January 30, 2023

Ms. Elizabeth Fallon
Office of the Honorable Tom Emmer
464 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Fallon:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Miami, Florida, scheduled for February 13 to 15, 2023, sponsored by Global Women's Innovation Network. We note that this trip includes one day at your personal expense.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than the reporting threshold from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. That reporting threshold is currently $415 but is set to adjust in 2023. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

GlobalWIN House Staff Delegation Trip
Miami, Florida

Monday, February 13, 2023 – Tuesday, February 14, 2023

Monday, February 13

6:30 AM Arrive Washington National Airport (DCA)
8:28 AM Depart Washington Ronald Reagan Airport (DCA) on American Airlines Flight #0458
11:20 AM Arrive Miami International Airport (MIA)

15-minute drive

12:15 PM Lunch with Paramount/CBS Affiliate Station WFOR-TV
1:30 PM Assumed Address: 8900 NW 18th Terrace, Doral, FL

Overview: We've seen over the last decade or more news becoming increasingly national, and local news stations and newspapers have suffered as a result. During this station tour, lunch, and panel, we will hear from an important CBS affiliate station about what they are doing to keep their news local, while serving a very diverse city. We will take a look behind the curtain at their production and talk to many of the senior leadership at the station about how they reach their incredibly broad audience.

15-minute drive

2:00 PM Council of the Americas Panel on IP and Trade ft. Novartis
3:00 PM 5200 Blue Lagoon Drive, Miami, FL

Overview: Through the lens of biopharmaceutical global production and distribution, the GlobalWIN delegation will meet with the Council of the Americas for a panel discussion and conversation about IP and trade issues across North, South, and Latin America. We will hear from top lawyers, industry professionals, and current and former diplomats to discuss these issues with our broad delegation.

20-minute drive

3:30 PM Global Shipping Logistics with Oracle Cloud Technologies and Special Use Case: UPS
5:30 PM Port of Miami, Miami FL

Overview: The Port of Miami is one of the Top 10 largest ports in the United States, with a TEU capacity of 1,250,000. It covers a total of seven million square feet (650,000 m²) of cargo storage space at its seaport. The exports here are grapefruit, citrus fruit juices, poultry, dairy products, bitters, brandy, and cognac. Imports include fruits, vegetables, frozen fish, shrimp, prawns, wine, and vodka. During the first half of this tour, we will discuss how cloud technology supported by Oracle makes the massive logistics of this port function and see how high tech has transformed this industry. In the second half of this stop we will hear from UPS about how they leverage this port to support their global shipping production. This meeting will give us an on the ground opportunity to learn about supply chain logistics from multiple perspectives.

Check into hotel: The Goodtime Hotel: 601 Washington Ave, Miami Beach, FL

6:30 PM Dinner featuring Miami Mayor Francis Suarez
8:00 PM

Overview: During this dinner the delegation will have the chance to hear from Miami Mayor Francis Suarez. During his time as Mayor, Suarez has worked to make Miami a cryptocurrency hub in the United States and has looked to expand that relationship to building a bridge in financial markets between the US and South and Latin America. We will talk to the Mayor about what he's done in this regard, and how things have changed since the crash of FTX. Mayor Suarez is also known for his work in climate action, as Miami is greatly affected by climate change. Lastly, we will discuss trade and international relations, as Miami is a hub for US and Latin American relations.

Overnight Accommodations: The Goodtime Hotel: 601 Washington Ave, Miami Beach, FL

Tuesday, February 14

9:00 AM Breakfast and Global News with Telemundo
10:30 AM Telemundo Center: 1 Telemundo Way, Miami, FL

Overview: As we've stressed throughout this trip, the connection between the US and South and Central America is pivotal in Miami, as evidenced by Telemundo's investment in this city. While on Monday we will have discussed the need for great local news for the diverse residents of the Miami area, on Tuesday we will discuss how Telemundo brings important news to the Latin community throughout the world. We will have a tour, breakfast, and panel discussion on Telemundo's diverse programming in the Americas and the importance of getting the news right for this massive demographic.

30-minute drive

11:15 AM The USA-South American Connection with the Colombian Consulate Miami
12:15 PM Consulate General of Colombia, 280 Aragon Ave, Coral Gables, FL 33134

Overview: During this meeting with the Colombian Consulate in Miami we will discuss US-Colombian relations from the Colombia perspective, especially regarding trade and technology. For many South and Latin American countries, Colombia among them, Miami is a pivotal location for their embassies and US outreach. We will hear from some of the top women in the Consulate about relations between our two countries and how we can continue to work together, especially on economic issues.

12-minute drive

12:30 PM Lunch and Global Impact Investing with Visa
1:45 PM 1004 NW 65th Ave, Miami, FL 33126

Overview: Visa has recently established a new philanthropic platform for giving, called the Visa Foundation, which focuses on helping micro and small enterprises thrive through access, growth and resilience. Our goal is to empower these enterprises and improve their livelihoods—ultimately lifting up their communities. At the heart of the new social impact focus is the belief that micro and small enterprises are the backbone of the global economy, accounting for more than 90 percent of enterprises worldwide and contributing 50 to 60 percent of global employment. However, many of these businesses struggle to access the tools, resources and training to help them fully thrive. The new social impact strategy, including the core mission of Visa Foundation, is to support efforts to fix this imbalance. During this meeting we will hear from several of the people behind the UK team at the Visa Foundation to discuss their work.

