Mr. Gianluca Nigro
Office of the Honorable Brendan F. Boyle
1502 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Nigro:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Belgium,¹ scheduled for April 1 to 5, 2024, sponsored by Transatlantic Policy Network.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House Members may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

TRANSATLANTIC WEEK 2024

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT, BRUSSELS

TUESDAY 2 APRIL – WEDNESDAY 3 APRIL 2024

“Challenges Ahead for EU US Relations: Developing a Roadmap towards 2030”

2024 is shaping up to be an unusual year. Not only are there an unprecedented number of countries going to the polls, with more than 50 elections taking place across the globe mobilising more than a quarter of the world's population. But, closer to home, elections to the European Parliament take place from 6 - 9 June with a new European Commission being chosen by the autumn. US Presidential elections take place on Tuesday 5 November. Such a constellation has not occurred in transatlantic relations since 2004.

This provides TPN with the opportunity to assess progress made with its Transatlantic Vision 2030 exercise started in 2019. We can see how unexpected events such as the COVID pandemic which began in March 2020; the brutal Russian invasion of Ukraine in February 2022, followed by the unfolding Israel Hamas war in the Middle East started on 7 October 2023 have fundamentally altered the transatlantic relationship. .

Drawing on the results of these assessments, we will focus our discussions on the way ahead towards 2030 to see how best to handle the enormous challenges facing the transatlantic partnership and identify priorities for joint action. As part of these discussions, we will review how best to fireproof the EU US relationship to ensure that scarce resources are used to maximum effect during the period 2025 to 2028 when new US and EU administrations come into power.

So in this year of elections, TPN is organising its flagship event Transatlantic Week 2024 for the first time in Brussels, staging the event at the European Parliament Library, in a similar way that the US Library of Congress has been used for previous TA Weeks in Washington DC

This years' TA Week will run from the afternoon of Tuesday 2 April to the evening of Wednesday 3 April. Starting with the opening session on the Tuesday afternoon, there will be sessions looking at the Outlook for Transatlantic Partnership and the geopolitical challenges. There will then be a welcoming cocktail for all participants that evening. On Wednesday morning, there will sessions on economic and trade; sustainability and digital transformation assessing the key priorities going forward. Wednesday afternoon will provide the opportunity to see where we are with the Compass Project and discuss ideas as to how to achieve an ambitious TA Partnership framework by 2030.

We would be delighted if you would join us in this search for ideas for joint action together.

DRAFT PROGRAMME

TUESDAY 2 APRIL 2024

AM/PM Arrival of participants

SESSION 1

15.00 – 15.15 Opening comments

SESSION 2

15.15 – 16.00 Outlook for Transatlantic Partnership

Momentous events are underway across the globe: the world is indeed on fire. The Russian invasion of Ukraine still continues after more than 2 years open conflict while the Israeli/Hamas war has the potential to spread across the Middle East. These are dangerous times for the transatlantic partners, the need for their close cooperation more urgent than ever.

What are the greatest priorities that they have to resolve in the months ahead?

SESSION 3

16.00 – 16.30 Geopolitical Outlook (Part 1
Overview: Outlook to 2030 and beyond

SESSION 4:

16.30 – 17.15 Geopolitical Outlook (Part 2)
Russia:

Russia has emerged as a hostile, militarily aggressive power in Europe with its invasion of Ukraine and has moved decisively into Beijing's orbit. The emerging perspective is that the world is moving towards a system of regional political and economic blocs, heavily armed and permanently in competition for technological leadership and access to key mineral and food resources.

Will the transatlantic partnership show sufficient political leadership to win the war in Ukraine?

SESSION 5

17.15 – 18.00 Geopolitical Outlook (Part 3)

China:

The economic rise of China to be the world's largest economic power has long been predicted. As the geopolitical order changes, the central question now becomes how to balance national security interests to secure critical technologies and materials while also continuing to advance a strong bilateral trade and investment relationship. Both the EU and the US are de-risking ties with Beijing reshoring production and considering limits on Chinese investment in their economies.

How can the US and the EU focus on issues of common interest to build an effective joint approach for China?

