April 20, 2023

Mr. René Muñoz
The Honorable J. Luis Correa
2301 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Muñoz:

This responds to your April 3, 2023, request seeking retroactive approval to accept travel expenses incurred in connection with a privately-sponsored trip to Middleburg, Virginia, from March 31 to April 2, 2023, sponsored by Center Forward (Trip). Subject to the guidance below, the Committee grants your request for retroactive approval.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

According to your request and additional information provided to Committee counsel, the background on this matter is as follows. You are Chief of Staff to Representative J. Luis Correa. You were invited by and accepted travel from Center Forward to attend an educational trip related to your official duties. Center Forward also invited you to bring an accompanying relative of your choice, consistent with the Travel Regulations. According to the information you provided, Center Forward provided you and your spouse roundtrip transportation from Washington, DC, to Middleburg, Virginia, and meals and lodging from March 31 to April 2, 2023. The Trip expenses totaled approximately $1,420.

As you explain, you completed the required Traveler Form and submitted the Traveler Form, Primary Trip Sponsor Form, and trip agenda (Forms) to what you thought was the Committee's electronic mailbox for travel inquiries on February 28, 2023, which was prior to the 30-day deadline for the trip's departure. However, you submitted the Forms to an incorrect email address (Travel.Request@mail.house.gov).¹ Accordingly, the Committee did not receive, review, or approve your request to travel at Center Forward's expense.

Despite not having received an approval letter from the Committee prior to your departure, you did go on the Trip to Middleburg, Virginia, at Center Forward's expense, from March 31 to April 2, 2023. After you returned from the Trip, on April 3, 2023, while assembling materials for the Post-Travel Disclosure, you discovered that you did not possess the Committee's approval letter. You contacted Committee staff and discovered that the Committee never received your Forms for the Trip due to your email error and that the Committee did not, therefore, issue you an approval letter. Committee counsel advised you to seek retroactive approval to accept the travel and on the same date, you submitted the request.

LEGAL BACKGROUND AND ANALYSIS

House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2) requires that Members and staff request and receive approval from the Committee before accepting privately-sponsored travel connected to one's official duties. You did not receive approval from the Committee to accept the above-noted privately-sponsored travel before embarking on your trip.

In general, the Committee will not approve a privately-sponsored trip in a case in which a House traveler failed to obtain permission to travel from the Committee before embarking on the trip. In exceptional circumstances, the Committee may consider approving a previously unapproved trip after the trip has taken place.

Based on the representations in your request and additional information provided to Committee counsel, the Committee chooses to exercise its discretion. Specifically, although submitted to the incorrect party, you did submit the Forms no later than 30 days from the first date of travel. In addition, this trip otherwise complied with House rules, and you immediately attempted to remedy the mistake. Finally, Committee records indicate that you have not previously accepted travel from a private source without prior approval of the Committee. As a result, the Committee approves your request for retroactive approval for your trip to Middleburg, Virginia, from March 31 to April 1, 2023, sponsored by the Center Forward.

The Committee notes, however, that retroactive travel approval may be inappropriate for you in the future. This letter serves as a reminder to you of the rule requiring you to receive explicit Committee approval before you accept privately-sponsored travel.

You should submit your Post-Travel Disclosure to the Clerk of the House, substituting this letter for the Committee pre-approval required by House rules. If you have already made a partial disclosure to the Clerk, you should add this letter as an amendment to that submission.

LIMITATIONS

The response above constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of House Rule 25. The following limitations apply to this opinion:

- This advisory opinion is issued only to Mr. René Muñoz, the requestor of this opinion. This advisory opinion cannot be relied upon by any other individual or entity.
- This advisory opinion is limited to the current provisions and interpretation of the House rule specifically noted above. No opinion is expressed or implied herein regarding the application of any other federal, state, or local statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other law that may be applicable to the proposed conduct described in this letter.

- This advisory opinion will not bind or obligate any entity other than the Committee on Ethics of the United States House of Representatives.
- This advisory opinion is limited in scope to the specific proposed conduct described in this letter, the specific facts represented to the Committee, and the understanding of those facts to the extent indicated in this letter and does not apply to any other conduct or facts, including that which appears similar in nature or scope to that described in this letter. Should this letter mis-state any facts in this matter, the opinion and advice may no longer apply, and you should inform the Committee as soon as possible to determine if the advice and opinion in this letter apply to the accurate factual basis.

The Committee will take no adverse action against you in regard to any conduct that you undertake, or have undertaken, in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion, so long as you have presented a complete and accurate statement of all material facts relied upon herein, and the proposed conduct in practice conforms with the information you provided, as addressed in this opinion.

Changes or other developments in the law (including, but not limited to, the Code of Official Conduct, House rules, Committee guidance, advisory opinions, statutes, regulations, or case law) may affect the analysis or conclusions drawn in this advisory opinion. The Committee reserves the right to reconsider the questions and issues raised in this advisory opinion and to rescind, modify, or terminate this opinion if required by the interests of the House. However, the Committee will rescind an advisory opinion only if relevant and material facts were not completely and accurately disclosed to the Committee at the time the opinion was issued. In the event that this advisory opinion is modified or terminated, the Committee will not take any adverse action against you with respect to any action taken in good faith reliance upon this advisory opinion so long as such conduct or such action was promptly discontinued upon notification of the modification or termination of this advisory opinion.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

12. Sponsor's interest in the subject matter and role in organizing the trip:

Center Forward's Issues Conference is being convened to bring together pragmatic policy influencers from various industries, organizations, and the public sector to focus on common-sense solutions. Center Forward's organizational mission is to provide centrists the information they need to craft common-sense solutions and provide support in turning those ideas into results. Center Forward brings together Members of Congress, not-for profits, academic experts, trade associations, corporations, and unions to find common ground.

Center Forward is the sole organizer of the trip. Center Forward is planning the Conference and is responsible for the organization and execution of the event logistics as well as the programming content. Discussion topics will include: American innovation and competitiveness and the fostering of new initiatives through implications on CHIPS implementation, supply chain, manufacturing, cybersecurity, etc.; balancing competing legislative priorities including health care, energy and sustainability, the future of artificial intelligence, workforce, and digital equity: beyond broadband; Understanding Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) Research with a focus on the current corporate ESG efforts and future trends; and working across the aisle in a new Congress to examining the outlook of leadership; and the importance of finding ways to put aside partisan differences and work together to solve America's challenges. Participants are expected to include policymakers and advocacy groups as well as business leaders, academic researchers, and a member of the press.