End of Programming

10-minute drive

2:00 PM Arrive Miami International Airport
3:59 PM Depart Miami International Airport (MIA) on American Airlines Flight 1475

QUESTION 12

About GlobalWIN

With Honorary Co-Chairs Senators Shelley Moore Capito (R-WV) and Maggie Hassan (D-NH) and Congresswomen Cathy McMorris Rodgers (WA-05), Debbie Wasserman Schultz (FL-23), and Chrissy Houlahan (PA-06), GlobalWIN is a bipartisan nonprofit organization based in Washington, DC that provides a dynamic forum for women who are passionate about innovation. We have built and continue to expand this powerful network of executives and thought leaders in academia, government, and business, who work in innovation-driven fields. GlobalWIN provides an important forum for female leaders to grow personally and professionally, while contributing to key policy debates.

GlobalWIN highlights women leaders and connects the public and private sector through our programming that includes networking receptions, policy roundtables, career workshops, and educational trips in the United States and abroad.

GLOBALWIN PROGRAMMING

GlobalWIN highlights the important role of women in innovation through our programming. Each year, we host 40+ in-person and virtual panels, salon dinners, workshops, receptions, and trips centered around three programming silos:

1. GlobalWIN Innovation Events: GlobalWIN works with our partners to feature leaders in government and business who have made significant contributions in innovation-driven fields to educate our network on policy issues and strategies for addressing those issues.
2. Career Development: GlobalWIN provides opportunities and support for women at all levels of their careers through continuing education workshops and opportunities. GlobalWIN works with executive coaches and experts to bring thoughtful and strategic trainings to our network.
3. Global Partnership Building: GlobalWIN builds partnerships with like-minded groups in the U.S. and abroad and aims to foster collaboration among women on the key issues related to innovation, technology, and economic growth. GlobalWIN has brought congressional staff and its members all over the world, including Brussels, the U.K., Paris, and Berlin, to showcase the work that our allies do globally.

GlobalWIN will touch on all three of its programming silos by hosting this trip to Miami. More specifically, this trip will bring together a group of bipartisan House staff that work on issues related to IP and trade, biopharmaceutical production and distribution, global shipping logistics, local and global news production, financial services, female leadership, and innovation in tech. During the programming hours, our delegation will discuss important policy issues related to their field of work by participating in roundtables, expert panels, and learning more about the overall industry impact of innovation and rapidly cutting-edge technology. GlobalWIN's House Staff Delegation will interact with companies at the forefront of innovation, female leaders of industry, and other senior executives. Our Delegation will discuss policy issues throughout the trip, connect with peers from across the aisle, fostering an atmosphere of bipartisanship, cooperation, and personal network-building.

GlobalWIN is organizing and financially supporting all aspects of this trip, including all travel logistics, meetings, speakers, and panel discussions throughout the hours of official programming. GlobalWIN is the sole organizing and financial sponsor of this trip.

Question 15-2

Miami is a major center of commerce, culture, entertainment, the arts and international trade. It will be a great addition to cities for GlobalWIN to add to our trips. GlobalWIN continues to further include a bipartisan group of staffers with a variety of top tier issues to learn and discover more about. It is the perfect location for an overnight trip to see and discuss the many issues around IP and trade, bio-pharmaceutical production and distribution, global shipping logistics, local and global news production, financial services, female leadership, and innovation in tech.

Pre-Dinner Reception ft. Nancy Brinker

6:00-7:00PM

Nancy Brinker, Founder, Susan G. Komen, Co-Founder, Florida Promise Fund

Nancy G. Brinker is a three-time Ambassador and New York Times best-selling author who is regarded as the leader of the global breast cancer movement. Her journey began with a promise to her dying sister, Susan G. Komen, that she would do everything possible to end the shame, pain, fear, and hopelessness caused by this disease. In one generation, the organization that bears Susan's name has changed the world. In 2009, President Barack Obama honored Brinker with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian honor, for this work. The same year, she was named Goodwill Ambassador for Cancer Control for the United Nations' World Health Organization, where she continues her mission to put cancer control at the top of the world health agenda. In 2010, Brinker released her New York Times best-selling memoir "Promise Me", an inspirational story of her transformation from bereaved sister to the undisputed leader of the ongoing international movement to end breast cancer. From 2001-2003, Nancy served as U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Hungary and served as U.S. Chief of Protocol from 2007-2009. Brinker is the host of a weekly show on Newsmax TV which features newsmakers, corporate leaders, and high-profile cultural thought leaders. In 2018, Brinker spearheaded the creation of the Promise Fund of Florida, a nonprofit organization whose mission is to improve the outcomes and reduce deaths from breast and cervical cancers in Palm Beach County, where 80,000 women reside with no insurance and no medical home. The Promise Fund is utilizing partnerships, navigation, policy changes, and community awareness to build a model of care to be replicated throughout the country. The Promise Fund provides necessary education and screenings to prevent late-stage diagnosis and improve community health for under-resourced women confronting health disparities.