SESSION 6

18-00 – 20.00 Welcome Cocktail

WEDNESDAY 3 APRIL 2023

SESSION 7

8.00 – 9.00 Breakfast: In conversation

SESSION 8

9.15 – 10.15 Economic and Trade

Trade policy is going through an existential re-set. Domestic politics on both sides of the Atlantic raise questions about globalization – and the ability of countries to agree to common approaches and principles. But companies still manufacture and distribute; buy and sell; and employ workers around the world.

The US and EU have common challenges, but also a common agenda to promote supply chain resiliency, balance economic security with market access and create the enabling environment for sustainable trade and investment that creates long-term economic growth.

How can those common interests lead to a common policy agenda? And how can European and American businesses contribute to developing and delivering on that future-forward trade agenda?

SESSION 9

10.15 – 11.15 Sustainability

Government and business have a common agenda – to meet the current challenges of the climate crisis and with products and services designed to transition energy to more sustainable fuels, to address food security challenges and to innovate a better and more circular approach to scarce resources. Circularity is one approach to ensure that the renewable energy fuels production process reduces emissions; while developing products that can be recycled and reused. Consumers are demanding action of companies and of governments to deliver policies and products that reduce cost and create options.

The EU US Trade and Technology Council has launched the Transatlantic Initiative for Sustainable Trade (TIST), which aims to set up a Transatlantic Green Marketplace. How can the US and the EU translate that idea into concrete actions that encourage investment in sustainable value chains that deliver economic progress with environmental solutions?

11.15 – 11.30 Coffee Break

SESSION 10

11.30 – 12.45 Digital Transformation

The speed of digital transformation shows no sign of slackening. Changes which took place 30 years ago took a year to reach 1 million subscribers: today it is a matter of days. The EU and the US have made important progress to address common challenges with the Trade and Technology Council, for example dealing with questions relating to data transfer and semiconductors.

Looking down the road towards 2040, AI promises to be a huge global disruptor. Today, the EU favours a regulatory approach, most recently agreeing the world's first comprehensive Regulation on AI, while the US is focussing its efforts to deliver broader ambitions making space for innovation. How can common ground be found between these two approaches towards 2030 e.g. for AI? Can a transatlantic digital market be created over time?

SESSION 11

13.00 – 14.15 Buffet Lunch Priorities for EU digital policy

SESSION 12

14.15 – 15.00 Developing the TPN Staffer Network

SESSION 13

15.00 – 16.15 Key challenges ahead for EU US relations 2025 - 2028

This session will allow participants to feed in their thoughts on the key challenges ahead during the period 2025 - 2028 when new US and EU administrations will have come into power on both sides of the Atlantic. Short summaries generated by AI will be available from the previous sessions to underpin the discussions. Can issues for the transatlantic partners, both of a bilateral as well as a multilateral nature be prioritised? How can the EU and the US best handle the situation in the Middle East or the problems of the Global South?

SESSION 14

16.15 – 17.30 Transatlantic Vision 2030 – Compass Project: Next steps

There is a strongly held belief that urgent action needs to be taken to strengthen the EU US relationship given the broad and deepening challenges ahead. Fireproofing the EU US relationship lies at the heart of this Project. Given the wide-ranging tasks undertaken by the EU and US partners, deepening following the Russian invasion of Ukraine, there urgently needs to be a focus on what the EU US framework is intended to achieve.

Currently, there are two Transatlantic Agendas underpinning the relationship – the New Transatlantic Agenda (1995) and the Joint Transatlantic Agenda (2021) with no links between them. Bringing the two Agendas together within a Partnership framework would provide a vital step for greater coherence. TPN recommends that the main features of this action plan be part of updating the Transatlantic Declaration 1990, enabling greater involvement of Congress, the European Parliament and the business community.

As this process takes place, it will be necessary to clarify the linkages between the deepening EU US relationship and NATO. What specific actions are now needed to make this proposal a reality? Can this be addressed at the NATO Summit planned for July 2024 in Washington DC?

SESSION 15

17.30 – 18.00 Conclusions

SESSION 16

19.00 – 22.00 Cocktail/Dinner (Belgian Presidency)

TRANSATLANTIC POLICY NETWORK

4. Provide names and titles of all House Members and employees you are inviting. For each House invitee, provide and explanation of why the individual was invited (include additional pages if necessary).

