
11:45 AM San Francisco City Hall, 1 Dr Carlton B Goodlett Pl, San Francisco

Overview: San Francisco is known as one of the most liberal cities in America, but their recent local elections prove that while the Cook Political Report may say one thing, the politics of this city are far more complicated than a D+20 district. During this meeting with locally elected San Francisco politicians, we will learn about the tension within this city, especially as it relates to crime, opioids, and the homeless population. We will also learn about the city's investment strategy, as well as the interaction between the government and the many Fortune 100 companies and start-ups that call this city home, and why San Francisco has been such a hospitable city to new and emerging businesses.

Thursday, September 8

15-minute drive

12:30 PM Lunch and Privacy Online ft. Meta
2:00 PM 181 Fremont St, San Francisco

Overview: Meta is a social media platform that works to build technologies that help people connect, find communities and grow businesses. Meta works to give people the power to build community and bring the world closer together with communication, open political discourse, and connectivity. During this meeting, to be had over lunch, we will discuss how you can give people a voice, how to make technology accessible to everyone, and boosts businesses, all while keeping people safe and protecting privacy. We will meet over lunch with Meta's privacy team.

4-minute walk

2:15 PM Using Tech to Modernize our World ft. DocuSign
3:15 PM 221 Main Street, 15th Floor, San Francisco

Overview: Since its inception in 2003, DocuSign has been on a mission to accelerate business and simplify life for companies and people around the world. The company pioneered the development of e-signature technology, and today, DocuSign helps organizations connect and automate how they prepare, sign, act on, and manage agreements. They eliminate the paper, automate the process, and connect it to all the other systems that businesses are already using. During this meeting, we will have a discussion on the need for digitizing government by having Congress continue to lead efforts in modernizing how they operate administratively on Capitol Hill, and how those efforts will impact constituents, consumers and businesses across the country. We will be meeting with DocuSign's technology development team.

7-minute walk

3:30 PM The Future of DEI in Law ft. Covington & Burling
4:30 PM Salesforce Tower, 415 Mission Street, Suite 5400, San Francisco

Overview: Covington & Burling LLC is a multinational law firm headquartered in DC. During this meeting we will sit down with their San Francisco practice to discuss how Law has changed just in a few short years in how it thinks about diversity, equity, and inclusion, both internally as a massive employer, but also in their work. We will sit down with a panel of lawyers leading their DEI practice to discuss this new and groundbreaking area of their work.

Time to check in with offices and work as needed.

6:30 PM Women in Innovation Dinner ft Salesforce
9:00 PM Salesforce Ohana Floor, Salesforce Tower, 415 Mission Street, Suite 5400, San Francisco

Overview: In 1999, four Salesforce founders, living in San Francisco, launched a customer relationship management (CRM) system with a groundbreaking twist. All the software and critical customer data would be hosted on the internet and made available as a subscription service. This pioneering "software as a service," or SaaS, model quickly spread across the technology industry. From the start, Salesforce has sought to change the world for the better through technology that builds stronger relationships. Salesforce is now one of the largest economic and employment contributing company for the City of San Francisco. In this meeting, that will be hosted over dinner, we will discuss the economic, political, and developmental impacts Salesforce has had for San Francisco, and on a larger scale, the world. We will also discuss the pioneering technology innovation mindset of the founders and the increased mentality of the Silicon Valley becoming a boon for the tech industry with their contributions through Salesforce.

RON: Sonder at Found Union Square: 140 Mason Street, San Francisco

Friday, September 9

8:00 AM Breakfast & Innovative Threat Detection ft. ThreatMetrix
9:00 AM Bodega- 140 Mason Street, San Francisco

Overview: ThreatMetrix from LexisNexis is a cybersecurity risk management system for digital intelligence and authentication that leverages global digital and physical identity intelligence, machine learning and advanced big data analytics to accelerate risk management decisions and fortify fraud defenses for businesses across the globe. Women are greatly underrepresented in the cybersecurity space, and this leading cyber tech startup is an example of when and how women lead in this space. During this breakfast we will delve into this complicated technology and discuss how it is working for governments and municipalities.

10-minute drive

9:15 AM Making our Hospital Systems Work for Us ft. Sutter Health
10:45 AM 1101 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco

Overview: Sutter Health is a not-for-profit integrated health delivery system headquartered in Sacramento, California. It operates 24 acute care hospitals and over 200 clinics in Northern California. Sutter Health is especially well known for its excellent maternal health record. During this meeting we will meet with both the clinical maternal health team as well as the hospital business management team to discuss Sutter's model and how it can be implemented by other hospital systems in the US. This is especially relevant today as we have seen a sharp decline across the country in access to women's health.

Ethics Question # 12

GlobalWIN highlights women leaders and connects the public and private sector through our programming that includes networking receptions, policy roundtables, career workshops, and educational trips in the United States and abroad. Our visit to San Francisco, CA will combine all tiers of GlobalWIN programming and provide all participants an opportunity to share their views during policy discussions and site visits with companies at the forefront of innovation and technology, as well as with female leaders in technology, health, cybersecurity, privacy, politics, and other industries. Their work on these topics and active participation in our discussions will be a great asset to our delegation, which will include senior staff from both Republican and Democratic House offices. GlobalWIN has organized and planned the trip with the professional guidance of our Executive Director, and GlobalWIN Co-Founder, Helen Milby, Tizzy Brown our Senior Director and Andrea Mietus our Senior Advisor.

Question 15-A-2

On September 7th – September 9th GlobalWIN will bring 12-14 Congressional Staff members from Republican and Democratic Offices in the U.S. House of Representatives to San Francisco, CA for a variety of meetings and programming on an array of issues with companies at the forefront of innovation and technology, as well as with female leaders in health sciences, politics, and other industries.

Congressional staffers will have the unique opportunity to participate in meetings directly related to their subject matter expertise, while also glean information from non-direct and equally important sources. Our visit to San Francisco, CA will combine all tiers of GlobalWIN programming and provide participants with a rare opportunity to grow professionally while connecting with experts and Leaders in San Francisco, CA. This will be GlobalWIN's first time to San Francisco and we are excited to share the experience with our Congressional Delegation and our hosts and GlobalWIN allies.
