EMPLOYEE POST-TRAVEL DISCLOSURE FORM [X] Original [] Amendment

This form is for disclosing the receipt of travel expenses from private sources for travel taken in connection with official duties. This form does not eliminate the need to report privately-funded travel on the annual Financial Disclosure Statements of those employees required to file them. In accordance with House Rule 25, clause 5, you must complete this form and file it with the Clerk of the House, by email at giftravelreports@mail.house.gov, within 15 days after travel is completed. Please do not file this form with the Committee on Ethics.

NOTE: Willful or knowing misrepresentations on this form may be subject to criminal prosecution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1001.

September 21, 2022

Ms. Naomi Lake
Office of the Honorable Jesus G. "Chuy" Garcia
1519 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Lake:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Japan,¹ scheduled for October 9 to 16, 2022, sponsored by Japan Center for International Exchange.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $415 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $415] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Theodore E. Deutch

Jessica Burnell, Senior Policy Advisor, Office of Representative Brian Higgins (D-NY)

Jessica Burnell was chosen based on her active participation in our Japan 101 course in 2020-21 and the degree to which deeper knowledge of the role of US-Japan relations in Asia and the world would help her advise her boss on regional security and trade issues and their impact on the United States. Japan is the most important US ally in Asia, where the center of gravity in world politics and the global economy has shifted, and the US and Japan have forged a global partnership addressing global issues. A well-rounded understanding of the dynamics of US-Japan relations and Japan's political, economic, and foreign policy, as well as greater exposure to perspectives of Japanese experts and policymakers, will help her support the US Congress more effectively as it addresses geopolitical tensions and trade issues in the region. The program will also facilitate her understanding of Japan's approaches to global challenges such as global health security and pandemic preparedness to help her contextualize her advice on health policy issues.

Joel Keralis, Legislative Assistant, Office of Representative Adrian Smith (R-NE)

Joel Keralis was chosen based on his active participation in our Japan 101 course in 2020-21 as well as the degree to which deeper knowledge of the role of US-Japan relations in Asia and the world would help him advise his boss on regional security and trade issues. Japan is the most important US ally in Asia, where the center of gravity in world politics and the global economy has shifted, and the US and Japan have forged a global partnership addressing global issues. A well-rounded understanding of the dynamics of US-Japan relations and Japan's political, economic, and foreign policy, as well as greater exposure to the perspectives of Japanese experts and policymakers, will complement his background on national security and military affairs, and enable him to support the US Congress more effectively as it addresses geopolitical tensions and trade issues in the region. A better understanding of US-Japan relations is also essential for him to support his boss who is currently Co-Chair of the Japan Caucus.

Naomi Lake, Legislative Assistant, Office of Representative Chuy García (D-IL)

James Loomis was chosen based on his active participation in our Japan 101 course in 2020-21 as well as the degree to which deeper knowledge of the role of US-Japan relations in Asia and the world would help him advise his boss on regional security and trade issues and their impact on the United States. Japan is the most important US ally in Asia, where the center of gravity in world politics and the global economy has shifted, and the US and Japan have forged a global partnership addressing global issues. A well-rounded understanding of the dynamics of US-Japan relations and Japan's political, economic, and foreign policy, as well as greater exposure to the perspectives of Japanese experts and policymakers, will complement his background on Chinese affairs and enable him to support the US Congress more effectively as it addresses grave security challenges and US defense issues in the region.

Bret Manley, Chief of Staff, Office of Representative Rodney Davis (R-IL)

Bret Manley was chosen based on his active participation in our Japan 101 course in 2020-21 as well as the degree to which deeper knowledge of the role of US-Japan relations in Asia and the world would help him better advise his boss on regional security and trade issues and their impact on the United States. Japan is the most important US ally in Asia, where the center of gravity in world politics and the global economy has shifted, and the US and Japan have forged a global partnership addressing global issues. A well-rounded understanding of the dynamics of US-Japan relations and Japan's political, economic, and foreign policy, as well as greater exposure to the perspectives of Japanese experts and policymakers, will help him carry out his work more effectively as the US Congress addresses geopolitical tensions and trade issues in the region.

Justin Maturo, Legislative Director, Office of Representative Mark Takano (D-CA)

Justin Maturo was chosen based on his active participation in our Japan 101 course in 2020-21 as well as the degree to which deeper knowledge of the role of US-Japan relations in Asia and the world would help him advise his boss on regional security and trade issues. Japan is the most important US ally in Asia, where the center of gravity in world politics and the global economy has shifted, and the US and Japan have forged a global partnership addressing global issues. A well-rounded understanding of the dynamics of US-Japan relations and Japan's political, economic, and foreign policy, as well as greater exposure to the perspectives of Japanese experts and policymakers, will enable him to support the US Congress more effectively as it addresses US national security and foreign policy challenges in the region.

Max Pedrotti, Legislative Director, Office of Representative Carol Miller (R-WV)

Max Pedrotti was chosen based on his active participation in our Japan 101 course in 2020-21 as well as the degree to which deeper knowledge of the role of US-Japan relations in Asia and the world would help him advise his boss on regional security and trade issues and their impact on the United States. Japan is the most important US ally in Asia, where the center of gravity in world politics and the global economy has shifted, and the US and Japan have forged a global partnership addressing global issues. A well-rounded understanding of the dynamics of US-Japan relations and Japan's political, economic, and foreign policy, as well as greater exposure to the perspectives of Japanese experts and policymakers, will complement his experiences with other countries in the region and enable him to support the US Congress more effectively as it addresses issues such as trade, energy and investment issues in the region.

Kayla Williams, Chief of Staff, Office of Representative Gregory Meeks (D-NY)

Kayla Williams was chosen based on her active participation in our Japan 101 course in 2020-21 as well as the degree to which deeper knowledge of the role of US-Japan relations in Asia and the world would help her advise her boss on regional security and trade issues affecting the United States. Japan is the most important US ally in Asia, where the center of gravity in world politics and the global economy has shifted, and the US and Japan have forged a global partnership addressing global issues. A well-rounded understanding of the dynamics of US-Japan relations and Japan's political, economic, and foreign policy, as well as greater exposure to the perspectives of Japanese experts and policymakers, is essential for her to support her boss, who is Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and Member of the Japan Caucus.
