Dear Ms. Hahn:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Dallas, Texas, scheduled for May 7 to 9, 2023, sponsored by Women's High Tech Coalition. We remind you that, because the trip sponsor employs a federal lobbyist, you may participate in officially-connected activity on one calendar day only.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

8:00 - 9:00 am: Breakfast Roundtable Discussion with Shelley Goodman & Charlene Lake, AT&T

Please plan to arrive at AT&T no later than 7:45am to get checked-in with building security so that the meeting can start promptly at 8:00am.*

Location: Whitacre Tower, 208 S Akard St, Dallas, TX 75201

The delegation will join Charlene Lake, Chief Sustainability Officer and Shelley Goodman, Senior Vice President for Regional Business Sales at AT&T for a breakfast roundtable discussion.

Shelley Goodman Bio:

Shelley Goodman is the Senior Vice President of AT&T Regional Business Sales – East. She and her team of business experts serve small and mid-market customers across 27 states. They are responsible for accelerating the acquisition of new customers, while expanding existing customer relationships with our fiber and mobility connectivity solutions.

In her previous role as Sales and Distribution East Region President, she and her Vice President and General Manager (VPGM) market leaders were responsible for growing subscribers, revenue, and market share in the 27 states in the East. This included managing the nearly 8,200 company owned, national, and authorized retail locations designed to serve customers first. With a team of ~10,000 employees, Shelley tasked her team with driving growth in key products such as wireless and fiber, while developing a vibrant culture, rewarding innovation, and maintaining a relentless commitment to an excellent customer experience.

Shelley joined Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in 1989 as part of the Leadership Development Program and has extensive experience in sales, operations, and customer care for the Consumer and Business portfolios. Key leadership roles include Vice President and General Manager for AT&T Mobility & Entertainment Group in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, and Northwest Indiana, as well as Vice President of Sales Operations in the 11-state North Central Region for AT&T Mobility and Consumer Markets. Her passion for customer service stems back to her time as Executive Director for AT&T's 6 consumer call centers in the Midwest, where she was responsible for sales and service for the entire portfolio of AT&T products.

Shelley has a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing and Sales from Baylor University, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude. She currently serves on Baylor's Hankamer School of Business Advisory Board. Shelley previously served on the Boards of Junior Achievement, the Illinois Retail Merchants Association and ToolBank USA.

Charlene Lake Bio:

Charlene Lake is responsible for leading AT&T's social innovation, environmental, philanthropic and civic engagement endeavors, driving stakeholder impact measures on behalf of the corporation, and coordinating signature initiatives that connect social needs with business objectives.

Charlene began her professional life as a journalist, working on daily newspapers in Kansas. She started her career at Southwestern Bell Telephone in Topeka, and served in management roles in Financial Communications, Media Relations and Employee Communications in Kansas, Missouri and Texas. She went on to lead SBC's Corporate Advertising and Sports Marketing departments, managing them through multiple mergers, and thereafter created a Public Affairs discipline for the company. In 2007, she designed and launched AT&T's centralized Corporate Responsibility function which she still leads today.

Charlene serves as chair of the National Points of Life Institute Corporate Service Council, and chair of the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas board of directors. She also serves on the board of directors at the Baylor, Scott and White Health Care System, and is past chair of the National Urban League and the Public Affairs Council.

Drive Time: Approx. 25 - 30 mins10:30 - 11:30am: Visit to Texas Instruments

Location: 12500 TI Boulevard, Dallas, TX 75243

The group will visit Texas Instruments' (TI) headquarters in Dallas. TI staff will provide an overview of Texas Instruments' operations to design, manufacture, test, and sell analog and embedded semiconductors to over 100,000 customers in markets such as industrial, automotive, and personal electronics.

The visit and discussion will be led by Cecilia Smith, Vice President and Manager of Analog Foundry Services and Hannah Izon, Director of Government Affairs for Texas Instruments.

Cecilia Smith Bio:

Cecelia Smith is vice president and manager of Analog Foundry Services at Texas Instruments (TI), a role she assumed in 2022. She recently managed one of the longest standing and largest automotive product portfolios in TI. She remains a key automotive advocate and initiative driver across the company. In her role, Smith is responsible for business operations, strategy and leadership of a global team to enable innovative semiconductor products through TI's Foundry Services. Smith's early career in the electronics industry included quality, manufacturing and applications engineer roles. In 1996 she joined TI, where she has made an impact in diverse positions with growing responsibility, from systems engineering and product marketing to product line and business management. In addition to extensive automotive experience, Smith's diverse background includes more than seven years in the personal electronics industry, including video and audio systems, and more than 10 years in the computer and enterprise industry. Smith earned a Bachelor of Science degree in electrical engineering from California State University, Fullerton, in 1992. A native of Los Angeles, California, Smith currently lives in Texas. In addition to TI work and her family, Smith is passionate about a healthy active lifestyle, advocating for the American Heart Association and about encouraging young women to pursue Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) careers.

Hannah Izon Bio:

Hannah joined Texas Instruments, one of the world's largest designers and manufacturers of advanced semiconductor products, in 2019. At TI, Hannah is responsible for federal government relations strategy development and implementation related to workforce development, STEM education, high-skilled immigration, R&D, automotive, and key technology issues. Prior to joining TI, Hannah advocated on behalf of major automakers and auto suppliers at a Washington, D.C.-based automotive trade association, leading efforts on vehicle automation and connectivity. She began her career as a legislative staff in the House of Representatives working on foreign policy and transportation issues. Hannah studied International Studies at Boston College and has an MA from Georgetown's Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service. She resides in College Park, MD with her husband and their four children.
