Dear Mr. Webster:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to New York City, New York, scheduled for June 1 to 3, 2023, sponsored by the Third Way Foundation.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

CONGRESSIONAL STAFF DELEGATION
NEW YORK, NEW YORK – JUNE 2023

Welcome to PPI's 2023 Trip to New York, NY

To our Congressional Staff Delegation,

Thank you for joining the Progressive Policy Institute's Spring 2023 trip to New York, NY.

Since 1989, PPI has been a catalyst for policy innovation and political reform. Our mission is to create radically pragmatic ideas for moving America beyond ideological and partisan deadlock. Many of these mold-breaking ideas have been translated into public policy and law and have influenced efforts to modernize progressive politics across the globe.

This trip will assemble a standout group of bipartisan, bicameral Congressional staff who are leaders in their respective offices on fiscal policy issues.

At PPI, we believe it is crucially important for U.S. federal policy experts to step outside Washington and explore how the issues are playing out in the real world. We value the opportunity to connect federal policymakers with leaders in state and local government, academic, and the private sector who can enhance their work back on Capitol Hill.

That's why for this trip we have organized a packed day of meetings and events with top researchers, senior economists and analysts, and other industry leaders who are prepared to discuss three key issues with our group:

- The standoff over the federal debt limit
- The impact of inflation, interest rates, and long-term debt growth on our economy
- The influence of fiscal and monetary policy on recent small and midsize bank collapses

We have quite an itinerary lined up for our short time in New York and we will do our best to make sure you get the most out of this experience. Thank you again for joining us!

Sincerely,

Ben Ritz
Director of PPI's Center for Funding America's Future

BEFORE YOU GO

- Make sure you have your photo ID and train ticket. Photo IDs may be required for some meetings and events during the trip as well.
- Give yourself ample time to get to Union Station prior to departure. With construction and security delays, we recommend arriving early.
