Dear Mr. Darner:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Miami, Florida, and Cuba,¹ scheduled for February 18 to 22, 2024, sponsored by Center for Democracy in the Americas.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Michael Guest". The first letter "M" is large and loops around the first few letters of the name.

12:00 pm - 12:30 pm Transfer to farm

12:30 pm - 2:00 pm Lunch at Vista Hermosa, a farming cooperative that supplies products to Cuba's expanding private sector. The group engaged in a discussion about deregulation and privatization within the agricultural sector, alongside the impacts of climate change. Additionally, there was a focus on the effects of U.S. policies, as well as the opportunities and challenges associated with collaboration with the U.S. agricultural sector. The delegation will learn about the challenges and opportunities presented by Cuban agriculture in 2024. They will gain an understanding of what types of agricultural trade would benefit their home states, (as agricultural exemptions in the embargo exist).

Guest: Margarita Fernandez is the Executive Director of the Vermont Caribbean Institute (VCI), where she leads efforts in sustainable food systems and biodiversity conservation in Cuba through collaborative projects and professional exchanges since joining in January 2015. With nearly 20 years of experience, she has focused on agroecology, food systems, and international cooperation projects across the Global South, including countries like Cuba, Laos, and Mexico. Margarita's extensive experience includes long-term contracts and consultancies with various organizations, contributing significantly to sustainable livelihoods and biodiversity conservation efforts, particularly in Cuba since 1998.