Subject to the approval of the House Ethics Committee, TPN would like to organize a fact-finding visit to the European Union (EU) institutions in Brussels, Belgium for Gianluca Nigro. Gianluca Nigro is the Legislative Director to Representative Brendan Boyle, who serves as the Co-chair of the Congressional European Union Caucus, a bipartisan caucus which endeavors to strengthen partnerships with our allies in the EU

Gianluca Nigro serves as a member of the TPN Staffers Network.

The visit of to the EU institutions in Brussels, Belgium would serve to promote a better understanding of US and EU interests, priorities, and concerns in relation to subjects like AI, the war in Ukraine and trade negotiations. In addition, it would further offer and opportunity to exchange views with staff to the Members of the European Parliament (MEPs) and European Commission officials about the aspects of various policy differences that are most likely to prove challenging for either side to build trust and political support that can help move policy negotiations forward at difficult junctures.

Congressman Boyle, to whom Gianluca Nigro reports as his Legislative Director, has a keen interest in US-EU relations. He has a deep understanding of the complex political, economic, and security issues facing both sides of the Atlantic, and is a well-known and well-respected advocate of closer cooperation among EU officials and legislators.

In summary, Congressman Boyle and his office are firmly committed to transatlantic cooperation and closer US-EU relations in Congress and with their European Parliamentary colleagues. The visit will therefore help maintain and strengthen ties with many of the key parliamentary offices involved in transatlantic relations on the ground in Brussels.

In this vein, Gianluca Nigro's participation would aptly promote a better understanding of the key US policy positions to EU policy makers and stakeholders.

12. For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip.

TPN has a direct and immediate interest in the subject matter of the visit. TPN was founded in 1992 with the aim of strengthening political, economic, and security ties between the United States and the European Union. TPN is a non-governmental network that provides politicians, business, civil society stakeholders, academics, and other interested participants from both sides of the Atlantic with opportunities to address both current transatlantic issues and future challenges. We serve as a nonpartisan educational network whose overall mission is to educate individuals, academic institutions, businesses, political figures, and the public at large about the benefits of a partnership between the United States and the European Union.

TPN's overarching objective is to promote a strengthened partnership between the governments and the people of the United States and European Union.

TPN works to achieve this objective by providing continual opportunities for US and EU politicians to participate in face-to-face discussions to broaden their understanding of the political agendas and priorities on both sides of the Atlantic and to develop a forward-looking agenda for transatlantic cooperation. In practical terms, the network seeks to accomplish its goals through a combination of informal visitor programmes and an extensive series of outreach roundtables organized in Brussels and Washington DC.

All activities serve to under-pin the formal exchanges between political leaders on both sides of the Atlantic. The informal nature of programs helps build ties, promote understanding, and ensure frank and open dialogue between legislators without the constraints of the official fora. Visitor programs organized by TPN for US legislators and their staff, policymakers and other experts serve an educational purpose and are intended to promote informal dialogue and discussion among these actors and their EU counterparts on key issues on the transatlantic agenda. Such exchanges help to bring fresh and up-to-date US perspectives to enhance transatlantic discussions in Brussels and promote a better understanding of US policy positions. They furthermore enable American and European policymakers to identify potential disagreements, seek out consensus, and explore opportunities for greater UE-EU cooperation in specific policy areas.

In addition to the benefits of policy debate which visits provide, they allow visitors to gain a greater understanding of the EU's governing structures, key institutions, important actors, and the political dynamics in the decision-making process. As importantly, direct interaction between US and EU policymakers also serves to create new, and reinforce existing, professional, and personal ties between key actors. These relationships can help both sides anticipate and resolve transatlantic disagreements and serve to underpin the overall UE-EU relationship.

TPN will be the sole organizer of all aspects of Gianluca Nigro's visit to Brussels. It will make all travel and accommodation bookings, arrange all meetings for the program, independently provide background briefings on the meetings and the latest policy discussions in Europe, and oversee logistics on the ground during the visit.

15.b.2. Provide reason for selecting the location of the event or trip.

Brussels, Belgium has been chosen as the location for the visit because of the EU institutions. The European Parliament, the European Commission, and the Council of the EU) and located in the Belgian capital.

Engaging with representatives from all three of these EU institutions and other stakeholders from the broader EU business and NGO community will be essential in understanding the EU dynamics for the purposes of current or future policy negotiations around AI, economic cooperation, sustainability, and overall security.
